Dhwaj Singhal : Dev(uh i mean N) man i don't even know where to start. i still remember our first ever encounter (at our second year Surbahaar after-party) like it was yesterday. Since then we have both come such a long way as friends, guitar players, and most importantly, weebz. I cannot express enough how much i have learnt from you and been inspired by you as a musician. I have immense respect for you, and seeing you get closer and closer to moving to Japan and fulfilling all your strange weeb fantasies brings a tear to my eye. We've come a long way and i'm super grateful to the music scene for bringing us together. Cheers mate

Aayushman Mishra : Yo probably the first and only time I'll write something good about you :p It all started in the first few weeks of the first sem when you were such an introvert that we hardly met even after having the opposite rooms. Once I got to know how sweet and helping person you are I cant remember having any amazing memory in this college without you! From Cs go night's to clash of clan fights. From pubg drama to ph107 ki maggai. From anda gunda to minecraft I saw you become the best version of yourself becoming an awesome guitarist and coming out of your hole to find the best people in the music club. I'm so proud of you fam so there you have kuch acche shabd from your 'Pubg friend'. Also no memory can be complete between us without criticizing sopnil XD

Srajan Kumar Verma : You're one of the most brutally honest and genuinely modest people I have ever known. Lets just both agree you're shit when it comes to understanding people but somehow you understand me. Here's remembering all the dirty talk, the craziest and ugliest memes, the grossest videos possible, the bitching, getting so drunk together, roaming drunk in Hiranandani after midnight, going to Merwan with me, showing me your exercises daily, the infinite guitar jams, singing motivations and you taking my slaps all this time. If that's enough, we always the insane drunk and near death experiences of Goa to make us best friends. Thanks for everything <3

Pranav Thakkar : Yoooo future Japan buddy! I know you gonna be far from Saitama but we gonna meet up and make a djent duo and write music foshos 😭 you are the sane side of PP problems and when it gets too much I'm always happy you're there. I like how mature (and fit 🐱🐱) you've become and your guitar skills are 🐱🐱🐱 but I've truly learnt watching you play, make patches, whatnot. Watching your skills and dedication at Inter IIT OC jams really taught me a lot and I'm so happy that I've shared a music room with you. You've always been great company, despite the fact that you hang out with Jay so much 🤔 let's go to greetings once everyone's back uWu

Animesh Singhal : Dev yaar plis japan mat ja hame chor ke! Kitna jaldi time nikal gaya. From you being thalaiva to a chick magnet in the 4th year, we became a family. What next level discussions we've had on life bro! And what a great time all of us have had in your room with that crazy light & booze. Surprisingly, I was one of those who never had the privilege to hear your drunk rant. Tu nahi hota mere saath toh job nahi lagti bhai, you have no idea what you mean to me. You've been an inspiration for us when it comes to music and fitness (apart from the fact ki tu chuswa ke aa gaya tha :P). The way we rocked the stage in Goonj will be always close to my heart. Lots of respect and love mah nigga lamp! :D

Drish Mahnot : uWu OwO senpai. Get me something from Japan this time, no excuses. My go to teacher in all common courses, always Mr. "mujhe zyaada nahi aata but jitna aata hai kara dunga." I love how helpful you are by nature and your sense of humour. Stay the ultimate weeb friend, Dev

Madhur Sudarshan : Its been a long time since Arcade 2017 (H5 gang yo), but consistently every time I've met you, you keep leveling up. You always keep it real and keep me grounded O_o xP You're one of the few people that really gets it man, and our differences as musicians is what makes composing/performing with you an extremely rewarding experience. You have an ability to see through bullshit that I have banked on many more times than I can recall. If we hadn't learnt to work with each other, I would have missed out on so much (too much to list out in 700 words with no emojis in the year book \*-*/ ). Glad I could always rely on you as a friend and bandmate. Nariyal Gang 2020!! Take care bro

Parmar Dhairya Dinesh : Oh bhai! Oh bhai! look who we got here, the coolest guy in insti!!! boom baam partner for life #bakemomo, bhai yeh yearbook kam pad jaega tere bare mein likne k liye. Love you fellow weeb, maybe you are the only person who didn't think of me as boring. The first time I met you and your mother told me to break the ice coz you're a shy person I didn't had the guts to tell her that I'm no good either but look at you now, the ideal college stud with an electric guitar, I could only hope to be as cool as you. Will never forget those jam nights and desert trips! The bike trip in Goa was so much fun. Thanks for carrying me in pubg and tolerating my dumbness. Japan pakka aunga tujhse milne!

Saloni Deodhar : Man you went from being the quiet kid in class to this epic weeb niche memer after inter IIT. You started me off on my jazz journey, although we never completed misty xD its been a wild ride with all the after parties, pot brownies & sunny nights. The council of pp wishes you farewell and best wishes, you're going to have a blast in Japan <3

Kunind Sahu : Narayan brooo! I still remember our first encounter where i finally got to meet you, the person who introduced me to you surely seemed quite excited XD. Insti ka best guitarist! Kaafi kuch seekhna hai tumse wow. And, I'm pretty sure, no matter what happens in this world, I'm pretty sure, I can always find you lazing around in a beach or a hillside in Japan hahahaha. Senpai: 100/100 ig? XD. chalo bye!

Sanjyot Shenoy : One of the first seniors (thanks to Music Arcade, both freshie-sophie year) I ever bonded with and one of the closest friends I ever got. Bahut aalsi aur slow ho aap. Narayan > Aditya Dev. Hamara infi jams reh gaya(I blame you xD) Let's play minecraft soon hehe. Keep Djonting on your 7 string (I hope the number of strings increases to 12 xD) in Japan aur milte rehna

Shubham Jain : Yo Dev, you are one of the most talented, hard working, sweet and honest guy that i have ever met. During the first year you kept on helping us through out academics while simultaneously learning to converse in Hinglish. Hope you remember our ITSP which we passed while playing games & doing random stuff. I will never forgot the moment when at the start of the 3rd sem we both went to comp room(H5) to study EE 10, it really kinda bring out the change in me to help with my acads :P. Also, I won't forget how I had to even fight you to get through the IE501 course. You are a generous but at the same time super anxious one some matters & a not so innocent person. Japan mein jakar bhul mat jana.

Hardik Murarka : Dev🥰...I think this emoji says everything ( though you had a tough competition with Suresh 🤔). Really glad that we meet before the world decided to end. We do have a lot of amazing memories ITSP (time pass), Pubg and yah remember the monor and many more to create. I won't say too much since we are not done yet. And haan yaar akele hi tu Japan chala gaya waha jaa Kai bhul nah jaana :(

Sarvind Rankawat : Yo meteora ke team mate, its great to see someone enjoy his life in insti so much like you do. It was great working with you, local Mein travel krte Waqt waley kaand kee story Yaad rahegi. Tuney abhee bhee Mujhey nahi samjhaya ke djent kya hai, par I think its something which can't be understood. Thanks for making my 2nd year summers awesome and good luck for future!

Piyush Gupta : Bro, you are one of the sweetest and calm person in insti and yet so funny. I have never seen a person grow so much as a musician in such a short time. Inter IIT Roorkee was one of the best time we had and I will cherish it forever. Apna cookies and jam ka idea to nahi ho paya, big sad :|. But apne 3rd year mai it was fun. Love hanging out with you. Have fun in Japan boi. Hope to stay in touch :D <3

Luv Nainwal : Dev puri ann aka Pussy aka stoner. Freshie year had ups and downs. Shyam se zyada mai aata the room me bakchodi karne. 2 XLR8 bots? Deadline ke din wapas bot banane ka kisme enthu hota hai itna :o I'm proud that guitar has been your constant. There's so much to learn from you (be it acads me supersonic speed se padhna, wing ka Gym Gawd, Drug lord, chick magnet but still innocent at least on the face value). The 2nd phase of friendship was amazing. Surbahaar me Auntie Ji's screw up is unforgettable. If insti is my 2nd home than your room was my 2nd room. Last sem sab Lycans ko time diye unlike some people who we prank by tripping MCB. I'll miss your company. <3 HDFC Life join karle saath me?

Desai Darshil : Ni Kokile Krimi anu :p. I still remember us struggling with an ethical hacking course as freshies and basically, I discovered my academic passion with you, so thank you! We've been around in all our highs and lows, and it has been one hell of a ride. It has been a pleasure to watch your super shy, cannot speak Hindi ass grow to what it has become today. Also thanks for fake complimenting my singing all these years. You're one of the most intelligent people I know, always stay this humble and mushy person that you are. Looking forward to countless more Ace pushes together :) PS- "The music stops and echoes on in sweet refrains, for every joy that passes something beautiful remains"

Divyadarshee Das : Bhai again another gaon-San in the intern group. The most spendthrift person I have seen. But at the same time you have great meme knowledge, great guitarist, great music taste, great companion for trips, great pubg player (I hope I will get paid for the last one). We had spent one of the most memorable days in Japan but I would say the one after tou puked and kept saying tu mera bhai hai was quite hilarious. Your trembling body before the flying dinosaur ride and we giving you courage as we had any. I hope we stay in touch and practice pubg and apex you need it.

Like I can hardly recognize you from the image I have from first year - itna stud kaise ho gya be xD but jokes apart, you're a really nice person, and you really know how to work 'em fingers :P I hope we get to trip to some nice music before you leave for Japan!

Adwitiya Rao : Dev, I really can't remember the first time I met you, it seems like you've been there all along. Your crazy passion for music is a total inspiration for me. I have never seen any musician grow as you have grown. I'm really proud of you and it's been an honor for me to share a stage with you. I hope Poo Poo rises to glory one day and you and madhur will always be the closest nariyal people that I have. All the best for your future and I hope that you get an amazing waifu in Japan <3

Dornam Jashwanth : Lab partner in almost all labs, Aditya how can you act like you know everything with an innocent face if TA asks any question during the lab? in reality, u don't have much idea about it😂, we use to finish lab asap and run to our hostel back😂, Vaishak, Geordie and you flirting with Malayali TA's😂

Maitreya Khandagale : Learned a shitload about music from you without you ever even wanting to teach. That's how genius of a guitarist you are sir!

I miss your memes, you couldve become the insti memelord if you had continued :p Won't forget that game of AOE, where I f****d you with huns in the beginning of the game itself although the strategy didn't work in the next game. So many epic games in pubg (especially when I had a good phone :/) and definitely won't forget all the RR you do when you lose a room match :p All the best for Japan.
