Aayushi Baheti : Hey project partner! I am so glad that I got the chance to know you. You are one of the most generous people I came across. You belong to those rare species who find joy in others' happiness. Cheers to the killer DE project meetings! Keep sketching and singing! <3

Mudita Rana : Oh you know the freshie story yaar 😂😂 stop pulling my leg ab. Never got to know you that well but we all know how you're always ready to help everyone at any time!! Thanks for the much needed bike rides 🤔🤔♂️ stay in touch!!

Shobhna Misra : You were a really awesome co-GSec! Starting from supporting each other to get through the election period to having each other's back throughout the tenure, it has been one hell of a ride! :) Hoping we stay in touch!

Dhwaj Singhal : Raghav broo. Being your neighbor in cholos has been an incredible ride which i will always cherish. From helping me pass certain courses (and almost passing certain others :P) to our moment of glory at music arcade(and subsequent humiliation at that weird competition) you've been through it all with me. I don't admit it a lot in front of you :p , but i truly believe you've done a fantastic job as IMS, and as GS. I will never forget the multitude of memories you've left me with, and I'm sure you wont either. Cholos for life <3

Veerupaksh Singla : Civil se saath me bc maari Chemical me, gaali bhi di bohot is decision ko, but we made it 😊. PPU was fun times, good memories!

Ankit Neema : Bhaiiii..thanks for being there since the very beginning of my insti life. Never seen a more hardworking guy, be it in acads, in cult and in general in life. I wish you great success in life and be the awesome person that you are forever <3

Tanmay Garg : Aur bhai, class le chalna subah please :p I am truly going to miss every second that i've spent with you over these past 3 years. We've literally been inseparable through the toughest of times. You have always been there for me when I needed you (not just in helping me with cheating but other instances as well). I honestly admire the dedication you have for all that you pursue in life and it truly amazes me how you have been surviving the last 3 years sleeping 3 hours on an average, hats off brother. Apan milte hi rahege uski to koi tension nahi hain meko :) cheers to better times in the future !!!

Aditya Chalishazar : Kya boss... I cannot believe how times have changed. From that first SGEK where you could barely keep your eyes open to the entire end of the tenure. It's been a wild ride. Thank you for patiently listening to my many many rants. Here's to many more projects together. Stay in touch! :)

Srajan Kumar Verma : Bhai hai tu yaar! I wish we had spent more time together but jitna hai accha hai. The vibe you bring along with you is unmatched. Ek baar firse kabhi milke random jams kareng aur tu unknown artists ke awesome gaane sunana! :)

Akash Sharma : Brooo ...jaldi aana dodal khon pee jaaygi to bro tu mera bhai hai ...mast aadmi hai tu ...if someone has to learn to enjoy in others happiness it has to be by your example .. Hope so we stay in touch 😊😊

Pranav Thakkar : Bhai!! Spent half my life in insti hearing from you "sab chill hai bro!" "no tension bro!" and I still chuckle sometimes. In terms of motivation, I haven't seen anyone better. You were easily the best music secy the club has had, you put your heart and soul into it and you made it your own. I love how much you love Culturals, it genuinely makes me happy to see someone be a good GS Cult and make good progress. You've got a great voice and a golden heart, bas random cheezon me huggna band karde xD I'm so proud to have someone succeed me the way you did with Symphony. Even apart from all that you're a loyal friend and it's always so much timepass sitting and chitchatting with you. Alwaysss stay the way you are <3

Adhishree Apte : You and Pranil were the first seniors a nervous freshie me met. Thanks for teaching me bass. And the encouragement to keep practising :p

Swadha Sanghvi : Hey Raghav! Thanks for taking my song recommendations so seriously and producing all those beautiful covers. You have an amazing voice and a golden heart. Don't forget you always have a friend right beside you for all the support u need in the world ❤️

Vedant Ladha : Man, I really appreciate how hardworking you are, chill kiya kar kabhi life mein? Kaash thoda hardwork lab mein bhi dikh jaata 😊😂 Jk, lab vivas wouldn't have been half as entertaining if not for you, zyaada marks nahi mille honge hume viva mein, lekin memories zaroor milli hai (Nothing can beat the Chandrayan insult😂)

Samruddhi Dodal : Raghaaav! Still can't believe we first talked only last sem. Can never forget our first interaction, how you taught me to solve cases, (fir khud bhul gaya tha XD) and always being there for everyone. It has been such a pleasure knowing you, and I'm sure you'll do great things in life. You'll always be like a younger brother to me :) <3 Bhul mat jaana :D

Saloni Deodhar : all hail the tattoo god _/_/ you went from an outsider to a great IMS in the music club, mad respect. You're so hard working and it shows. aur kya bolu, chill banda hai tu :P. Bhand hote aur ek bike trip toh banta hai xD Have a great life man :)

Patel Sayan : Wo EBM yaad hai jisme seniors ne bola tha ye hostel music secy ka kaam nahi kar rha dhang se isko insti music secy ban na hai!! Came a long way, didn't you? Pichle ek saal main GCs ke chalte jahaan jahaan main pain diya uske liye dil se sorry. Lastly, H4 ! H4 !

Madhur Sudarshan : From our first Surbahaar together to seeing you become Gsec, you had certainly come a long way. But that comes as no surprise to anyone that got to know you reasonably well. I remember the times in Apna Dhaaba and seeing the other side, beyond an individual with seemingly limitless ambition and hardwork, was also one who cared, and stepped up for his friends. Mast advice pel rahe the aap lol. I learned a lot just by observing the things you do (and from bitching by your conveners :P but then that is the natural order of things). You're a great guy and I think everyone has a thing or two that they could learn from you :)

Ankit Raj : Aaj bhi yaad hai, u helped for an event, on single call although we don't each other then. Being in madhouse council, we had a proud moment when u become GSCA, good job. Will be in touch

Tanya Gupta : Hey Raghav! I think the craziest memory I have is the bike ride coz I have an absolutely paralyzing fear of them! That only goes to show how much I trust you. Thank you for listening to all my life confusion and going for icecream and showing me that garden place in insti. I am super proud of how you have turned your life around after every major down you faced. I am glad you got that memento mori tattoo (I know I wouldn't have gotten it in a million years) and I wouldn't have it any other way. You are one of the most genuine and caring persons I have had the privilege to meet in insti. Listening to you sing and play is always a delight, please consultant banke chhod mat dena yeh. Keep sharing song recs, stay the way you are, and slay through everything life throws at you!

Rishika Gupta : Hiii Goyal! I remember scaring you the very first day of IITB while we were sitting in the front rows of LA. Par first day kaun itni chap chap karta hai 🙄 Telling your life stories at SOM/lakeside, visiting the Maddhu mess for the first time, intern rants of second year to chemical ka rona. We have some good memories to cherish. 😊 You really are a very kind hearted, hardworking and generous person. Stay the same. 🥰

Sanjyot Shenoy : Hello Sar, Music Club feels way different without you at the helm. I will always remember how your efforts brought the best for the Music Club and because of you I always felt a part of the club. The Surbahaar Standee, Kejri ke saath waala donation run and the election run(I will never forget the countless Raghav for GSCA naare I made) to your selection, your progress has definitely shown. Wishing you all the best. Ending with Iska na uska, Dil me hamesha, #RaghavForGSCA♥

Animesh Singhal : The master-mind behind the funniest incident of my insti life <3. You've had my back during the two darkest phases of my insti life. Thanks for being there yaar, tu nahi hota toh pata nahi kya hota. Truly a man of his words, IMS tenure toh fod diya bhai. Jo us din soap mein bola, sab karke dikhaya BC! Infi medleys (PwC vaala thoda akward tha though XD), busking on roads, playing with cats and case prep, kya mast time tha yaar :'). Bike ke liye thanks :P The way you've handled yourself in the last 2 sems is commendable be it in terms of career, relations or health! Kudos to the hardwork that you've put and relations you've forged! You deserve all the success in life bro! Keep killin it :D

Arjav Shah : Goyal!! From being neighbours in the first year to ICC 18-19, it's been a great journey. First year memories are gonna be very precious! One of the fondest memories would be the ICC handing over when we moved all around the place with Sanjeet to avoid getting drunk xD Haven't seen a lot of people with so much enthusiasm - keep that up! All the best and keep in touch! :-)

Devesh Garodia : Hey Raghav, this all just got over too soon. Well don't even know how to sum it all up. I still remember the first year cab ride to Marine Drive. Never, did I imagine we would be so close. From every single Fuckup to the happiest moments you were there for me. MATLAB last quiz toh macha tha :p. I know the amount of hard work you put in for Acads, Preps, Cult. From "Bhai 3 baar revision ho gya" to "Bhai Lag gye" you grew up. Well This IITB journey would have been incomplete without you. I will miss you a lot. Wish you all the happiness in your life <3. P.S - Thoda Tinder and Nashe kamm Kar :p

Viral Shah : Chand Paise kamane ki laalach me dost bane hum. Paise toh nai mile ab tak par buckchodi kaafi hui. Kudos to the amazing time we had. I haven't met a person as street-smart as you, bhai khade khade logo ko bana sakta hai tu, definitely a talented GS. All the best bro, I am sure that you are gonna shine brighter in future.

Or I can say I enjoyed listening your music, songs and many different words which you used to associate with Mohit...xd. I really enjoyed being at some corner of your cat dynamics. Teri wajah se mujhe bhi ab cats achhi lagni lagi lol!. Man, you have a versatile personality. You are kind of all-rounder. Your shayari's are also good. Not to forgot your NGO, it is great . May you keep climbing the ladder of success with your good heart. love you! Take care.

Bhadri Narayanan R : When I was barely into my double digit cases for placement, you were done with a couple of books! Man how dedicated are you? I was kinda intimidated by that I guess :p Oh and apologies for being completely oblivious of my surroundings during chem quizzes XD Anyways, keep adding those tattoos.. Cheers!

Risha Agarwal : Shining moon 🌙 yours was the first post that made me so teary! There's no one like you bro, kitne maze kiye haisathme! Never going to forget the bike ride, thanks for keeping me alive?? XD Mtv unplugged itna tiring tha fir bhi itna zyada maza aaya! And placement 😂😂 foxes mar rahe hai bc they have an urge to copulate but no access to the other gender xD Yaar partner late aa raha hai to bol do helicopter se aajaye! Sikke leke jaaye?! And the best part has to be your maida Frankie for 2 months and my shocking revelation later xD amidst all this, your hardwork has always inspired me. I really miss u too! Bc 3 baar post kiya, limit reach hoke post kat jata hai. Love you beyyy💕💕

Harshita Verma : Hi Raghav!!! I guess we first met when you were doing gw for GSCA. We didn't got much opportunity to know each other that well but it was always nice passing by you in LCs n joking around n also listening to your music. Had this corona not happened we would have definitely got sometime to hangout. But considering I'll be in Mumbai so let's try to make up for the lost time. Brutally honest hone ke liye maafi chahta hoon but I never believed that I need to sugar coat anything in front of you. Tere saath bohot kuch seekha hai bhai. Woh ali bagh ka near death experience, Jim Beam waala juice, last year holi, night out maarke sameer hill jaana, shopping, tumhara roona aur saare kaand ki memories bohot amazing hai mere liye. Bday gift nahi de paaya due to this lockdown but ab toh saath hi rehna hai (agr tu jhel paaya toh). Also apni kasam mat bhulna- pehle bhai ka ghar basana hai♥♥♥

Yagya Mundra : "Bike dilwa do yaar" se leke pure tenure mai randomly "Tera bhai kar dega tention mat le " tak pura secy tenure summerize ho gaya apna. Kaafi cheezon mai clashes huen hai and GSCA ke elections toh " Aahaa , Bhai mazza aagya" but at the end everything summerizes to the good memories we had i guess. Naavik toh i guess aap kabhi nahi bhul paaoge sorry for that :p. But seriously thanks for providing me help whenever needed during the tenure. Hopefully next year kabhi toh handing over hogi usme milenge :)

Jovina Vaswani : Raghav, thanks for sticking around. You are a marvellously strong, brave, and ambitious guy, and I always drew inspiration from you. I admire your dedication, and the way you somehow always get things done. Thanks for studying with me, and taking me on bike rides. Thanks for putting up with me, and never letting me down. Our stories were so different, but I could find strength in your scars and hope you did too. I'll always be a text away if you need me. Rooting for your happiness, lots of love, ayu. <3

Anusha Dubey : I want to tell you something....Itni cheezein karne ke baad bhi, ye sab kaam ke liye aap time kahan se nikal lete ho sir? Aap kitne machau ho iske charche to hamesha se sune the, but recently kaafi believe ho gaya har baat pe :P Hamesha se innocent sa, bohot kaam karne wala aur apne kaam se kaam rakhne wala banda lagta tha tu :P (wo sab past ho gaya ab) Seeing how you helped everyone during placements, 'actually' impressed me :P I would love to keep in touch with you and v curious to know more about your hidden talents! 😊

Shreya Sethi : So I am just going to term this as one of those "Covid-lockdown-friendships" and I don't even know how we got along. But nonetheless, it is great knowing you and catching up with you on random topics. Thank you for those kind words about my book but I am just going to scratch your back and say you are no less an artist with your music and "we listen", I am sure you are going to go places in life with your dedication, zeal and the multitasking.

Akshata Dalvi : Well, I disagree.. Being there for everyone and not expecting anything in return makes YOU the sweetest person. And no one dare refute that. I do remember that DJ night 😊 I am eternally grateful for the second chance we got to know eachother. I am in awe of the honesty and clarity in your voice and your intentions. Only someone like you can build an organisation to be there for the millions. I am sure it will reach great heights. 🥰 You give yourself faaar less credit than you deserve. I am sure all your dreams will come true. It has been terrific to be around you, especially those songs. Keep 'em coming! I will be there always.. and yess.. book club toh start karna hi hai 😊❤❤

Mustafa Burhani : Thankyou Raghav for helping me with so many things. Kaafi hardworking aur machau ho aap. Sorry for nagging you for small things, but kaafi comfortable lagta h apse chize share karna. Hamesha happy raho ur bhulna mat :P. Jab bhi kabhi ye dekho ek call karlena <3

Ishita Shah : Hey hey :) you're fun to be around! i know you had a difficult time during your tenure, but it was amazing how you managed to get through all your work and that you did it so well! We need to stop telling eachother 'Call in the evening?' and actually just calll XD see you soon <3

Satyam Rai : Hey Raghav, bro really gonna miss you bro. Tere jaisa multi-talented banda kahin nhi dekha. You once sent me the cover of the song 'A thousand years', it was the one of the most melodious voice I have ever heard. Kitni memories share ki hai yaar humne, mini-militia nights, movie nights, saath me class and you were the only guy in the wing who share the same music taste as me. Love you bhai❤❤. Aditya Dev : Have to thank you for allowing me to get a full feel of being a part of the band although I wasnt able to stick on for long. Had fun repairing your over processed track that day XD. Dude you have come a long way and I am happy that unlike many others, you are still improving and working on your passion. Was able to see drastic differences every time you sent a track. Hope you never stop. Also, your presence was a stress reliever every day at HDFC Life. Remain enthu and stay strong :P

Adwitiya Rao : Broo, you're the most senti person that I have ever met. I have seen you grow a lot in both of your tenures and I am really really proud of you. Tu bc ek hi baar sunny aaya mere sath jisme nimbu paani piya, I wish we could get drunk together. Remember that more the difficulties you face, the stronger you'll get and the brighter you'll shine. Thanks for helping me out even at super short notice and picking me up when I was drunk XD. Stay Happy, Stay Smiling and Stay strong. Cheers!! PS you still owe me a bike ride :P

Maitreya Khandagale : Probably one of the most important seniors, although I must've not said that ever. The entire reason why I continued with music through three years honestly. Late night jam enthu is something that I always admired. Magic Citrus, Musafir, Methyl Orange are some names that I will always be thankful for <3
