Atri Dutta : Mere bhai, you are literally the only reason why I used to attend Borkar's class :P. From our ITSP (remember that 3d printing?) to now, it was always a pleasure to interact with you. Keep visiting michelin stars and making us all jealous, and phd ke liye all the best!! baatein karte rehna, mere bhai!

Siddhant Jadhav : Yo machau man... The face of our wing. Itna kaise cool, tension free and down to earth hai yaar tu. The finest person I've met in insti. And Kya masti ki humne wing me. Those long hours of monopoly, random discussions and those pizza parties. Always stay the same and be in touch, mate. And US se chocolate jaroor laana 😊 Archive great heights man. You deserve every bit of those Deep Karkhanis : Nitish bro!!! Bahot humble aadmi hai tu yaar. Aur infi helpful bhi. Univ aur intern ke apping ke time kaafi guidance diya tune bhai. Tera research calibre bahot high hai. Probably the best in the dept. Jyada time toh saath nai spend kiya apan ne but jitna bhi kiya hamesha mera fayda hi karwaya hai tune. US jaaye toh touch main rehna. Eagerly awaiting to hear about ground-breaking research that I am sure you'll do.

Pujan Biswas : Neettuuu. The most astute person I have seen in insti. Pardes jaate hai insti se log, aap toh swades chale yaar. Your smile and calm persona is so much to miss. Though you skipped EnPoWER meets :P tu humare dil main rahega but thank you for always being available when really required. I don't want inferiority complex by talking about your acads, leaving that for others. Thanks for the H6 main gala dinner ke liye, whatta weird memory! H6 ke ajeeb stories ke liye bhi thanks mate. Please stay in touch, bhagwaan aasaani se nahi milte, ek baar mil gaye toh choddna nahi hai. Your bhakt, Bisso!

Nilay Pande : Yo Nitish, I don't know where to begin man. You have been one of my closest and dearest friends at insti since day 1. You are one of the most friendly, open, honest and decent guy I have ever met. You have been with me throughout my entire journey at insti. I can never forget those extremely long talks outside H9 , cracking dark jokes, making fun of each other, Mumbai vs Pune :P, going out esp after endsems, our Goa trip, etc. I remember how we used to plan for Alibaug since our first semester and finally only made in our last sem xD. I can't imagine my insti life without you my friend and I know our friendship that will last our lifetime. Lets meet soon after lockdown.

Bhishma Dedhia : Yo Nitish! Apan pehli baar freshie year summer ITSP ke time mile the but dhang se interaction Nassau street par Mamoun's falafel khaate-khaate hua xD That was followed by that epic trip to 6 flags. El Toro par baithkar itni fatt gayi ki fir kuch baithe hi nahi :p Gym mein bhi kaafi milte rehte the. I am looking forward to read your groundbreaking NLP research. Also we won't be too far away (1hr?) so lets kickoff the east coast paryatan plans xD. Machate raho and keep in touch!

Lavish Lavish : Yo Neetu! Bhai kya bolun tere liye, innocent, cute and infi pyaara hai tu. Lekin teri maggu wali harkatein yaad rahegi mujhe, BC nahi maarunga, BC nahi maarunga bol ke BC mara Tu😂😂. But anyways aise hi apni cuteness banaye rakhna, machate rehna, aur apne desh jaake bhul mat jana hume. Good Luck Bro. Yours gratefully: Laviur

Arush Gupta : Yo bhai Though I wasn't able to spend a lot of time in the wing, I will always remember PH108 ke midsem waala time when you took the time out to answer my questions to me over the phone. Thanks so much for the help yaar, you helping me like a night before that exam meant a lot to me. Will always keep in touch over video calls man. See you in the States sometime! :)

Naman Jain : Yo Wonder Kid, Pune. Alag machata h bey tu. Ha last year toh kaafi time pass kiya apan ne from life philosophy to stalking grad students (well mostly you) to btp discussions. Hopefully tera quantum gans accept ho jaaye emnlp mein. NYC trip was ofcourse awesome, but next time room mein book kruga. Next level hard working h tu, and once again congrats on on NYU teri dream univ. And it was west wing, dekh le ab toh.

Naman Goyal : We have lived the adjacent rooms for 3 yrs and undeniably you are the best adjacent roommate I can ever have. Will always remember those Joshyaaa sound and how composed and down to earth you are. I can always say I have an OCI cardholder friend. All the talks we had were great, I am sure you will be immensely successful in your endeavours. Be in touch and stay the same hardworking and superb person that you are.

Syamantak Kumar : Nitish _/_ You are literally the epitome of coolness. The most composed and polite person I have known in insti. I don't think I have ever heard any controversial or agitated statement from your mouth. I have learnt a lot from you dude. Your hardworking and dedicated nature and your work ethic is seriously admirable! Always be as humble as you are. I know you'll achieve great heights in the future. Best of luck for your PhD. I know you'll rock it. Stay in touch bro! 😊

Yash Shah : You were probably the most productive, humble and hardworking researcher I had the privilege of interacting/working with. From discussing each other's R&D/BTP projects to actually working on one together (MaSo aka mediocre attempt with superior output :P), I learned a lot from you. Thank you for helping me shortlist univs for my PhD applications and for the long discussions that followed, although raah to koi aur hi chun li maine finally. Last sem ki Linguistics classes and the conversations we had while walking back from them yaad rahengi. All the best for your PhD at NYU, and I hope we stay in touch!

Sharath Chandra Ale : Yo wing ka God!! We both balance the avg cpi of our wing 🤓. You are the only good soul left in the wing or so I think. I have never seen you tensed, how naive 😊. Bady is star player. I will never forget how you took revenge of your lost racket by breaking other's 😬. Though you have a lot of things on your plate, you always made time to hang out with us. Tere reseach se world ko changr karna and kabhi muje mat bhoolna nai to tere nanachi taang kaat dunga 🥺🥺

Mahajan Devavrat Shailesh : GOD. Seeing people as smart as you being so down to earth gave me hope in the first year. You've been really helpful to me whenever I have asked loads of stupid doubts. Thanks for the memories!

Vikramaditya Patil : personal weaknesses strong room Vocabulry weak internship (7L₹), ?

Kartik Khandelwal : Bro, you are such a nice and calm person. I had fun in our talks walking back to hotel, discussing random things. I remember you wrote 'hardworking' as one of your qualities during the SSL website making assignment and you have stayed true to that during all 4 years in insti. You have done such good work in NLP with multiple publications but have always stayed humble and helpful. It was always insightful to discuss research/BTP projects with you. Let's keep in touch after college.
