Devyani Verma : Mauli ♥ I have been soo lucky to find a roommate like you! It was so easy to talk to you, to cry around you, you understood everything. You'll obviously do great in your career. I want you to remember that this girl will ALWAYS be just a phonecall/text away. You taught me so much in that one year, I was my best version around you. I like myself more when I am with you. You make it so easy, your faith in everything I do! I loved every version of you, the eleventh class douche, the over-achiever you, the vulnerable you, everything. I am going to miss you soo much. Here's wishing you a lifetime of dogs, sushis, laughs, happiness ♥ You're my sunshine and I want you to keep shining brightly
