Kushal P Yadav : I still remember I came to your room at 5am, woke you and said, dude, "project me regression toh use kiya hi nahi!" Kudos to solving it right there :p Enjoy in swapn 11 xD

Shubham Punjabi : From being a pseudo wingie, to one of the best friends. When we hit it off, I knew I am speaking to the coolest guy ever. Your ability to pull off things in ease has always mesmerized me ( from ED to tinder 😊). The late night chai with your world famous bhakadwadi and sev (jo har baar mein hi finish karta tha 😊) and movie/ random b99 talks/ 50 days challenge videos and how to talk with a girl waali tips 😂. The Goa trip and vlog is just the starting..abhi apne bhot trips bache hai boi 😊

Pushkar Saraf : I wish I spent more time this year with you guys. I wish we did not cancel the Goa trip. I wish I came along with you guys to Europe. I wish we actually ended up attending a Formula one race. I wish I graduated with you guys so that I won't have to spend another year at the institute without you. I am so thankful to have such an amazing set of friends who shared my enthusiasm to go out and enjoy. I am thankful that one of my best friends had such a kind heart to take care of me when I was down, a good fashion sense, immense knowledge of tourist places and so much more. Thank you for all the amazing fun we had! You can't imagine what it meant to me.

Mayanka Medhe : Hey Praddu (or Just Lazy!!!)! I am so glad ki mala tujhya sarkha friend bhetla (and not sapadla :p). I still remember the first day of our intern where we instantly bonded over our mutual dislike for our intern. When you said all the right things about Arya Stark during our lunch break I knew you were gonna be one of my closest friends. I wish I had known you sooner though. I'll miss the conference calls during the intern when you dared me to wave at the camera and I still can't believe how you waved so effortlessly XD. Thanks for always listening whenever I used to rant about anything. Tu 7th sem madhe khup help keli mala starting from GRE prep to masters application for which I will always be thankful. I wish we could have been able to go for that intern this summer and prom too :/. No matter how many times I make fun of you, you are still one of the coolest, creative and friendly person I know. Asach bhetat raha and don't you dare lose touch :p.

R Sucheta : Hello Pradnesssss, I probably wouldn't have survived elec hadn't it been for you. XD From our very first EE112 project to micro to comm to dsp, we have come a long way. I still remember the time you used to watch IPL when we were clearly supposed to study -_- And end me exams macha deta tha saying yeh toh common sense hai. XD Oh and how could I forget our B99 hunts, exam hall se jaldi nikalke B99 race me compete karna, who would finish first bolke! To your carefree attitude, marathi tricks (lab wala suraj :P), having my first chicken piece :'( and waiting forever for that dosa wala bhaiyya... All the best and keep in touch, coolest BC (ofc, after me :P)

Pujan Biswas : What's with so many Patils in D2T3? 🤔 This 1 time you go to the board and solve the question even when the TA could not do it (seemed a big thing then but we now know the truth 😊), amazement tabse aajtak for your focus and skills. Also, the subtle introduction of YouKnowWho in MI and the stories later were funny. Mess talks in H16 are definitely worth remembering! I really wish you would have stayed in Aero and killed it here but nevertheless jahan bhi rehte ho machate ho 😊 Are them curls borrowable, oh and the photography skills too? I still have save your NY photo in my collection. Thanks for showing people how intellect and coolness go together. Remember me. Yours sincerely, Bisso!

Sriganesh N : Hey Pradhhanesh! Yours was probably the first GPL I saw in insti. You were my personal TA in the first year. Exams ke time kya swag me padhta tha - split screen karke ek side pdf aur dusri side movie chalake padhta tha, fir bhi sabko peeche chhod deta tha. You are a guy jiske sath baat karke sahi feel aati hai. And in the later years you have expanded your field of expertise to dating apps too :D I have seen few people as smart as you. I am sure you'll achieve great things in the future. Wish you all the best..

Abhishek Rawat : Bhai kaha tu wing mei rehta bhi nhi thha aur ab dekh...Bhai u will always be my chai partner late in the night ese randomly jaake chai pee lete thhe...Naa jane kitni random shit karri h apanne aur tum log saalo shubhang k room aake alag hee bakhoti krte thhe....Yaar ek baar firse woh bombay trip karni hai shaalimar jaana hai aur woh tattti video banane hai marine pe xD...Touch mei rehna bhai and lets hope we meet soon and party crazy once again.

Yash Shrivardhankar : Patil saheb! We met in tumtum the first time going to some nobel laureate ka lecture I guess. Idc what that lecture was all about but it surely introduced me to one cool guy in insti! What a diverse pallet you have! From nailing shit outta maths to creating dope illustrations and clicking amazing photographs! Wish we did a photowalk together. Stay in touch mate!

Trishant Roy : Pradnesh yaar <3 Tera aur Vipul ka company <3 Tera room (H18 ka obviously) <3 Tera personality <3 Tu humesha movie ke bich me hi so jaata hai XD Yaad hai IC me movie dekhte samay ek hi bean bag pe so gaye the ek baar? XD XLR8 ke waqt tere RC control ke skills <3 and humaara wo motor connections whiteboard me figure out karna XD Thank you ki kaafi baar tumne force kiya saath me kuch karne ko.. Kaafi maza aaya tumhaare saath!! Aage bhi ayega <3 <3

Varun Sule : Hey Pradnesh, I've never seen anyone multitask as well as you - especially true in all those LCH late nights when you were usually the only one in the room with split screens open and a TV series playing in one. Kudos to your lively attitude dude, being so happy and able to give time to what you find treasured in life alongside managing your work excellently without any stress. Let's stay connected, and best of luck for the future!

Divyadarshee Das : Yo pradnesh. I will always come to you if we ever get a common assignment again. The machau marathi with cool attitude towards everything being chill in every situation and recently a great photo editor. I wish we could play together on your Xbox one day. Let's keep in touch.

Chinmay Kalra : Pradnesh bro!! Yaar the way u switch from Hindi to Marathi when someone like Shelar is around really fucks me up 😂! I will never forget our daily meetings in H18 mess for breakfast, during placement sem after night-outs. You are a really fun guy to have around. Aise hi rehna and stay in touch!!

Aniket Bhatia : Yo Pradnesh!! Apan second year me mile, and the first time we had an actual convo was when I was your lab partner. Well that lab was a roller coaster- when we stayed up all night to complete the project ka report and you machao-ed the project _^_. Then we'd discuss about gym, and thankss so much for all the machaxx info! Seriously I don't know how you manage to stay calm in the most panic-able situations and that's just one of your amazing qualities!! You're obviously a machao person (in every sense :P) and your sense of fashion is like up there! Keep being the charming, positive person you are and definitely stay in touch. All the best!! (:D btw minor ka assignment baaki hai :P, jk)
