Swadha Sanghvi : Rupeshhhhhhh! I can't believe tu jaa raha hai! Ab kaun mera RR sunega, kaun mujhe random advice dega and mujhe probability ke blogs verify karwaega! Trust me it's an amazing journey knowing you. And I know people leave but save a seat for me

Abhinav Jain : My meme supplier, our friendship was very short but I enjoyed every moment of it... Inter IIT couldn't have been fun and exciting without you and Chaithanya handling the two PS so well. I genuinely hope ki aap meko insti se jaane ke baad bhi yaad rakhoge, at-least meme supply mat band karna xD

Aryan Aryan : Aaaeee Gian aka sabse purana dost!! You are a great guy! Ekdum humble, bohot funny, with god-like processing powers and memory (Yaha bhi maths laga diye tum to 🤖(DNE)). Ab mere doubts kaun clear karega 🙄. Kaafi kuch sikhaye ho tum! Thode Tinder tips bhi de dena 🤔 And aalas kam kar! 🙄 Agle baar milne pe TT k tips bhi chahiye mujhe. Indore se fursat mile to kabhi Patna bhi aa jaiyega sire 🤔. Let's keep in touch my fren!

Maitrey Gramopadhye : Rupesh bro!! Life mai itna machau yet itna humble insan nahi dekha tumhare alawa. Apne random HIMYM discussions humesha yad rahenge. Shayari and memes karte rehna age bhi. If possible, wapas se trap challenge :P

Rahul chunduru : I remember the first time we met. Coming from cs101 labs, it was at the convo intersection and you kept on talking about Marathi and south lingo styles till we reached the hostel, my first impressions were "hmm, what a strange guy". Strange or not, you really have an interesting take on most things, you take up so much load but never show it. A decent memer, but perhaps the most consistent. Finally, a total fun person to hang around with and I will miss ur never-ending questions in classes. All the best for ur future endeavours and keep up the machoness !!!

Debanjan Mondal : Hello Roomie, the laziest guy I have seen in insti, if Se7en happened in real life, you would have been killed for Sloth. Spending most of the time in the room, yet so sociable. Been together in heartbreaks and good times. I still don't know how I endured your rants and racist jokes all these years. Too late to kill you and get a perfect 10!! Prosper in life and keep yourself and others happy, as you have done so far.

Harshwardhan Mourya : Rupesh, the forever boy next door. The perfect neighbour anyone can get, and such a good friend. Always coming up with some crazy yet creative ideas. How much countless things we've shared. Thanks for all the movie and series suggestions and supplies too 😊. Thanks for introducing me to the edm and also for all the memes you shared on IJ. Boi you're the coolest guy in the room.

Yash T Rajan : The OG Babaji of middle wing, 9th floor, 16A. I still regret the day after CS quiz, jab junta tere room aayi thi and I was sleeping. I still laugh hard jab Mourya ki GPL par guard aaye the and you were explaining ki 'Parampara hai ye to, saalon se chala aa raha' XD. And I still cherish second year waala holi in H7, probably the only thing jisme poora wing was together(guilty me ofc). Such have been the memories with you that will live lifelong with me. Although apne wing mein ek se badkar ek log bhare pade hain...but there has always been something about you jo poore wing ko complete kiya hai(kaaaaafi cliché :P) aapka machaana kisi se chhupa nahi, wahin aage badhte jao! All the best! <3

Poorvi Hebbar : Yo Rupesh! Meme gawd, best person for recommending movies and novels of any genre, sabse machau TA, the best motivating person with such great advices I have ever met. Jitna bhi boloon kam hai yarr. Tussi great ho. Itna humble aur down to earth bhi ho yarr aap. Kudos to the best senior ever. Thanks for all your motivation as well as your memes yarr and aage sab cheezo k liye all the best. Obviously machana toh hai hi aapko, bolne ki kya zaroorat :P

Yash Shah : You were my default partner in all course projects and labs, and I guess that turned out pretty well for both of us each time? (cough Khedkar). I will miss the endless (often random) discussions, overnight hackathons/CTFs, and gaming sessions we enjoyed at your room. Thank you for being a constant source of memes, music, movies, TV shows, tech news, and interesting YouTube videos for the past 4 years. Your laugh (and your take on some sensitive matters :P) might be quirky, but that didn't stop me from finding a good friend in you. Stay the same, and stay in touch. Re: Facebook comments, notice from this post that I still prefer English.

Chaithanya Naik Mude : Rupesh_99 Bhaiiii!!! Surname 99 hogaya uski wajah se 😂😂 All the conversations we had.. All the valuable suggestions and more valuable insights.. Ye sabke beech me Bihari gaali... and Bhojpuri gaana.. aur chotu ko tang karna.. We surely made memories.. and obviously the most memorable nightouts and Lonavala trip is just lubb

Yash Sharma : Hey! Thank you for all the help you in the last 2 years. You're extremely fun to talk to. Good luck!

Preetam Pinnada : Who said god doesn't exist? Those foolish atheists might not have seen you. Unko apne darshan prapti kijiye. Enlighten them. I still doubt if you're one person or two very similar looking folks. How can one person manage to do all the stuff viz. memes, lifestyle, coding, research and be the chocolate boy. But srsly, you've had great influence on me through your actions and have motivated me to take up many things which I would have missed otherwise. Thank you for being very generous in accepting this junior into your AML team. Keep inspiring us. All the best!

Sigireddi Yamuna Devi : Yooo! Always thinking about the happiness of others , be it memes or your excellent movie and book suggestions. Thanks for all the support <3. I know abhi hum ek hi city jaane wale h, but still all the best!!! :D
