Gurparkash Singh : Hey bro! We didn't get to talk a lot other than occasional encounters on the road because different depts and hostels but I have so many fond memories from freshie year, such as that Mafia game in Zote's room. You are a very genuine, honest, and non-judgemental person. I remember getting pleasantly surprised talking to you the first time. Your calm demeanour and kaafi logical baatein were awesome. You also have that savageness going around. xD Wish we had interacted more often. Good Luck for all things ahead!

Kenrick Pinto : Hey man. Hanging out during intern days was so much fun with you. Those trips to Coorg and Hoggennakal were amazing. I will never forget how you patiently walked my drunk self to our hotel in Coorg, talking to me and making sure I don't wander on to the highway XD. It was fun exploring all those cool places there. You're one of the most dedicated people I've met in insti. It has been great knowing you. All the best for your future plans and stay in touch.

Viral Shah : Hello bro !!! We first met in Boisar, at that time I didnt know you but It was so good to have you as a companion in the Racing team. I got to learn so many things from you. Spending the summers with you and teja is amongst the best memories I have. The painful HT trips were the worst yet we overcame them as well. The nightouts and waiting till we got to do some actual work was equally frustrating but after the test runs the satisfaction was something that made the day. You are very innocent and hard working. Mast aadmi hai bhai tu. All the best for the future and do stay in touch.

Mohil Patel : Bhagwan tumhare saat bahut se course projects kiya hai. Tumhare jitna mathematically correct way me sochne wala muje dusara koi nahi mila hai, bahut he jyada basic tak chale jate ho kuch be intuition par nahi chodta. And tumhare aur verma ki political baate muje nahi samajti. Bas thoda open jyada ho jayo and thoda grades ki chinta kaam karo 😊

Nilay Pande : Yo Sahasrajit !! I will always remember the day we first met. It was in HBCSE where I asked to borrow a bottle of water and said to you, I won't be asking next time coz now we are friends. Boy did I know then that we would end up in the same wing at IITB and actually become lifelong friends. I will always miss playing TT with you and having insanely long discussions on social/political/philosophic issues. You think in a very logical manner and have a crystal clear thought process. We will always stay in touch man. All the best to you too and machate rehna bro!!

Divyam Bapna : Bhagwaan!! You were the first one whom I talked to from our wing. I still remember I said that I had seen you somewhere and how modestly you answered that probably on Rao's poster for AIR 1 in KVPY. I'll really miss those unplanned political discussions that frequently drifted us away from the projects we worked on. I'll miss playing TT with you, it's very funny to watch your backhand smash :P. We have worked on so many projects together and you really helped me with several things. I hope you get all that you aspire.

Naveen Kumar Yalal : GOD! Bahut zyada hardworking and alag level knowledge insaan ho aap. Kahi aapke 4 saal mein kabhi bhi vipatti di ho toh maaf kardo _/_ You are a very good TT player buddy, and also your curiosity is lit af. Thanks for some of the mind opening "Gulti's are shit" knowledge(just kidding be). Tu bahut jaldi offend ho jaata hai, thoda humor ko appreciate karke take it easy. Also please bongali mocchi khilao jaldi. Machate rehna yaar.
