Harishankar GK : the guy next door whom I felt I can always rely..I like the way u conduct yourself..and the attitude u possess..keep it up buddy..may you reach great heights in your life..all the very best!

Chainika Chauhan : Hey Marnya!! Although I had seen you many times in Jiya sarai with Katem, but who knew that we would meet as classmates in IITB. Earlier we never interacted but with the passage of time, we started talking and you're a good human. Good luck friend!!

Jaydeep Lohia : Lomi ji, aapko jyada samajh nhi paya, bas yahi ek shikayat rhegi. Still, as much I know, and will always remember, the liberal person you are, your views on different things, were always resonating, knowingly or unknowingly. Now when it is the end of this journey, I can only request one thing, stay connected, always, for seldom do we find people without unnecessary judgments, and you definitely are one of a gem.

Mithilesh Kumar Sahu : Brooooo. I am gonna miss all the drunken deep chats with you. Having an opinion about politics from you is the best. Good luck with the upcoming life brother.

Anurag Dwivedi : Yo Marnya....the cool buddy....I can still hear the sound 'Anu ji'...You are such a hardworking and mature guy...You will surely achieve your dreams....All the best!!....and stay connected.

Nehal Sadmake : Hey Bro! I remember, you were my first study partner. At high pressure time of midsem and endsem we used to go to the computer lab and LC's and stay awake till we hear bird's chirping. Meantime in study break we would eat kresit maggi. Playing football and PUBG (2 noobs) together, we have created so many beautiful memories. Whenever I would come to you for any suggestion or help, you never sent me back empty handed. You fixed my taste of movies and music. Thanks bro. Just be yourself and keep helping others.

Rohit Kumar : Hi Lomi bro, we didn't have much conversation but I can surely can you are really a nice and good friend and a human being. I will really miss you bro and that phrase when you used to call me "rohit ji" when you need notes or have some doubts.....I wish you all the best bro, keep smiling and rocking 🙌❤️

Neeraj Kumar : Lomi ji, I like the attitude you possess towards life. I admire your taste of music and web series. You introduce me to the practicality of a power nap... lakin iske chakkar me maine tujhe bahut disturb kiya hai. I will remember the way we stayed all night before exams in first year. Thanks for being my friend. Stay connected.

Chigicherla Venkata Sai Prasanna : Hey Marnya ! Chill Dude ! Used to enjoy your short funny conversations and wit. Learnt to tackle things at tough times from you. Had a fantastic time with you , Akash and Mothany. Always keep up that Chill and cool attitude of yours. Gook Luck Marnya ! 😊
