P T Cherishma : You are the most innocent and pure-hearted person I have met till date.. U are One of my favourite juniors!😍 My telugu buddy at IITB 😂.. Wish this corona hadn't shown up and spoiled our final semester .. wish we had gone on more trips like Igatpuri Camping.. now I remember I hadn't returned your earrings u gave me on the day of Onam celebs🙏.. You will always be #Jerry😂 in my favourite Tom and Jerry fights, #TheDubaiShaikh😂😂, #CuteLittlejunior💖 and yess...The one and only.. Kappa🥰 of our group😂 Love you dear💖.. take care and stay as happy and cheerful as u always are 🥰!! Hope we meet soon😭

Sandeep Narayanan : Amma Baaboi, never thought our college days will end so abruptly, like the way our friendship started the day u came to class wearing that green lungi. U were always dere to annoy me, eat all my food, embarrass me in public, and irritate me with your Sambar Philosophies. Still U are the one, I will be missing the most; the most trustworthy friend i ever had. U always read my mind, which made u my favorite buddy. Shiru, canteen, BoB moments are just cliches, Our ambulance ride is my fav moment with u :D. Lucky are those who get good frns in college, blessed are the ones who get a Bantu; and I am both :) Wishing u lot of love, fun and sarasu in life, I will miss u a lot, Ms. Dubai Sheikh.

Smita Lokhande : For me, you are the youngest of our group but yet the most mature person amongst us.. You were my first friend in IITB who stayed by my side for all of these 2 years.. we can discuss almost anything.. however serious or lame it is.. u have helped me a lot.. I will miss you the most.. our lunch breaks, sitting in second last row for PE2 class, canteen talks, "have u come to the dept?" messages, taking ur side in your and Sunny's fights.. the list just goes on.. I have still have the key to your room of H11 which I won't return now..:P I hope we all have a outing together before u go to Dubai!!!🥳🥳

Samiksha Kesharichand Baid : The cutest known junior from vnit.... Yet never met in Btech.... Constant dinner partner of June '19...a very trust worthy friend.....always available for any kind of help... Will miss playing uno and pictionary.... Of course how can I forget Mafia... That innocence on your face... Couldnt even think that u were MAFIA....will miss you.... All the best for future....

Pushkar Chaudhari : We became friends during the walks of June '19. Before that I used to think you are a final year dual degree student :D. You are my favorite person on the group because you take my side when no one else does :D. I always wanted to give you one complement - You are the most "pure soul" person I've ever met. I have never heard you speak badly of anyone even when you probably had a genuine reason to be mad at that person. I think that's a difficult thing to pull-off. I envy that so much. Btw, only reason I open insta is to check your messages containing Calvin and Hobbes :D Hope to continue receiving them even as you make missiles in Dubai. :p

Sancho Simmy Louis : Diplu ! (One of the hundreds of names that I have given you).One of the most caring people that I have met at IITB.Nothing is more difficult than making you wake up in the morning :) Amazing at puzzles and word games ! I have always actively tried to be in your team in any such games. The only friend in my life who is called Kappa :p.The name suits you !!! Will miss you little one !!!!!
