

AOSHEEN ANAND

Chemistry

Yearbook
2020

Chainika Chauhan : Hey roomie!! I imagine you as a clown of our room 😂so I miss our banter on one another, ceaseless gossips(about every hell of a thing 😊) , making funny videos, devouring midnight meals. Apart from this, you were there whenever I was in trouble to give me advices 😊. Hence, I conclude this story of two years with forever heartwarming memories. ♥

Aprajita Shukla : Aosheen, you are a very strong girl! Never be afraid of anyone! I'm glad that things worked out well for you by the end! :) You are hardworking and intelligent! Stay positive! And do well! Best wishes! ♥

Payal Payal : Hey Sheenu!! We were not so close to each other in first year but a wonderful opportunity (Indiana University intern) made us to know each other. I really liked your company during our internship and after coming back to campus I really enjoyed a lot with you. We had shared our ups and downs, our mid night meals, our night time gossips, partner in solving previous year paper during exam time 😊. The great part of you is that you don't like to maintain relationships with formalities. And I like people like you. And I will never forget the quote you had written on my wall of hostel room "Ek koshish aur, ek koshish aur kr le" This quote motivated me. Waheguru ji always tenu khush rakhan ♥

Neha Chhikara : Hi Aosheen !!!! Just a shout-out to one of the most hard working person I know 😊. I have seen how much you worked in lab.... even when sometimes it was tough. It's been great knowing you. I would always remember how we all just sat down and prepared for trip. All the nonsense talks, gossips, going late night to canteen and many more. Wish you all the best for your future 😊.

Chemistry

Shaifali Shaifali : Hello Aoshen 🥳! We both know that some things (like those chit-chats) are not same as before but we both also know that we share a genuine connection. One thing I'm certain about is that you are very strong and courageous. You are a person with childlike heart and straightforward attitude which I love about you. Remember I'm always there for you. I wish you blossom and be a roaring success for you deserve it. 🌈👉