Risha Agarwal : Dear Devyani, I'm so glad you went on for a semex and ended up joining the lakeside wing because it introduced me to a really talented and sweet human 💖 To random gullu days and learning a course together, the times w you have always been fun. I wish I'd known you earlier in insti life but I'm glad I did and I'll always cherish the memories 😊 I also want to thank you for supporting and just listening to me when I just wanted to stand by a window and cry! You're really talented. I hope you sketch and sing more, and keep writing and reading too. 💖💖

Aditya Kasture : Well I don't think this is the end of the road for us, but still, the yearbook deserves a mention I guess. I have bits and pieces of memories with you and I think you would have the same. Maybe the bits and pieces would be very different too. Had our cultural paths crossed more, I have a feeling we would have had many more fun stories! Its still not over though, lets see what Gurgaon has in store :P

Pranav Sankhe : Devyaniiii yaar last sem mein morning walks reh gaye yaar : (I find the evolution of our friendship very very interesting. From troubling you with my super cool puns and sharing art to talking about hopes and dreams, passions and feelings and ofcourse bitching about our common friends xD. Lakeside walks with you were so amazing and I am definitely going to miss them! You are an amazing, kind and an immensely brave person and remember as I told you someday, I am and will always be super-proud of you. Please stay in touch

Gali Meghana : Even if it's the little-st of Devyani I've gotten to know through the last 5 years, I'm glad i did. It's stupid how many opportunities life gives you but you tend to throw them away, basky nso and the numerous times we run into eachother, I wish we'd had more hot goss sessions and more of the crossy runs i bailed out of :P For what I know of you, you're one compassionate person and one to speak her mind. Lots of love, Meghana.

Sanket Agrawal : Bhaiiii!! One of the first best friends on the campus? :) Also the first person I bro zoned :P We have had really good and really bad moments in this insti journey and we have made through all of them. After all, it is family who sticks together in each other's worst and best moments. It's been a roller coaster ride with you and I am lucky for every moment spent with you :) Let's start hanging out more and normalizing stuff again! I know I haven't been particularly good with you the past few months and would like to change it for a better future :) Don't worry about staying in touch, this cartoon will always find a way to reach your heart.

Prudhvi Kavya : Brooo!! Even though we've been in the same hostel for 5 years, the most memorable conversation for me was the one we had during Tuckley's class in the beginning of placement semester. I related to you most at that point. I rememeber you were the first person I talked to when I first moved into H15. And since then humne elec ke dukh saath mein jhele hai xD Pray that you come to the Bangalore office so that we can keep connected <3

Anmol Gupta : Hello Doody :P (first YB post woohoo!) We were always decently good friends in insti, but I think we really hit it off properly towards the end of our 4th year (and I'm so glad we did!). You were there for me when it mattered the most, and I can't thank you enough for that :) We actually had far more in common than we thought. The times together were fun though - Lakeside, boathouse, energy terrace, the sneak-ins, and so many amazing conversations! And how can we forget the bitching and crying bits, haha :P You are an amazing hooman - broken at times, but not at all shattered. Keep flying Blue Chrysalis, and let's never stop sending cute stickers to each other :))

Jovina Vaswani : You are the first senior I approached in my freshie year for help, and I am glad I did. We did not interact much over these years, but from whatever interaction I had with you, I know that you are a beautiful soul. Your talent and you personality always inspire me, and I look up to you. You give a vibe of a strong, matured but cute woman, who will always find a way through. Loads of love.

Apurv Tiwari : Dev=Verma, that ecstatic expression we shared when we were both sitting in front of Anurag Kashyap is an ingrained memory, and the first one. Uske baad to 15 ki mess mein sath khana at times, lukkha sessions and horror stories lakeside road par, lit lukkha mein bakchodi, randomly sadak par milkar adha adha ghanta baat karna, and ye poora year to LAX se Jalvihar via Crafters karne mein hi nikal gaya :P Infinite memories hain apne yaar 5 saal ke, and abhi to bahut sare aur banane bache hain! <3 Stay happy always! :D

Sarthak Sharma : Hey Devyani! I'll always remember our funny discussions on instagram, our summer outing and that long walk back to the institute is a memory that I'll cherish forever. You're quite cool and straightforward, stay the same. I'm kinda surprised we haven't had too many HP discussions but let's do this soon :D Stay in touch !

Tanya Gupta : Devyani dude. I know our 'planning to go out' skills are definitely shit, but everything else we share makes up for it! Be it you introducing me to Dramione, me being concerned over you fainting after that basketball NSO exam, sharing random life ongoingings or us just hanging out, I cherish each and every moment I have gotten to spend with you. I know you've probably heard this before, but always keep using big English words so I can improve my vocabulary (always have to google words from your captions and everytime I hear the word serendipity I remember that picture of yours which has that caption ♥) Even now I had to google posterity 😊 Let's not talk about my guy choices on this platform, ughhh I hate this is going to be immortalized in the yearbook. I LOVE YOU and every version of you, the first year version who was litclub enthu and doing MI anchoring and a bit lost, and even this version who has crazy solo travelling semex stories, placement acing stories and is this crazy confident-in-my-skin, you-cant-give-me-shit person. I think our friendship is like my favorite toy that's become old, don't need to have it with me all the time but I know it'll be right there when I do. Slay everything you set your eyes on! Love ya!

Soham De : First spotted in Lit Orientation Treat and that too suddenly noticed you :p This sudden noticing and not identifying effect continued for the next few times that we met xD Jokes apart, in the limited 1 year had good fun in Lit Club Events, Laxmi, The bhand singing behind Guest House, The gossips, ILS election time, Board Games Meet (where we partnered up and won some :)) Hopefully mene zaada apko BT nehi diya and that jibi ke udhar ya some grand party plans toh nehi hua (bohut lukkhe log :3) and then sem ended drastically. I wish you all the best madam ji and it was fun knowing such a burst of cheerful energy person :)

Harshita Verma : Hey there my gal!!! Let's start with VOGUE - I'm so glad I was part of that team though we had our differences in opinion but that's what happens in a team we discuss we fight we conclude and stand along. I still remember hum ne kitni fight maari thi stage backdrop n all ke liye :P and regarding the judges :P and that stupid team oh god that was one hell of a chapter :P . It was nice knowing you and after that bumping into each other planning to go hangout with the whole team :P it was all sooo good...I'm sad it's all coming to end but I'm happy it all happened <3. And yes this goes without saying we'll keep on catching up each other :*

R Aditya Narayan : Vague interactions and awkward greetings. Was fun to work on the probability video, though I hate it when people ruffle my hair :PP. Best of luck for your future!

Ishita Shah : Hey, we got to hang out and stuff only in the last year and that kinda sucks. I wish we could've had a few more laxmi nights. The ones we had were amazing though :P you're fun to talk to and gossip with, and I love how at jibi's house, everyone was only interested in what we were talking about XD hopefully we'll plan some stuff and meet again :) keep in touch! <3

Pragya Valay : Yoooooooo Devyani ! Apan nahi kabhi bahut baat nahi kari, but aate jaate humesha khabar le liya karte the. And remember that day, mai tu Snehal and Anju mere room me baat kar rahe the, about our Moms and family in general, I realized kaafi similar hi hai hum bhi and teri mom bahut coool hai. And yes, milte rahenge ab hum. You are very very cute, I hope sab life me mastttt ho tere. <3 <3 Will miss you toooooo.

Neeraj Sohani : Sorry if you were expecting something long and pretty because I can't write anything meaningful here. It won't do the slightest amount of justice to what I feel. You know all too well how much you mean to me. I'll miss you. P.S. You better give me my Hitchhiker book back Snehal Dinesh Bhamare : Heyy, I remember our long conversations in the mess. You hardly ate the dinner :D. I like the way you think practically about things be it placements, acads. I learnt a lot from it, maybe I didn't tell you that. Remember the days in Ecozen? We used to eat pastries and junk food a lot in that bakery, it was fun. Ab to pata nahi kab milenge. Aise hi machate rhna life me and bhulna mat.

Krishna Subramani : Devyani! I also really enjoyed our Costa Brava trip and also the hike to the amusement park on the hill in Barcelona (too bad you couldn't dive, maybe next time!). You are an extremely approachable and charismatic person, I had a lot of fun in our discussions as well :) I am confident you will do well ahead! (and if you decide to go to Dubai, I hope you will remember the (extensive) discussions we had :p)

Shubham Goyal : Bwello , last day par likh hi deta hu yearbook me bhi , my first bandi friend in insti all thanks to our hulk saugata , from all the marine drive trips in first year to club trips in final year we grew together, thanks for listening to all my cribbing and having all my secrets saved :p i will continue cribbing about the same thing for years, though gayab ho jati he beech beech me cause you a cry baby but that's ok , slay in delhi xD, the only indori shyd jo kabhi kuch khaane ka nahi laati, aur jo chalte chalte girti rehti he(not literally) , shaadi me zarur bulana xD aur mujhe ache se likhna nahi ataa so bye :) ddp me achi grade mile to mujhe party chaiye marks to mile nahi Samruddhi Dodal : Hi Devyani! Yess the night in Milan was fun, I never thought we would have so much to talk about and really enjoy the time together so much. Hope we get to catch up like that sometime again :) wish you loads of success! :D

Raghav Goyal : Devyani <3 Its funny how we started talking randomly, out of the blue! But i'm so glad that we did...you are one of the closest people in my life believe it or not! :) you probably know all the little things about me! Yes our conversations are fun! And i really miss all the ice creams, walks, bike rides and more. I am so glad that I know someone like you, you're sweet, you're kind, and one of the best people to hangout and share stuff with :) Thank you for being the perfect listener and for not judging me for anything! i know you suck at texting ;_ ; but no worries! :) ill stay in touch! <3 take care! I miss you.

Kireeti Akkunuri : We may have only clicked this last year but I have always been in awe of how amazing a poetess you were! And you were popular too. I may have dismissed it at that, plus based on what the grapevine bore about you. But this last year, I am really glad I got to know the real you, and how sweet and helpful of a person you truly are. (But yes, maybe next time, don't force terminally sick faux-patients to travel xD). I really do hope you write more. (And me too!) Thanks for listening to me when I needed it. And I hope we stay in touch. All the best, Kireeti

Divya Maddu : Yo bro! Agreed that all our interaction started due to Mauli, but it was during our last year that we truly bonded. U giving some random references regarding friends, or some talks regarding some random diabolic crazy cravings we had 🐱 all that gave a lot of volume to our relationship. I remember how badly I used to rely on u regarding a certain someone (I guess that was the most un-Mauli thing ever) But then I realized how similar our views were regarding the real struggles of being a loner. Be it my random outbreaks into your room 🤪 or your cute dresses or u coming at ungodly hour for gelusil, I would never forget them. PS: I <3 How much u resembled a kitten when u smile, Keep smiling :)

Adhirath Kabra : hey devs! sabse pehle to apna saath carry hona. neeraj-khariwal ke kandho pe jo apan sem nikaale hain, unke kaam pe apna naam likhke feel hi alag aayi. dono hi elec mein 0 iq but group bhi banana hai XDD but maze to aaye. teri wajah se study room pata pada. aur apni depressed baatein <3 mein to bolta hu kahi trip karenge na to ek din vaisi hi baato ke liye rkhenge hostel mein :P rant krne se zyada maza kaha? tera carrom ka nasha bhi alag haan, sara dam udhar hi dikha le tu. dtu ki red wine se leke mihir ke ghar chadhayi jaeger, sab pe high hue hain. tu bas country bolna kaha aari, mein pehli ticket se pahunchega, hf yar. yearbook se aur sadness aa gyi xD ty

Aditya Venkatraman : Devyani!!! I think our first interaction was the HP quiz we set in my freshie year along with Toshi [it was so much fun] I was pretty much a fan of yours back then bc of how cool you were and how much of a Potterhead you were (and still are). I will miss those deep conversations that we used to have and all the tea that we used to give each other xD Need more impromptu board games meetups for sure. Keep in touch!

Ritik Madan : Dude, you're the best poem reviewer I could've had XD. And thank you for not spilling out my secrets out of DnD when people ask you about them. BTW hum logon ko gossip sessions badha lene chahiye, kaafi kam hogaye hai :(Also, grad trip karni hai pakke se and ZNMD wali bhi!

Sarthak Nijhawan : Yo! Waise, I'm not the "ideal" person that every1 makes of me to be :P & bitching!- huh- what do u think I've done all these yrs while in dormancy- Lol, just kidding :P. I fall very pale in comparison to what people in insti do xD. It's more about EE actually (oh wait, it's always about EE :P). Well, we've come a long way since Fizgee & Atilji, never thought our paths'd run so closely. All I wish for is having had spent more time with y'all b4 5th yr. For all Ik, u're one of the most genuine & modest persons I've ever met. Wish u get everything that u desire in life. I am just happy that I could help you get over that DDP thing- hope this one's working out all fine tho :P (abhi firse nhp xD)

Nutan Megu : just wana say i love ur dressing style. u r super smart, intelligent and i love ur model like figure. keep smiling. wishing u all the success in life

Kevin Shah : Last year ke pehle kuch khaas interaction nai hua, but thanks for all the semex tips! Also the parties were so crazy and fun! I'll always remember "mere veins me alcohol hai" XD

Mookund Sureka : Happy birthday :p and see kuch toh likh dia. Edit Take 2: Poora insti teri lete hue hi nikla hai [you're to blame only yourself for that]. Looking back I am not sure if anything has changed in those 5 years 🤔🤔🤔. Except sayad late ana tera. Denmark wala story will be one of the highlights of the exchange [junta please ask her :] but karma is a bitch and usi din meri bhi lag gayi :'). Mai toh jaldi gurgaon se nikalne ki पूरी kosis karunga dekh lena tu :p
