First sem m maza aaya fir second sem m thoda communication gap ho gya .. or third sem m subah subah fir breakfast k lie sath.. Will really miss those deep discussions about life with you. You are extremely talented and intelligent ... Bs zada socha mat kr cheezo k baare m .. Mushkil h as we have discussed lekin overthinking bekaar hi h we both have agreed. Baaki jaldi "Afsar" ban jao, jaha bulaoge waha party lene aajaynge :D

Maitreyi Rajeev Madhavi Redkar : Boo! Guess studying Indian Philosophy taught us a lot more about the philosophy of life. It has been quite an adventure spending time with you, hope to have similar adventures in the future. Do keep in touch, Avi. Take care :)

Utkarsh Kulshrestha : Hey Avichal. I have seen varied versions of you...from the topper, to the party guy, to the FIFA champion. Can't forget the nail-biting FIFA moments that we had together. You are a balanced guy. Someone to look forward to talk with. I wish we had more time to talk and discuss about stuff coz you have a sense of maturity within yourself. Grow stronger, reach the heights you're looking forward to. All the best.

Shekh Aman : My words will not suffice the bond of friendship we experienced during this 2 year of IIT. Every moment i relished in IIT, you were part of it. My story of IIT without you, will not even be close to complete. Going out for food with you, I'll always miss it because i never met a person except you who had such same taste and enthusiasm like me, be it KFC, Domino'z or Jogeshwari restaurant and never mind plans we had for this last semester but fortune had different tale to end with. But indeed, even in the dying of this 2 year journey, your were the one with whom it all ended (In Shimoga with memories for lifetime).

Vikram Kumar Purbey : Bro u r so hardworking, dedicated person towards ur life. Achha mutton khane ke liye naye naye restaurant explore krna and deep discussion of life(shiru cafe memories). Bas jyada socha mt kro bhai (always thinks positive), IPS banne ke baad bhulna mt, convo pe milenge, take care bhai

Swapna Sarit Ojha : Thanks for keeping me company during the time I spent in lab in first semester (which was a lot). At times you used break into songs, and I loved them. Your singing is really really good. And your Insta posts and captions are so good. They have the power to make someone nostalgic about an experience they never have had. All the very best for the future! Keep singing, keep clicking and keep writing.
