Drish Mahnot : Nahi join kar raha kya? :P Nevermind, I'll still write thoda. Dude we had the chilliest possible friendship to exist. We never needed anything ek dusre se, but always enjoyed when we hung out. From freshie year VFL, I've always been in awe of how cool you were. Kaafi smart bhi hai tu bhai. I enjoyed our water cooler discussions and football games a lot. Placement ke time was probably the only time I've been a bit emotional with you. You always seem very sharp and I'm 100% confident you'll be the one jo sabse zyaada machaayega :P Take care man, football enthu people are indeed the best!

Anirudh Arputham : Hey Rahul! You are literally one of my closest friends in the institute (maybe one of my closest friends ever). I felt like I could talk about anything with you. Loved being a part of the DAV team together and even heading it the following year; was an amazing experience - ideating and then executing and staying up late to finish everything. Thanks for everything and pleeease keep in touch ^_^ . All the best for everything.
