Gurparkash Singh : Arey Neelesh Tinku Verma! First year me I used to think ke tu bas maggte rehta hai and kaafi tease bhi kiya tujhe us time. But second year se I got to know you better and I don't think there's a more helpful person in the insti than you. Tu doubts clear krne mere room tak bhi chale aata tha be. And mujhe movie dekhne jana tha to you even did my assignment for a course you weren't even registered for. Har baar notes ke photos bhi bhejta tha. Bhai GOD ho aap. I really admire your work ethics and you have deserved every single bit of success that you have achieved. Aage bhi aise hi hard work krte rehna and you'll get to new heights! All the best bro!

My favourite memory of you is when we were in that restaurant in Ooty and we forced you to admit that you are addicted to Chai! Ig that's the reason y you were always there in SL3 😂😂😂. Rishabh Raj : See the DP that you have kept!!! I wish to see you like that in real life too! Increase your "swag" brother!! I know, the mess was our most frequent meeting spot. But it was fun hugging that fluffy teddy bear of yours :D. That used to be the reason to visit your room :P. Thank you for being so affable and appreciate your help over the years. Let's see if you'll allow me to come to Kanpur some day :D. Chalo, see you soon.

Rahul chunduru : Hey neeleash, you are so much fun to hang out with. We met countless times from LHC and in mess. Yeah, we should have discussed more on anime and one piece. Your art skills are cool, that was an amazing pikachu and mojo-jojo. I met you on way to Dept. library that it became a norm, lol. Yeah, our discussions on course works helped me a lot too. All the best in future and let's keep in touch (^w^).
