Mouli Hazra : Hey princess, u r such a sweet and cute girl I have ever seen...I feel nice when I talk to u...I got the chance to know u well during the summer we stayed together.. U r so cool, calm but extremely dedicated. U always keep ur words..U r a fighter..I know u will make ur dreams come true..May God bless u...Stay connected...

Anurag Dwivedi : Hey Srestha.. my cutest lab partner ever. I can remember the way you felt left out when Mithi and I were performing experiments. You were always anxious that you will miss the conversation between Mithi and me. I always persuaded you to do the calculations in my room even if you didn't want to because that's how I was trying to spend time with you in H18. You are such a cute and pure hearted person. Stay blessed!!

Chainika Chauhan : Hey girl!! You're too cute, kind and very helping girl. When you speak, it seems to me like a kid is speaking, so sweet.♥ You've practiced hard and you're going to do great. Stay the same. Stay connected.😊

Harishankkar GK : you are such a sweet, innocent, caring person and a very good listener...remember the day I offered you to carry your bag(during the first day of the trek)..and u said its ok..I was surprised to see that u didn't want to bother me though that would have been of great help to you...may all your wishes come true..all the very best for your future

Neeraj Kumar : Sresthu, Meri Jaan! How can someone be cute innocent and friendly all at once? The world is too cruel, but it's people like you, who are the symbol of care, kindness, and happiness... Does it make you weak? No, It's the strongest personality that one can have. I hope you stay the same, always. I'll dearly miss annoying you with sarcasm; jo tujhe aaj bhe nhi chamakta. Thanks for introducing me to Bangali culture; for being my first Bangla teacher, and I won't let you down. You will forever have a special place in my heart. "I'll be there for you because you will be there for me too."

Ritesh Bachhar : Hi, momma's princess (my pumpkin :p)!! I have never seen such a kind hearted, sweet, dedicated, hard working person like you. It always inspires me to see how put 100% in everything you do, even if it is the most simple task. You really know how to live every moment to the fullest. Even if I was a slow learner, you have never given up hope on me, and cared for me all the way through. You know there lives a child inside of you, whatever happens never let her die. Arigato, for making this beautiful journey extra special. 😊

Writasree Maitra : Thank you for being the sweetest roommate. Answering your thoughtful questions is something I loved the most. You're curious and hardworking and proud of who you are- these are great qualities; never ever lose them. You'll do great in research- trust me, you'll. All the very best. Stay happy and be successful.
