Pankaj Kumar Sahu : Hi JD. Till now i got three roommates in my life, and i must say that You are the best room-mate ever. You are the strongest person by thought i have ever seen in my life. Nothing can stop you. You are also a very good motivator and inspiring. You helped me many times when the time was hard to me. Everything looks cool and bright when you are around or when i talk to you. Sometimes small misunderstandings was also happened between us but we all know that where there is love these types of things also exists. At last i will say I am very happy that you are my friend and I am feeling proud to have you as friend in my life. Thanks JD.

Vartika Singh : You're the one who cheers everyone up in the room. Be it your stories (based on real events), your way of talking, your perception, you just bring a smile to everyone's face. You made us laugh even in serious situations, thank you! Really looking forward to see you again

Aman Srivastav : Oh bhai ... Always active in everything. Almost become GSec. then left everything for BHARAT so altruistic. Do you know ... I started PubG because of you, went for the great Chumba trip because of you. I didn't drop Finance after talking to you. Now I think, you have more impact on me that I don't even thought. Its great to have a friend like you and hope to be in touch even after the life becomes boring.

Mayur Zadbuke : Hey JD, i know i had a very small voice in first year and very few heard it, but its okay. Yes agar tum second year me yaha hote to hum dono ka equation bahot different hota i guess, tum samne wali room me hote aur shayad tab hum dono me thodi baatchit hoti rehti aur maybe kabhi kabhi late night talks hote 😊😊. I never said this to you but i really like your sense of humour and i really believe that you are a very saaf dil insan. Thank you for making our class group alive and making all of us laugh in every situation. I really admire you for that. And i wish you will not unfriend me in future 😊😊 so that way i can be in touch with you. Hope to see you soon buddy 😊

Shiksha Singhal : Hello.. jaha tk mujhe yad h u were the person whom i hated the most.. idk why.. but then ur actions showed u didn't think much before doing anything.. u did everything just to interact with others, know them better.. even u r ready to make uf fun for this.. Congrats 🥳🥳 now u r off that hate list and on being removed from this u got a complementary package of following more and more private accounts on instagram. If u want more such packages do let me know. 😊😊

Ratnesh Srivastav : JD bro... you are one of those who expresses their thoughts spontaneously without thinking what others will think... This is good as it reflects that you are Truthful... And the best part of you is that you can make any situation "light" by your smashing one liners.. your smile is too good... Always keep smiling! Throughout these 2 years you tried to keep all the batchmates bonded..! Keep rocking and entertaining wherever you are.

Padigapati Mallikarjuna Reddy : Arey bhai, you are very unique in nature and its your biggest positive. Whenever I think of integrity, you come to my mind, and obviously not because you follow it, but you doing exactly the opposite of it. I did not see you being sad anytime, kudos to that. The way you behave and fake some of your stories brings the Lol's out of us and thanks for that. I still remember the bullet proof jacket you told during our trip to Chamba. You are one of the coolest guy to hang out with, sharing stories (be it real or fake :P) and all. I think we both miss the 2nd year and college and you are partially lucky that you get to spend weekends and college. Thanks for being my friend and reason behind smile

Sandeep Kumar P M : Hi JD, tere jaise befikra insaan bahut kam dekhi hai maine. I still remember the day you slept under the tree near gullu. Dusro ko hasane wale tere khubi bi taaref layak hai. BPCL jaane ke baad bhi kabhi laga nahi ki tu insti me nahi hai. All the best for your future 😊
