Md Shaquib Ansari : Hi Amar, it's sad that our journey together has come to an abrupt halt in these unprecedented times. But those years are most cherished moments of my life. I remember how we had always been there for each other no matter what. I wish you all the best for your life ahead and I hope this is not the end. Cheers. P.S: Sorry that I troubled you with the cat.

Anumay Ashish : Never had much of discussions with you chacha, big yes all those small hi and byes in the corridors were more than enough to strengthen this bond. Also, will really miss your presence as one who kind of seemed more mature than all of us. Keep in touch chacha and haan "Chacha Pranaam" 😊

Ahsan Aslam : Amar...you will be immortal in my heart.If I hadn't met you in first year,I don't know what would've happened but I owe you just for being there.I still haven't returned the books that we rented and I haven't rented books after that.But you still refuse to download because of your principles.Talking about your principles,I haven't met anyone in my life who is as firm on them as you and I greatly respect you for that,along with your cleanliness(borderline germaphobe).I will never forget that lab record cover.You are friendly but once you get too comfortable,your lame jokes start popping up.As much as it irritates everyone,I won't hate you for that.You are one hell of a unique guy.
