Swati Meena : The only Rajasthani friend I had in IIT Bombay (Remember H15 ki dal baati, if at all it was). The only person I know with the art of balancing the academics with the bakar. I had a lot of fun during our cheap thrills, (URI with sasti pooriyan, Harley Quinn and so on) naveen ka farewell (unplanned station pe pizza due to 50% off on take aways), and bowling game. Also, I guess following your steps brought me a little closer to the secure future I have. I really wish last sem mein thoda aur time spend karte aur chill karte. P.S Of course the "The best DPC " tag.
