Gali Meghana : Would college even make sense without the rollercoaster we've had through the 5 years? A roommate, a confidant and nothing less of a blessing, you've motivated me to be the person I am now. You saw something in me which I couldn't, thanks for always being by my side. Our journey together is far from ending, I'll be there through every chapter of yours. Love you, Meghana Rommie.

Risha Agarwal : Hey Radhika! You're a really cute senior and I really admire your painting skills. Thank you for all your help, right from the internship days to resume making and placement 😊 I hope that you stay cheerful and that you achieve lots of success. 💖 keep painting :')

Aditi Mahajan : Hello Radhika. You are one of my favourite humans 💛 I remember we first met on the set of Anprod, I loved how graceful and funny you were, and I thought that it would be so good to be friends with you, but the younger me didn't really know how to be friends with seniors back then and idk why 😅. But then fortunately I became CC coordinator and realized that seniors bhi friends ho sakte because of you. You are so easy to talk to and you know how to make people feel comfortable and included and you are selfless and I know that you easily forgive people. (me aapki tareef krne me hi word limit exceed kr sakti hu I guess 😂) You have a big heart Radhika and I love you so much for being you. I will miss all of our outings and gossip sessions so muchhhhhh. I feel like we share a special bond Radhika and I plan on making it a forever thing 💛💛 (basically you will have to keep listening to my rants, boy problems and happy stories ofc 😊👩) Thanks for every memory (and treats :p) I hope we still get to do that midnight road trip thingy 😊

Tanya Gupta : Definitely going to miss how Mahendra called us Tingy and Mingy :P Thanks for being my partner on the basketball courts. It was always nice to cross paths with you and catch up for a bit when going to lectures and coming back. I love your smile a lot! All the best for your future Radhika! :D

Sarthak Sharma : Heyyy! I remember that soft toy thing too, I'm so glad that I met you because of that :)) You're probably one of the sweetest person I have met in the institute. Your cheerful way of greeting while simply crossing streets in the institute is something that I'll miss a lot. Thanks a ton for all that help during internships and placements, I owe a lot to you :D I'll definitely ping you again and again for those invaluable advices :D Please stay in touch :")

Sanket Agrawal : Heyyy! It was very nice meeting you occasionally in the final year (though I wish atleast once, we hanged out longer xD) Have heard so much praises about you from common friends and hope you continue to play such important roles in their life. Let's catch up properly for once (atleast :P) and know each other better. Let's torture the chotu and motu in our lives together xD All the best for your future, I hope you find success in whatever you do.

Anmol Gupta : Hi Jiggly :) We've of course been through a number of ups and downs in insti (elections being the buzzword :P) but I'm so happy that we're still good friends. You're one of the very few people who gave me honest feedback about where I was wrong each time, and I thank you (again) for that. ISAA times were super fun! Right from 'The Three' in groundwork to being rebels against the 'One' occasionally XD Those long mails and short replies :P Oh, and of course those cute piggy stickers haha! Glad to have stuck together :) Have to say that I admire your art SOO MUCH. It's really amazing _/_ Stay blessed, and may Rhonda Byrne keep showering her blessings on you :P

Siddhi Snehal Nagre : Radhikaaaa (I know you can hear my voice here XD) I'm unable to write anything here cause I'm literally short of words. I know that you know what you mean to me XD and yearbook is for when it ends; but obv this ain't the end and you can't get rid of me this easily. But, for the record: you are the best human I could find here. Thanks for helping me out in...(list would exceed the word limit here, but practically, everything) Couldn't have asked for a better support system ♥

Naman Goyal : Hey Radhika!! I can't be more grateful to you for all that you have helped me achieve in the insti life. Have huge respect for you for always be so caring and helpful. Always enjoyed your company be it in council or treats. I hope at some point I could payback for all your help and guidance. Please stay in touch, and kabhi 4+1 treat karo to mujhe bhi bula lena 😊

Mohanish Verma : "♥My Roll Maa is Best" it's all started 4 years ago. This phrase got so many catch in my freshie year maybe some of your classmates got real jealous haha and that's why I was given so many task frequently. 😊. You been a saviour in many aspects couldn't thank less for that. 😊 I wish we could hangout more. It was so much fun to see you after class..me dangling with a huge smile irritating you with dozens of irrelevant questions haha 😊. Just after the 3rd yr you got very busy with POR so I didn't texted you either. I wish to see you after college. This year I'm going to drop heavy loads of question regarding placements. So be in touch..and treat dedo roll bete ki 🙏 still "My Roll Maa is Best" ♥😊

Karan Kothadiya : I remember how we used to push each other up for intros in the 1st year and eventually Meghana would be the one caught. I remember you crying on the day of elections in the 1st year and I couldn't help laughing xD I also remember you stonewalling entire opposite teams at Madras and later. I may not have let you know but I respect you a lot. You're a go-getter, you're honest about who you are and you have always helped me with everything that I asked you for. All the best going ahead. I'd love to be better friends than we've been :) Love, K Samruddhi Dodal : Radhikaaa! <3 You were more like a life-saviour to me than a DDP partner. One of the best things about DDP was that we got to know each other. You're a gem of a person <3 Kind, understanding and super-helpful, still can't imagine getting through placements without you offering to do our DDPs. And the P&G interview, just your presence there was so calming. I also absolutely love your art. You're this head-strong, determined individual with an empathetic and creative side, I'm so glad I got to know you. Wish you loads of success, hope we stay in touch! Love <3 :")

Ayushi Panghal : Dear moti, you've been a very special friend to me, the one with whom I connected on a hundred different levels in the first few years of insti life, from cult to sports to acads to friendships, we've gone through all of it together. You're a very kind and generous person moti, keep being you. It's sad that we couldn't make up for our lost time and connection in this sudden situation and end this beautiful journey how we started it, together. Hoping with all my heart that we find "us" again in future. Always wishing the best for you and rooting for your happiness. Love always, Ayu. <3

Naman Chindaliya : Yo Radhika. Rishi ke room par milta tha aapse. Aap bahut helpful senior ho. Internship ke time bahut help ki aapne. And sorry for 10 versions of resume I sent you for review 😊. I wish aapse zyada baat kari hoti. Aap awesome ho. Thank you.

Varshit Kumar : End of the road, eh? The journey without your guidance and unconditional support would not have been the same. Also, insti or not, I'll still write poems for you xD Let's go on that trip soon? Thank you for always taking care of me in council treats and treating me with food. Love you always <3
