Ganesh Chelluboyina : Anuraaag! Pseudo-wingies during Summer 2019. Wouldn't have made it through that dreary time without your cheerfulness and optimism. I still remember our outings at Hiranandani, trying out new food each time. You were my digital guru, helping me out when I didn't know the ABCs of tech. We attended placement mock events together. I didn't see you too much in the final sem though, where were you? Anyways, stay carefree as always, and remember to keep in touch! ♥

Bhadri Narayanan R : Yo mofo! My first YB post to the first friend that I made in insti <3 I haven't told you this before, but you made me feel very welcome when everything around was intimidating. Hogging food in H15 night canteen, and the occasional times when I joined in for mini militia, to trying to make me watch anime and helping me make my gadget choices, you were really a great friend. Right now is probably a dream come true for you to keep gaming day and night XD And sometime in the future, we'll pakka go for my treat(s) .. I think that'll be enough reasons to not forget me ;)

Utkarsh Chandra : As much as you tried, sorry for not being an anime and gaming addict XD. Thanks for being my food partner through these 4 years (tere bina pata nhi kya karta me). My insti life would never have been the same without you, final year ki saari bakchodi jo tere room me ki hai mujhe hamesha yaad rahegi (tujhe mostly nahi rahegi kyuki hum jab bakchodi karte the tu game khelta tha XD). Tera 4 ghante ka monn vrat to duniya ke sabse epic cheezo me se ek hai ! Jis din tujhe pehla drink pilaya tha wo bhi kam nahi tha(Jab tu japan jaega tab wapas piyenge). PS- Idk how many times ive said this in 4 years but I'll say it again, Im in for vegas, munni bhi aajaega, tu himanshu ko mana
