Titash Baidya : You are the perfect example of willpower; from a shy boy of village you have turned yourself into a truly smart, tactical and responsible man who took the charge of every difficult works by heart and completed it with fun despite of all the hardships. You have showed numerous things which should be learnt from you. Nothing can make you down, you have a very unique way to manage everything with an unthinkable smartness. I will say, you are a conqueror...really. I don't have much words....and of course I forget, it is really appreciable that you learned very difficult steps of dance by yourself, and showed your extremely sharpened managing abilities as department placement coordinator...I owe

Jeyapriya T J : A smart and responsible guy who handles every problem just like that. You were telling AURAA, "People will keep on saying these things. If you listen to them, you'll never do anything". I still remember that, and will never forget that. That is the moment I got to know how cool and inspiring you're. Your appreciation for my GE lab work made me learn how appreciation make people do more than others expect from them. And, obviously one more friend was added in my 3D list with whom I can contact virtually 😊

Sreyashi Mandal : Narcissism koi isse sikhe! :P Where to start! He is an adorable person and a charming company. Even though he talks so freaking much, you will never get bored while talking to him. He is so confident and I love how hard he works for the things he is passionate about. He is so unique and so talented! He is one of those guys who can achieve anything they set their heart at. And I hope all his dreams come true. He is truly a crazy person and I am so thankful that I got to know him. :)

Ashish Kumar Choudhary : What should I write for u..I think this yearbook has word limit🤔. and if i am going to describe u words kya ek pooro docs lag jayega...You are always special, good, best, supportive bro friend buddy for me. We have a lot of memories...kuch I can share kuch ke idea even I can't share because your ideas are logically illogical but i love your enthu and pagalpaan to always try to do something new 😊. Starting from Sem I we are the same constant bakchod 🤡🤡🤡... #Tera Yaar hoon mai Short story of sem 1.. 1. Salsa (HAHAHAHHAHH)..maine nahi  nahi katwaya tha 2. Freshers Dance (when we all are in sync and you have guts to go opposite...like mai alag karunga i am the king) etc.

Sagar Baulia : Pradip and mine litb diaries , one of my fond memory will always be the salsa night one. Which we three(tits ,me and tau) decided to boycott we were VIPs , 😊 and Pradip was eager to go , I still remember he went for saloon just to attend salsa , then he asked me atleast 4 times changing shirts bcs he also don't know what color suits him..but at the end the girl he asked went with somebody , I personally made a mockery of him , KAAM HI KIYA THA BHAU NE AISA👍👍, then the pehle pehle aap pehle aap wala incident although me waiting at the side of the lift to get on, but he was doing this which I again made mockery off , then the video of his concert at Prasenjit sir home is as good as dinchak

Nilanjan Bose : He never has the word static in his dictionary..such a dynamic guy who has a indomitable spirit to do something interesting when all of us are having a lag..A tech-loving person from inside, you will also find him on the beats in the dance floor..A guy taking the daunting responsibility as a placement coordinator to a guy who has a superb ability to analyse during a discussion..Bhandardara trip has created moments with you that turned into memories..will miss watching movie whole night and sleeping on the floor like we did after the end of first semester. Stay energetic and we will meet again..

I wish we could have danced like crazy on our hypothetical farewell. Stay in touch bro..Much Love <3

Harsimran Kaur : There is no way I can admire the sheer crazy of you as beautifully as other people have done here but I must say you are a dreamer which is inspiring. There is one specific memory of you that has stuck with me. During an incident when I was backing down because I thought nobody really wanted me here, you showed your support. That was really sweet. I have had amazing conversations with you. You are an awesome person and I am sure you will become quite famous in the future :P probably president? lol.

Gautam Sharma : My second "Bhangra" partner. I was amazed by your flexible body and your never seen dance steps. Amazing, hahahahah. You were too good at dance and wanted to participate in every section of dance from "Mundaya to Kaliyon ka chaman". Lovely. Best wishes!! God bless you!!!
