If you get the chance to meet freshie self again, what is that one thing you will tell him or her?

Socialize, spend some more time out of your room with your friends! You'll be realizing this later as time flies by, but it's best to start right away.

Yearbook
2020

Aryan Aryan : The chhupa rustam of our group! Basky champion! You are the guy who inspired me to persue ML. I remember how you used to plan everything well in advance. Ohh I almost forgot! The 6/6 guy 😂😂😂 Let’s keep in touch! Stay the same bro!

Harshwardhan Mourya : Trainer boi, kaafi machau ho aap khatru ekdum. Kaafi dedicated towards his work... Final year mai COD and CSGO sessions were kaafi fun, maja aata tha. Also volleyball bhi macha diye the tum... Although apan jeete nahi, par kaafi acchi fights di hi thi har baar. Thanks to you.. That dept. event kaafi feels tha.. Aajkal you're showing kaafi khatru level of wit.. matlab kaafi sahi 🤔 best of luck boi aage ke liye

Ishan Tarunesh : While I accept that most of our interaction has been through projects but you are really a fun person in life and also very compatible to work with. Nothing brings two people closer than mutual hate for dumb models who refuse to learn anything even after showing them 15/30 times. Really ungrateful of them. It is projects like seg-lm that make one re-search for better pursuits in life. Bas is baat ka gam reh gaya ki humlog co-authors nahi ban paye (too soon?) #livingontheedge #bpesucks #notarant You are an all-round person and definitely someone to look upto in life, I’m sure you would do wonders in your future. I really wish that we spent more time having fun than scraping urls 🤔.

Rishabh Raj : Hmm... Are you going to say something? Or should I start 🤔? :P. Fine, as you say! I remember hearing your name in those first 3 years as some gawd demn coder and then saw in a few labs, always busy working on your laptop programming something. It was only in our final year that we clicked (I wonder how? 🤔). I'm glad we did. And then late night walks and those ridiculous plans of going sooo far away to try new restaurants and cafes, which never came to fruition :P. And long talks about MS/PhD plans. Hope to see you opening up more and being more vocal. Bas ek khwahish hai meri. Inflate your body before you leave this planet :P. 700 chars max! Demn. Chalo, keep in touch.

Shubham Anand : Yo Yash. I think we actually started talking after that imagica trip in our first year. I thought you were gulti since you came with gultis from your wing, but then you clarified 😊. Kaafi machata hai tu and aise hi machate reh. Hope that we cross paths again. All the best for life ahead !

Kumar Saurav : What a change from the first year to the last - from the ardent money-saving tourist in NUS to the spendthrift outgoing person in last year. I still remember you were the only who tagged along with us on our long, tiresome and heel-aching journeys in Singapore, the others following stereotypical lethargy to remain in those horrid rooms. You probably couldn't bear our priority for tennis when we were in SSL, but thankfully you changed and it was fine in FILA. At least I hope so 😊. The Google journey remains. I know you'll end up managing everything for some of us 🤖 - I'm depending on it 😊.

Kumar Saunack : I remember your stuffed room in H7. I, for one, am grateful that we met in places apart from you room after SSL got over. An interesting thing is that you did change drastically after H7 got demolished. Maybe that stuffed room was doing something to you after all. Anyhow, all's well that ends well.

Navnit Kumar : Yash Bhai kaafi chill h yr life me. Life kaise jeena hai koi aapse seekhe. Gujarati foods k bare me apne discussion hmesha yaad rhenge. Cheers

Kumar Ashutosh : Yo Yash! We had some really good discussions in H7 mess and we became friends. And then Singapore happened. It was so fun with you in SG. I admire your discipline in life and its really motivating. I would always say "chal leta humare saath Indonesia. Thailand ke sapne adhoore reh gaye tere :P" Nevertheless, it was really fun - NUS, struggle to be on time and that 10 rs wali coffee. I had really good discussions with our on future goals. I feel my goals and thoughts are very much aligned and thus I felt good talking to you. Will definitely be in touch. Best of luck for future endeavours!!

Amey Patil : Yash Shah! I had only heard of you for NLP stuff from everyone. I had only met you 2 or 3 times in total. So you might be wondering what the hell is this. During PT interviews, we were both waiting for Flipkart and I was thinking of ditching it, but you told me Flipkart is great for NLP/ML plus internal Stocks are also a good opportunity and idk why you said that, idk any facts then but it actually changed my mind and went for it, and that was probably the best decision of my 4 years. I feel like you came there just to tell me that. I can't say we have any strong memories but I'll never forget this one. And I'll always be glad that our paths crossed in the most amazing time of my life!

Yash Jain : By far, the most intelligent and humble senior in the college. I always looked up to you as a mentor taking your advice on smallest of the topics sometimes even texting you for hours for discussing small "life" (*cough* apping) problems. Thank you for bearing with me for the past 2 years and don't you worry I will keep on annoying you with my queries even after you graduate :P P.S. Aapne hamara naam roshan kar diya XD

Rupesh DNE : Broooo, lab partner, you have been such an inspiration to me. Thanks for trusting me as a teammate always and I know I wasn't the most timely one either. But you always put in the extra effort to get me out of bed and start working. Thanks for all those years and I look upto to you for inspiration and dedication. Just be that way and machate raho. Baaki Facebook comments pe tang karna to chalta rahe. Yahan rahne dete hain.

Sanchit Jain : Basketball khela saath NSO me. One of the best times of my life. Very helpful and hamesha help karta tha in every form he can. Very honest and hard working. Planned in academics and projects machaye alag alag prof ke under and courses me bhee. ML god. The go-to person for any kind of advice one needs. A very simple and kind hearted personality. One person who made me realise the importance of academics and motivated towards it. CS475 machaya saurav ke saath and help bhee kaafi kee uss course me. Thanks for being my bball buddy and constant help in various acad related matters.

Chaithanya Naik Mude : Yo Roomiee!! I'll deeply miss Gujarati food broo!! Holi will always be remembered.. Jo bhi senti cheezein bolna tha wo sab Lonavala trip me bol chuke 😊 Hoping for more trips like that soon... Cheers to all the efforts to wake me up from the bed for breakfast and classes, though I get back to bed after you leave the room 😊 Bas basketball seekhna reh gaya... wo bhi kabhi poora karenge ♥

Yash Sharma : You made it possible for me to look up to another Yash! Thank you so much. Good luck!

Deep Karkhanis : Bro!!! Thanks bhai univ apping main help karne. Your GRE,TOEFL tips were also bang on point (especially toefl speaking). Also a big thanks for all those last minute doubt solvings before the mid/endsems and for helping me in those gruesome assignments all these years. Atb for the future and stay in touch...
