Shubhankar Mihir Seth : Jannu, I think we hit it off when we mugged together for EE101, and harassed that TA, and then the Goa trip happened. From the seafood there to the shwarmas at Carter's, we've had so much great food together. I missed you and Aadarsh so much in your exchange sem - I had to make do with veg wherever we went. But I can't thank you enough for that Hyderabad trip, and for making us all dance. Remember the time we spent hours gluing rubber tape on the wheel for our Machine Design project - that was so much fun! Here's to more matches at Wankhede and you finding the courage to drink tap water!

Rahul Agrawal : Since the point is to write something memorable, here's my fav. line- 'Bhai ek din tera passport chura lunga main xD'. Tbh, because of you, I am proud ki koi to toli me core karega mere saath :P. Because of you, I had to start worrying about my SOP like half a year in advance, which eventually out turned to be a good thing lol. Thoda logo ko room me welcomed feel kraya kar bhai :P. Cali me door rahiyo, and ofcourse, codes/assignments nahi dunga tab :P. Jokes apart, stay the same odd friend of mine you are xD. I like how direct you are (kam dost hai aise :P), how hard you try to crack jokes (to vain :P) and how you switch modes before and during exams :p. Milte hai tere desh me fir :)

Ayush Puri : Aur jannu bro, I have seen you change from being the RG guy :-P to the helping one, and as a result you don't have to do the labs now. :-P. Keep pursuing your interests and all the best for the future.

Anshul Sambher : Jannu sir!! Kaafi mazedaar baatein hoti thi yaar hamaari. Last jo mujhe yaad hai wo H3 main investment banking ke baare main thi holi ke din 😊 Thank you so much for appreciating my fashion sense bro and I hope that you too would explore more in this area!! Foosball main mujhe hataane ka to pata nhi, TT main pakka haraunga ek din to zarur. Ab Palo Alto jaake humein bhi yaad kar liya karna. All the best for the future and keep in touch!

Sahil Shah : Jannu!! You were one of the first people I met in college and I remember how you being sooo uptight about shoes in your room, feet on your bed, your prized racket and your mineral water! Nonetheless, we had some amazing times in the first year - from your sobriety on my birthday to removing people one by one from Toli, until I was removed for 2 years. Lol, dark humor! When we started hanging out again in 2020, you were a different person - one of the most easy-going people I knew, but as always a great person to be around. The trek and your sister's wedding (and all the dance practice) are some of the best times I've had. I am sure Stanford is only the start of an amazing life! Stay in touch

Nirbhay Wadiwala : How is it that I can truly describe my relationship with Nishant. I think its that of a pet owner and his dog(me being the pet owner OC) ... the dog barks at you in the beginning and shits everywhere, the owner does not like the dog and is a bit annoyed by him ... But as the days pass the affection grows and an unbreakable bond forms... The late night hookah bar trips to the random " dance sessions" the memories with Nishant stand apart for having no limits to self entertainment.. Maybe one day I ensure that my dog gets castrated but I hope my friend can understand the fact that it's just cause one of you in my life is way more than I couldve ever asked for <3

Kushagra Kacholia : Can't say I remember the non-virtual first year much, but our WhatsApp chats from across the wing are hard to forget. From that night in Laxmi in the 5th sem (sorry for that :P) to that at Social in December, we've gone through a lot. The 'hospitalization' in Hyderabad was great and I hope I will finally step up my dance game at your wedding. Lukkha nights in the wing with Baheti and the pizza party every Wednesday in third sem will be cherished forever!! Stanford is really well deserved, just don't start with the RG again :P Let's catch up soon with an another wild drunk night!!!

Chinmay Kalra : Jannu bhai!! We have known each other since 5th class, jab main Chirec join kiya as a super-introvert & super-chutiya guy 😂😂. Insti mein toh hum itna frequently mil nahi paye. But we did used to bump into each other sometimes in H3 mess. And of couse, HS 443 mein prof har class mein tereko mid-class utha ta tha 😂. Tu mast aadmi hai bhai and aage bhi waise hi rehna. Thanks for all those memories!!

Akash Sharma : broooo...Tu US jaa raha kese beat krega ab me tereko football penalties me& Sodabottle opener vaali night was best ..Alg hi jannu dikha us din mere ko ..Bro gonna miss u ..mostly me mumbai me rahunga jab bhi aayga tu milenge apn .. All the best bhai

Adarsh Attavar : Jannu bro! I still remember how awkward our first few interactions were in H15. That cab ride with Adarsh and akhil was probably the first time we spoke properly lol. And then H3 <3, all the daily football matches <3 and ofc H3PL, where I beat you in every possible Stat :p. You've always been fun to hang out with, especially soda bottle and all the other times we never went out drinking -_- . I just wish we could finally decide who the better player was, those fifa cards we made were not at all accurate, my physical should definitely be higher :p. H3PL couldn't happen this time, but maybe we come back as Alums and get our asses kicked. All the best bro and stay in touch :)

Mahale Chaitanya Rahul : Jannu bro!! Last day epic tha Bhai intern ka, kaha kaha nahi ghume hum🔥 Thanks for taking that shot away from me 😂 Project me mast jugaad kiye the tune, gharpe Raha summers pura, phir wo solid works Wala model and getting a discount on that too 😂🙏 Interacting with you was fun! Treat jaroor kareng bhai 🔥 All the best for everything ahead!!
