Neeraj Kumar Burugupelly : From being a stranger in Ace academy to a good close friend. A guy who knows how to handle things better, especially who knows better eating places. (Those Biryani by Kilos :D.). I tried keeping my room as clean and organized as yours, Hope I did it to some extent. You are more of the straight forward and humble person who likes to keep life simple. To be frank I know who is actually studious :P. I am happy that you read the book I gave you. Am happy about you starting your PhD as well, another to be doctor in house. I am sure about your bright future. All the best in all your endeavours bro.! Keep maintaining your standards as you usually do.!
