Kesha Tamakuwala : Hi Ritesh! Ek saal saath me kaam karna was so much fun, I don't know how you are so calm and composed all the time and tu hamesha meri life sorted hai vaale vibes deta hai which I find amazing, I remember us debating about mumbai vs delhi food and bro you are wrong, mumbai ka khana beshht hai and I hope you found time to discover that by now. I know you will do great things in life, good luck and stay in touch!

Kumar Saunack : You were a bit on the lazier side initially. That changed after you changed into a single room, so I believe I (or let's add everyone from the wing too) am partly to blame. I was too lazy to get Kindle from home, so thank you for letting me borrow it indefinitely. Helped me a lot in reading books. Looking forward to hearing you solve more unsolved problems.

Jovina Vaswani : Ritesh, I am glad we became friends. You are a very compassionate person, and I feel bad that we could not spend much time together. I have high hopes from you. Love you♥

Shubham Anand : Hey goenka.. gonu.. RG.. I'm glad that we were wingies.. you are the most competitive and goal achieving person (atleast in our wing 😊). Also chill maar ab thoda after getting your 69th backup lol. Sorry for taking the room allotted to you. Thoda slow walk kiya kar yaar. You were too busy in our last year due to which we didn't spend much time together. All the best for becoming a professor and we'll stay in touch I hope (unless you are too busy 😊).

Naman Jain : Yo RG, I don't know where to start. Last year mein kaafi enjoy kr liya apan ne from inventing new games, recommending new songs, ridiculing each others movie recommendations, crying over gre and applications, competing for number of blue lagoon drinks, weird mathematical discussions on hilbert space, defeating you in head football. We are still left with McD competition :(All the best for your future life -- Sir Ritesh Goenka

Sunchu Rohit : Arey Ritesh! I always used to wait for that time of the year when a grand slam was around so that we could start our trash talking and start betting on weird outcomes of matches. I'm gonna miss all the intense fights we've had regarding Federer vs Nadal (some of which even ended with us beating each other up mercilessly lol). I'm pretty sure there will some theorem named after you some day. Good luck for your future!

Aman Jain : Apni wing me hum dono hi the jinhe CS se koi matlab nahi tha 😊. Bahut labs gole maare hai apan ne saath me. Exams ke pehle saath me crash course karte the Sathvik se lol. We used to have lots of late night discussions walking in the corridor on whatnot. Firse kaneda jaa rahe ho, phone karte rehna humesha ki tarah.

Lavish Lavish : Yo Ritesh!! Jindagi mein tere jaisa dost sab ko mile. Humesha chill, humesha helping. Wing treats aur wing mein bakchodi ke alawa memories ke naam pe Bhar Bhar ke videos hai tere aur Akhil ke romance ke mere paas, lol. I wish tu aise hi machate reh life mein. Baki Viral Wing Jindabaad

Manoj Middepogu : Yo ritesh, 3 things that describe u are smart, hardworking and friendly. I still remember your quote ki you can achieve anything if u are strongly decided on it. Atleast you showed me its true in ur case. sad that we didn't watch csk vs mi match in the 4 yrs. Lately started watching tennis more bcz of you. Always helped me with the tough math. You maintain utmost clarity in whatever you study, great man. Maintain the competitive nature and stop doing stupid things 😊!! 2 treats are pending dude, if you still remeber, lol 😂
