If you get the chance to meet freshie self again, what is that one thing you will tell him or her?

Nothing, because the butterfly effect is for real. But honestly, isn't this the most pointless question ever? I cannot change the past, only the future. The question should be "What would your freshmen version tell this version of you?" And the answer to that would be deal with your anxiety issues by reading fanfictions, who cares. Keep finding random startup ideas in every conversation you have. Since you are not an introvert (I hope the lockdown has taught you that), might as well go out there and be an extrovert. They said find your passion. But

Abhinav Jain : The trajectory of our lives can be thought of as a bezier curve with all people we meet as the control points... Conversations like these did not just make me laugh but also realize how we see others and how our perspective for them can change our lives too! I remember when we went for our first walk and it turned out to be my first night out, from that night you have been an indispensable part of my life and while we had our ups and downs I thank you for listening to me always on those late hours :-). P.s: Our chair theory is still incomplete, let's complete writing a paper on it!!!

Raghav Goyal : From being one of the first seniors i interacted with in college! to having "memento mori" embedded on me :p haha! what a journey it has been!! I am so going to miss you :) Stay in touch! Looking forward to more "life talks" ;)

Aryan Agal : :) :) :) :) :) There's a lot to write, and too less space to write it down. Met you on our night out, and I can't remember not knowing you. You're someone special. We've had a lot of fun these last 1.5 years. Thanks for listening whenever. I'm sure we'll get over our insecurities one day and have healthy relationships :p. Hope you become thoda sa flexible in the coming years XD. Remember that app jisme we both used to hit remind me later? XD. And ofcourse books ki habit and what not. You're a great person with 0 plan in life XD wish I was as brave as you. Post semex hug was <sup>100</sup>. Your fanfic obsession oh God reading every minute. Love you, thanks for all the craziness, didn't know I needed it till I met you!

Devyani Verma : Firstly I am sorry that we did not get to spend as much time as I'd like! You are probably the oldest female friend from my insti life and I am just glad we met. I love you Tanya SG and you are one brave, savage, and strong ass woman. You are an inspiration to me and I am going to miss you so much and I hope we just cross paths more because yk how apne se plans to NHP xD Also I love how we vibed so much on the Dramione fanfics. I am so glad I got a buddy I can discuss my precious fanfics with <3 I wish you all the best for future and I know you gonna kick some ass wherever you go. Stay happy and stay bubbly, just the way you are! (except maybe your taste in men, jk haha)

Rishika Gupta : Helllloooo Tanni Partner 🍷 It's always fun to talk to you. Koi kaise itna macha sakta hai! Is there any country you haven't visited?? Wo freshie year ka aapka bday abhi bhi yaad hai. That was the first time I went to BNB. All the movie and game nights we had. 💜💜 Kaash wo din wapas aa jaaye 🤔 I so wish aap Alibagh aa jaate Goa ka plan complete karna hai abhi bhi 🤔 Ab to aapko DD project karne ki jarurat nai. Peace maaro 😂😂 Hope to meet you soon 🤔

Varun Patil : Et quomodo descendit imber et nix de caelo, et illuc ultra non revertitur sed inebriat terram, et infundit eam, et germinare eam facit, et dat semen serenti, et panem comedenti. sic erit verbum meum quod egredietur de ore meo ; non revertetur ad me vacuum, sed faciet quaecumque volui, et prosperabitur in his ad quae misi illud. Quia in laetitia egrediemini, et in pace deducemini ; montes et colles cantabunt coram vobis laudem et omnia ligna regionis plaudent manu.

Prudhvi Kavya : Oh my god where do I even begin! Our journey started with me running behind you during RC Plane in our 1st year :P And it (get ready to be cheesed out) bloomed in our final year. I shamelessly take credit for increasing your mess meals frequency by atleast 3 times! I still can't wrap my head around the fact that you NEVER sleep xD You will remain the person because of whom I stepped foot into the Gymkhaana finally before we left :P Thank you for giving me soooo many amazing songs to jam to, giving me an inspiration to buy art supplies :P, and also hearing me rant endlessly during placements (I know treat pending hai but Corona >:( ) I pray you never run out of Dramione fanfictions <3

Shobhna Misra : Taaanyaaaaa! You are far beyond the ideal roommate anyone can ever ask for! <3 Like dude, you care so much! I remember when we had exams and I had to sleep early, you used to turn off the light and go study outside the room, even when I asked you not to... You are super amazing, dude! All those late night conversations (which was mostly me ranting about tens of thousands of things and you listening patiently), Oreo shake trips in the past year were some of the only things that kept me sane. Thank you so much for everything! <3 I can't be the bestest person ever, because that's you!! All the best for everything you plan to do: I'm sure I won't be able to keep count of your successes! :')

Archiki Prasad : Taanyaa! I somehow can't recollect how we met, but as far as I can go back, I remember you as great and reliable friend. I think that speaks to one of your greatest strengths, the ability to connect with people effortlessly and to make them feel comfortable, supported, heard and understood. Thank you so much for hearing me out at times when I really needed it and always being up for hanging out. I remember your 'chair theory' and if I have understood it all, I can say that you will always find a friend and that good old but comfortable chair in me. XD

Kratvesh Pandey : Hey there!! Remember me? :P I will still blame that small sized basketball for me not scoring that day. It was fun hanging out with you that day. Oreo shake and the little food hunt at night was fun too. Let's catch up soon :D

Gali Meghana : Tanny bwoyy, God Idk how you dealt with me in freshie year xD Thankyou for acing basketball since day one so that Edwin Sir could cut us some slack :P Remember how we surprisingly won the 3vs3 Basky GC for h15, that was one of the first times I'd felt so happy on the courts and I'm glad we were in it together. We might not be the closest of friends but we've had some good memories :) Keep killing it at life and Kabhi kabhi yaad karlena :P Lots of love, 'GALI Meghana' :)

Kiran Dhope : What's uppppppp? I am probably late to this party but better late than never. Doing this only makes me realise how sad and emotional this makes me as the realisation of everything ending strikes in. (We know neither of us is good in the emotions department. :P) You gave me the courage to watch horror movies at night amidst our countless movie nights. Your courage to follow your heart without any fear of the future is unparalleled. I can't remember having a single dull moment with you. Hell, I don't remember a single moment when our conversations did not involve giggles. Please come to Bangalore, you have to buy diamonds! YOU. Were. My. Birthday. Surprise! Need I say more?! PS Word limit sucks

Radhika Tibrewala : hello tingyyy! I really don't have a count now of how many people confused us for each other in the freshie year xD Firstly, You are an incredible basketball player! I totally hate you for leaving the team after the first year else kabhi toh koi medal aahi jata :( On the other note, I am soo happy for you that you pursued and explored everything you wanted and glad you've come out of it so strong. I totally love that big smile on your face always and i hope that we keep meeting in the future too. I'll always adore you and i'll be here if you ever need me for anything. All the best for the life ahead :)

Kirti Agrawal : In the sky full of stars you have always been my north star 🌟. One who is always there and shining brightest! Thank you for listening to me so patiently and always guiding me! I'll definitely miss your presence in the campus, but I'm sure I'll always be connected to this amazing soul! Obviously not saying 'Miss you' but yeah ' See you Soon!' 📅 9/17/20

Divya Maddu : Hey there! My Goth buddy ^.^ Just didn't get enough time with you... It's such an irony that we were neighbors during our first year, but damn! Never got to know each other in this way... Even if we just spent like 1 semester with each other, the connection seems to look like an ancient one.... Impromptu mess meeting and then sudden plans, we're our only outings but still I enjoyed every second of it... It was really amazing talking to you heart to heart things. Though it was mostly be being whining about "banda chaea!!!!" 😂😂😂 Hope we still be in touch and talk about these deep philosophical and mindfuck topics. Sincerely yours, Ancient neighbor 😊

Mrunmayi Mungekar : Hey Tannny!!! Maaan, you were my guide book to IIT, you were my first ever senior fundae, and one of the coolest ever seniors at IIT. The first day we met at GESCO and the canteen fundae session...then first year me lukkha and bonding and me thinking damn, this senior so cool, through BB me khana and pool party! And your room was my adda! Like you are so love, lettin me crash all day & you understand my jokes dude! Always have so much fun with you. From studying together to movies to old show binging to painting (which frm me was just words of encouragement mostly :P) to just bak bak sessions. I admire your crazy attitude to life (sometime irritating, but all time respect) and marvellous capacity to bear logo ki crazypanti as well! Never thought a senior could be such a golden friend...luv ya <3

Prakhar Jain : Yo Tanya, I loved the awesome walks and all the interaction we had throughout the 5 years. I felt very comfortable to talk to you about everything in the world. All the best for your future. I know you are super smart and will excel in whatever you do in your life. Stay in touch :P

Aayushi Pankaj Agrawal : Tanyaa 🍷 You're the sweetest soul I've met! Didn't get a chance to get to know you very well, but I always like our chance meetings in the mess, and labs XD I'm completely in love with your smile 🍷 Always keep smiling, and yes, I really look forward to playing basketball alongside you! All the best, keep visiting insti for the basketball matches 🍷

Bohra Ankit Narendra : Yo! It's sad that we couldn't interact much but in whatever interactions we had I can undoubtedly say that you are one of the chilliest seniors I've spoken to. Asking for psycho notes from each other, seeing you leave the placement tests in half the time 🍷, MAC ke course ki burai, you were the only person who understood how boring and tiring our work was during placements 🍷. Stay the same cheerful always! All the Best!!

Harsh Chandak : Yo Tanya! From 1st year lab groups to BC guys in MECH to now DD guys in MECH it has been a pleasure to have you as a friend. It's always a delight to talk to you. Thanks for helping and motivating me for semex. Always remain as sweet and nice as you are. Keep smiling. Aur haa bhul mat jaana :P

Aditya Saurabh : Yes, I won't forget that 'Autodesk' session for my lifetime, it was quite fun and more of a revelation that how we are being tracked down :p. It was infi fun talking to you, also your fundaes are lit. We will be in touch :D

Mudita Rana : Tanya!! Our frequent hellos and greetings would always leave me smiling. You're super super sweet and humble, and infi machau (yes sabne aapki stories suni hai 🍷) I wish we get the chance to meet again post the lockdown, and yes let's dance together then 🍷

Avani Mangal : Tanny, you have given me all the ears all these years <3 and I will crave for our random laughs and sorting out your future between blackstone and canvas paintings..XD I wish we had played basketball together this semester...There are soo many memories with H10 common room and our uncommon talks. PLsss stay in touch always...I have always and will always adore you <3

Mrunal Chavan : Yo Tanya!! Apna shayad first interaction kisi submission ya project related he hua hoga- either isme kya karna hain?😅 or yar abhi tak start nahi kiya.😅 Well I regret we never interacted much even though we were in the same dept. I never knew ki tu painting bhi itna awesome karti hain.😍😍 Apna canvas painting session reh gaya yar.😭 It ws always fun interacting with u. Hamesha muskurate rehna and I hope ki kabhi apna painting session bhi ho he jae. All d very best nd keep slaying.♥♥

Priyanka Sandeep Bagade : You were the first senior I knew in the institute as my mentor, and I feel so blessed!! You have always helped all of us, even after you were (officially) not our mentor. Treating other's problems as your own is something I wish to learn so much from you, I feel I will always look up to you and want to be like you - cheerful, smiling and happy to help others. Keep smiling!! Will never forget your BBQ treat :p

Arpit Agarwal : I first heard about you from my school friends at Pace Borivali. We didn't interact much in second or third year coz I think I always chose the last bench whenever I came to classes. Anyways I still remember our hilarious HPSC project, we did almost nothing the whole semester and changed the project topic a day before viva😂. You and Rajorshi will always be my source for good books!! Idk why but speaking to you made me slightly more interested in reading books and slightly less interested in project work..😂 I know you have the strength to deal with any problem you face and I hope you overcome them soon😊

Swarali Ghodkhande : Tanny partner😂 atleast by now you must know where this name comes from xD. You are one of the coolest and SMaRTest senior I have ever met. Well, Aap senior lage hi nhi Kabhi, u are just like family ♥. U have this magnificent quality to make things look so damn simple. I love how u apply that chair Wala principle n keep exploring things before you settle for one. I am so gonna miss your room visits, pre exam backchodi session which used to turn into nightouts, laughing at Mrun's lame jokes and getting souvenirs from all the countries u visited. My insti life wouldn't have been the same without you. Let's partyyyy soon🍷 ily😭

Anjali Yadav : Hey Tanny!!! So where do I start, haan...d frst time u visited my room, d sweet bubbly grl...damn u radiated happiness and positivity(nt exaggerating, believe me)...but u r one of d coolest seniors I have ever met...nd that trip to khau gali nd d movie night and that continuous discussion abt anything nd everything...uske baad thnks to mrunzzz ma'am hum wapas khau gali hi nhi gye(also, apke sare b'day m yaad dilaai hun unhe)...I always felt so good jab aap surprisingly aa jate the room pe...and we made random plans...chalo bahar chalte h...hum literally dominos lekar gymkhana mein ghumme the...thanx for giving me ur room ka sahara in MI...bro, aap bahut shi ho be also cuteness overloaded ;)

Whnvr we chatted mera mood achcha ho jaata tha.. won't forget how I used to come to your room for movies and how you were the only person who gave me shelter in winters! You're so adjusting! Our exams ke time wali late night talks waiting for food stairs pe.. movie nights in your room and mera coke aapke room pe girana khud pe xD.. then our hours tak chats about almost everything in our lives.. won't forget how you were the one person who was there to share my excitement on getting internships finally! i think it was blue lagoon :p! Do let me know if u like something apart from chicken lollypop

Missula Meghana : The best mentor I could have had in my freshman year! Be it late-night maffia games with my wing or acad advice, you will be missed a lot. You have a lovely smile, always keep that up and keep inspiring! All the best Tanya <3

Azim Oliya : Hey..Tanya!!! Thank you very much for all your help with KDOM lab. All the best for your future endeavours. Stay in touch.

Desai Darshil : Time just flies around you Tanny! You are just such a genuine person that conversations comfortably flow around you. I really admire your bravado in acting true to what you believe is good for you and whats not, no matter how risky. I will always cherish the Man Pro days, the CCD treat and our career conversations. Also, I'm still hopeful about Khau Gali, so until next time :) PS-"The music stops and echoes on in sweet refrains, for every joy that passes something beautiful remains."

Akansh Vijay : Dude!!! I don't know how and when we met (probably because of kiran 😊), but god you're so talented in everything, doing HPSC project with you was so much fun. You have always inspired me and kiran to do the best in our life. I hope this quarantine ends soon so that you, me and kiran can go to Gullu cafeteria to eat panipuri 🤪 Chalo all the best, stay in touch.

Anjulata Charan : Brooo I'm just unable to understand ki kya likhu... Itna sara kuchh h, tere songs k choices bht lit h. And I louuuuvve your formals 🤩. Hehe hmara chal na dress dikhati hu and ended up talking throughout and forgetting dress dikhana favourite part rhega 🤣🤣. Your art and aesthetic is so beautiful, someday I want to have that much dedication to fill my room with arts 😊 and thanks for the basketball lessons. I'm going to miss you a lot but I'm going to be in Mumbai for a while, so whenever you come home let's meetup 😭😭. You're a very fun person to hangout with full of life and Joy and cheerfulness ♥ stay the same keep growing 🤗🤗 and Dramione 🤗

Bhavika Ranjeet Kumar : Hii Tanya!! thanks for being such a great mentor. you are the one from whom I always looked out for an advice, be it for my personal problems or for academics. You made my life easier in the institute and without you it would not have been possible. You are always so cheerful, happy and ready to help that you inspired me a lot. Always have been and will forever be an admirer of your smile and positive attitude 😊 The first senior I came in contact with in insti though u never acted as one 😊😊 I honestly can't imagine my insti life without u.... U hv stood with me throughout and boosted my morale in all those times which I'll probably never forget in my life including providing your room to live in when I needed it the most ♥♥ Still wonder how can someone be so giving n selfless along with being so lively at the same time! Lotsss of love n success to u ♥♥♥ Bhul naa jaana yrr, stay in touch always!!!!

Shreshtha Singh : Yo Di!! Still can't refrain from calling you di 😊. While writing this I can still remember that day when I first saw your smile it was like the sunshine on a dark hazy day, everything was so haphazard and then that smile 🙏, things suddenly felt so sorted, like I found someone in campus full of stranger who will be there with me, you felt like a familiar figure though I was meeting you for the first time and whole credit goes to that smile 😊. And now I can't deny that feeling was ever wrong, you were there just like the way I thought whenever I needed (hopefully you remember that dengue incident 🙏). Love you Di, you were and always will be my best mentor ever 😊.

Ankit Katariya : Yo Tanyaaa! Shaadi.com mention kar diya yaar 😂. Chill hai, let the feminists come, dekh lenge 😂. I think we first met during AIDS ka chillar but we didn't talk much. Uske baad seedhe aapse semex ke fundae liye the, kya fundae deti hai yaar tu, abhi tak ke best fundae tune hi diye hai. It's always a treat talking to you, the conversation always flows like water. Neha Jahnavi Nagini : Contact number was modified from "ISMP Mentor Tanya" to "Tanya" in these years. Synergy was increased by significant amount in these years. 😊 Soooooo where to start? * dramatic Jazz music plays * Your treats are unforgettable 🤩 Jokes apart, you are literally the best mentor to a freshie in the campus. Crazy fab and bubbliest person I've ever met. Completely opposite to what I thought how "seniors generally are". And back to * dramatic music continued * I think we would have had lotttsss of fun this sem if not for this quarantine!! 🙏 I owe you a treatt!! Oooff, word limit🤩. Gonna miss you, stay bubbly and crazy!! :P

Ritik Madan : Do you remember that (incomplete) trip to Pawna Lake on Anant's birthday which was an utter disastrous? XD It's always been fun hanging out with you and I wish we'd hung out more. Keep spreading your happy vibes and I hope you have an amazing future :)

Anushree Suhalka : I never realized how fast did the transition of you being my 1st senior in insti to my go-to person forever happened. Tanya, you are THE BEST. I love you too and you know that :) Cheers to all the gossips and the emotions we exchanged (jo kabhi khatam nahi honge)🥂❤
