Megha Chakraborty : You're the most perfect roommate/daughter I could have asked for. It's a shame we couldn't spend more time together. Also, thank you for giving me the best gift of my life in IIT.

Shubham Gunawat : I still clearly remember the day I first met you, and believe me I can't name a better moment in my insti life, oh maybe that dance we had, that just might top it. "Some infinities are just bigger than other infinities", (yes it's from my favorite movie), and I can't tell you how thankful I am for our little infinity. I won't trade it for anything in the world. You gave me forever in just couple of years, and I'll always be grateful for that. Love, Shubham
