Tanisha Joshi : Hey Deepak! ITF ke project me same team me the, yaad he? 😄 Fir wo treasure hunt me humlog pure campus me cycling kiye the. It all feels like a long time ago. Sem achanak khatam hua but department trip ek to hui atleast, maza aya tha trek ke waqt bhi tere saath. Thank you for solving all the placement related doubts I had. You are a sweet and helpful person Deepak, always be the same. I wish you get all the good things in life :)

Himanshu Bishwash : From Room No. 339 to H12, it has been one hell of a joyride. Thanks for all the support and encouragement. Also, for tolerating my bad-bad about the unique issues of my life, giving company to Tilaknagar and not interfering and being patient on that day ;) Those pointless visits to Padmavati Temple after a long, frustrating day were always appreciated. It's great that you were enthusiastic and ready to get out of the four walls and explore. It has always been great to have someone on the same page for a lot of things. PS.: YOU MUST START TO DRINK.

Shivam Sharma : Remember Mood I hunting. Dare in concert. Our hoodies are much important than us 🤔. And Kanujia's framing story on you. New year experience was amazing. Bonfire hijacked. And dawn mai aate time, the picture you clicked of me and Markam. Terrorist types. 🤔🤔. Hey Prabha rakhya karah! 🤔🤔

Rahul Sinha : Sitting in department auditorium and telling each other that you will get a seat in spot round is first time we met, remember? Did lot of fun with my so called "Sweet" roommate and witness of how he not only to humans, can even swear to cats. Had fun playing alongside you in badminton. Bahut jyada rice khane wala, kabhi bhi room p aake fruits kha lena aur gajab ka knowledge and lot more which I cant share here. Best of luck for future bhai.
