Swadha Sanghvi : Hi Saunak, I know I have troubled you a lot for the last inter IIT, I am really sorry for that but thanks a lot for bringing me back to the game. I have no clue how I would be able to repay this favour of yours. You have been an amazing source of inspiration, discipline and commitment for me. Stay the same and machate rehna as you already do!

Shubham Anand : Saunack bhai.. you are one of the most disciplined guy I have ever met in my life.. I am always impressed with the fact that you keep learning something new always.. First year mein baat kam hoti thi lekin last year tak tu kaafi change hua.. And tere ko hamesha saurav se chidhate the but you are equally good (notice I am not saying better lol).. And all the best for your future man..

Bhavy Meghwal : me: "bhai crossy me aa jaiyo pakka" you: "ham toh aa jate hai har baar tum baki logo ko leke aao" your position in crossy and commitment to sport all are great. but tu sirf sports-POTY nahi tha. tu wing treat miss karta tha taki hamare paise bache. lol. swimming kabhi ja nahi sake apan.saunack saurav ka confusion aaj tak nahi gya 😊.always a good influence, thank god tu baaki CSE walo ki tarah nahi tha xD. All the best

Lavish Lavish : Yo Saunack! Mein sochta tha ki midsem mein bhi ye banda tennis khelne jata hai kitna disciplined hai ye 😊. But honestly I really admire you for your discipline and how you always learn new things. Wing treats mein tujhe Kitna miss karte the hum sab 😊. And Bhai Jo laxmi mein tune game khela tha na mere saath, yaad rakhunga mein humesha. Tu aise hi tennis khelta reh aur machaya reh Bhai. Good Luck ♥

Kumar Saurav : Arey bhai bhai bhai!

Rishabh Kumar : Bhaai maine tere liye vote kiya tha floor election me.

Karan Kothadiya : I've known you to be the one of the best CLs there ever was. Itna groundwork kabhi kisi CL ne pehle nahi kiya and you were so involved with all the teams in their practices. You're also very sweet, it was great to work with you in Aavhan! Let's keep in touch? Love, K

Manoj Middepogu : You are the most disciplined person I've ever met till now. Seriously you wake up at 6, bath twice a day, excel in studies and sports and the list goes on. The day I saw you making notes of errors you do in tennis and how to improve, you gained my respect. Always be calm and attentive like you are now. Don't compete with saurav(😂), you both are unique in your own ways

Rishabh Raj : Hola to one of the two constants in my 4 years here! I wish you were in H2 too! Clearly you were the happier and funnier of the two but it seems Saurav, later, picked up pace too! Writing for you is difficult since, my mind is full of clips of your peculiar quirks 😂 and it's difficult to describe them. Loved your sarcastic tones, but please have a bit of mercy too. Halat kharab kar dete ho tum 😂! Was always a great time, when you came to H2 and barged into my room either to drink water or relax on my bed 😂 while Saurav wasn't present. Thank you for your help during the years and hope you get your future sorted as soon as possible. See you soon!

Shubhankar Mihir Seth : Hey Saunack, I'd heard Reddy sir talk about what a solid player you are, and from the little that I got to know you, you're an even more solid guy. I wish I'd gotten to know more of both of you (Saurav was never in his room :() but I hope we stay in touch. Also, I like to think H6 would've won all GCs if I hadn't switched sides XD.

Harshita Masand : Hi S(au)nack, 🍕🍔🍷 ...

Vivek Pendharkar : O captain my captain!! It was a pleasure being in the tennis team with you for two complete years. Lots of amazing memories and nice moments that I share with you, including the time I was shocked to see you change clothes within a minute😂😂. You have amazing leadership skills be it in the form of team captain or CL. Also you are a role model for many of your juniors especially in the domain of sports and fitness. All the best for your future. Take care!!

Rishika Gupta : Please pardon me for still not being able to differentiate between the two of you 🙏 Since freshie year we have seen all the interiits together and I have huge respect for the tremendous improvement you have shown in the game 🙏 Let's keep talking on House party by mistake 😂 And I have still not forgiven you for spoiling my brand new kurta 🙄

Aayushman Mishra : Stop crying that you are fat(you are waise).. Only a captain can understand what the secy goes through in his tenure and i genuinely want to thank you for keeping a check on me always and tolerating all my tantrums! Thanks for making me realize my potential in tennis and being my go to person for every small thing XD. You both define what sports culture means to me and i hope it is followed by the coming freshmen's of our team

Sarvind Rankawat : You have taught me the technicality of tennis like a pro, hopefully I will learn to drive backhand like yours. I used to always avoid playing you in the GCs. As they say, Save the best for the last! (but your team never lasted long 😂) H6 Tennis GC gold? LOL! Find yourself lucky that you get to play knockouts. Good luck for future!

Sahil Shah : Most of our interactions have been thanks to your brother, but it has always been fun interacting with you! I remember the evening you'll got that wall-tape from Singapore and were so sure it would be more than enough for the whole wall, but you'll ended up creating a minimalistic modernist painting of a tree which looked like waves (or was it the other way around?). The trip to Yosemite was super impulsive and fun, and the cruel trek you'll forced me on was something I now remember fondly. I admire your confidence, the way you balance work and other activities, and especially the way you'll managed to drive all the way to LA with almost no prior experience. All the best, and keep in touch!

Viral Shah : Yaar starting me kaafi zyada confusion hota tha ki Saunak kaun, Sourav kaun. Tumhari saari cheezein almost same he thi... acha hua hostel alag tha, so that I could at least distinguish ki haa "apne hostel wala Saunak hai"... It was too much fun to give those quizzes with all of us sitting together and waiting for someone to solve it entirely. I still dont know how you managed to get the answers when half of the time you were sleeping in the class. Tennis me agar thoda bhi enthu hota toh pakka tumse he seekhne aata. Insti k Tennis ko tumne kaafi aage badhaya hai. Hope we could have spent more time so that I could understand your awesomeness better.

Rajat Rathi : Hi Saurav! It's great to be acquainted with the second best tennis player in insti, and his brother (you). Maths minor mein tumhare saath maze aate the and I feel proud that I could always tell you two apart. I really miss your bald look. Abhi jaise aage bhi life mein machate raho and Olympic medal milne par humko bhool mat jaana :P

Himanshu Bohra : AKA BFBC2 God, Your stealth strategies and headshots were truely commendable man. Thank you for those battlefield sessions ♥Keep playing tennis. All the best for your future ♥♥

Ritesh Goenka : Hey Saunack! I find your discipline amazing and how you have managed to keep it up during the last four years. You are certainly one of the most hardworking and dedicated person I have met in my life. I guess we have quite different personalities; yet we got along and it seems that you have come a long way in terms of socialising with other people. Keep the momentum and tennis going!

Phuntsog Wangchuk : If I had a dollar for every time I mistook you for Sourav I would've been able to afford a maid for my room by the 5th sem. I pray ki someday you'll be able to outlive the disgrace the entire IITB contingent brought us under your leadership, baaki machata to tu hai hi. All the best for the future.

Sunchu Rohit : I don't want to start writing about how dedicated, hardworking, you are. I guess it already has been covered by others :p. Watching tennis matches together was always fun! I always like how you used to refrain from eating junk food while the entire wing was bulk ordering it at one point. Good luck for your future!

Nitish Joshi : Yeah I am willing to be interrupted again, let's do it when we come back to hostel to collect our stuff :P I'll remember you as the most dedicated guy who never missed his exercise be it tennis or running. Good luck and hope we keep in touch!

Yash Lakade : Your dedication in coming from H6 to H2 just to play games is admirable😂 Mai ek sem insti kya chhod diya, tum logo ne game khelna hi chhod diya😂 Much to your surprise, I have tried different roles and guns on BFBC, decently drove tanks and helicopter as well, lets play online soon!

Shreyas Pimpalgaonkar : I hate the fact that when I call you and you give the phone to saurav and I keep on talking with him. You think I Don't notice, but I Do :p. You are the all rounder guy of the insti. I love your calm attitude towards everything, and useD to like staying in your minimalist room. Attending the tennis tournament was fun! Thanks for letting me beat you (sometimes) in tennis, and in chess you should thank me for letting me beat you. Hopefully you'll come to bangalore and I'll get to irritate you even more. we can create a wild story from almost anything, keep reading books and keep recommending me the good ones, I'll return the one i borrowed from you, for sure :D

Rohinee Joshi : A thank you for being an amazing leader in interiit! This means a lot to a freshie! Be it your encouragement to practice harder, or your support in interiit meet, or your friendly and kind nature, or the treat; you would always be remembered and a big thanks! Wish you all the best for your future life! Would like to keep in touch!

Naman Jain : Hey Saunack, I still cannot tell the photo belongs to you or Saurav. You are a legend man, with your great time management, your enthusiasm about even most arcane things, inter iit, books that you read. I made lot of fun of your marginal small height to Saurav over the time and hope to keep on making those comparisions. Stay the great person you are!

Vijay Ramchandani : Saunack bro I still can't distinguish between you and Saurav. The only way I know it's you if I see you in H6 🤔 Last sem me basketball khela saath and me itne jaldi you became friends with everyone and it was great knowing the two of you! Wish you success and love ♥

Saiteja Nangunoori : Hey sauNACK! Bhai you are disciplined, organised, down to earth... you are an ideal person man!! Bahut grow hua tu.. from being nice to manoj to roasting manoj 😊. Finally bas ye bolunga ki dhruti ka table aman ne thoda maine nhi!!

Pallav Banka : Hey captain, thank you for always being there to support and correct my decisions during my tenure. Both of you are way to irritating at most of the moments but yeah the few of the caring ones overshadow them. Due to initiatives by you guys and your bucket list infi memories gather hui aap logo ke sath. It was a pleasure to be a part of the tennis family with you guys and an honor to be your secretary. Please milte rehna so that I can always differentiate between the two you :P.

Abhro Bhuniya : Come play with me rn and I will beat you :P, but you will hide behind Bihar's net issues!! Yes you did pop in our wing at so many unexpected times, but it never felt like you were an outsider. You were super friendly, talked so kindly with everyone and I felt downright comfortable having you around. Waiting for the day we get to talk again. I have to say you are definitely a better teacher than your brother :P

Gurparkash Singh : Sauncack Sir! I always call both of you brothers "Sir" because tum log bahut machaate ho life me. You're expert at everything from sports to acads. I will always look back happily upon our days as Logic for CS TAs. You saved my ass many times in that period by working more. Can't thank you enough for that. Saath me mze bhi kiye the. Wish you all the best for future!

Sudarsanan Rajasekaran : Hi Saunack. It was really nice knowing you. Would often wonder how you could manage so many things.. acads, sports and still be cool and have a friendly chat. It was always nice to meet you at mess and have dinner together. All the best bro..

Aman Jain : I have tried to write this in English, please forgive me if I couldn't match your standards xD. We didn't have a whole lot in common, but we sure had nice discussions. Whenever I felt tired (after hours of binge watching 😊), I would come to your room to seek some calmness in life, or just rant about literally everything in my life. As I have told you a million times, your life is going to be a lot 'different' from ours and I am really curious/excited to see how it all turns out. All the best man!

Sahil Saiyad : You used to come from H6 to H2 to play csgo with us noobs all night. You and saurav argue so much and still make it apparent with little things how you both always have each other's back. You both convinced me to erase everything from my lappy and install kali linux. One of the worst decisions of my life. I mean I thought my dumb ass would become a hacker if I would install that.

Swapnil Agashe : You are one of the most sincere people I know in Insti (said this to Saurav also :p). I am glad that I got to know you and the whole tennis team. Also, you and Saurav are the only people from CS whom I know best. Definitely gonna be needing some pointers from you both. Hope you reach greater heights and realise your dreams ♥

Abhinav Rajesh Damor : To the first senior I met. Firstly, thanks for putting up with me. I still cannot believe you're leaving us . Your absence is really going to leave the courts barren. Goodbye, and wish you boundless success

Rahul chundururu : I remember the first time we met. You finished a physics exam early, and I took your calculator as I forgot to bring mine. It was great help, thanks. While we had limited interactions, I could tell you are a great guy and a fine tennis player. All the best in your future endeavors.

Arjun Sharma : Hey Saunack...I thanku and shukriya for guiding us freshies in this sport. Still can't forget our little match which made me realise my aukaat😁😁 . All the best and I hope ki aap aise hi guide karte rahe even after being an Alumni

Jai Israni : The leader of leaders. You ensure the fitness of your teammates and keep up their motivation at all times. Your persuasive nature keeps you at the head of the team !!

Poorvi Hebbar : Yo Saunack😁! Ye lo Aapke liye.💖💖 And yeah thanks for all the novel suggestions:P Tennis seekhna ek reh gya last sem but koi na milte rehna and aasha hai ki aap panda nhi ban jayenge Ghar baite baite. Baaki toh aap awesome ho and all the best aage sab cheezo k liye:)

Yash Shah : RC plane workshop me humara plane to uda nhi, but it did introduce you to me. I remember roaming around proud, being one of the few people able to distinguish between you and your brother back then. SSL seemed a breeze with you in the team. Your dedication to sports and discipline made me respect you even more (there might have been some hiccups along the way, but end me sab sahi raha :P). Exploring Singapore with you was amazing (I got to visit many places I wouldn't have otherwise). Stay in touch, and all the best for your future endeavors!! PS: I am gonna paste the same stuff on your brother's wall, just to mess around with people reading this who still can't tell which one of you is who

Arya Mithu Garg : Bhai tumhe kabhi gussa nai dekha apart from the last time :P I hope we get to see that more :P Accha hai tum bhi aa jate the, team balance out ho jaati thi with Saurav not overpowering a single side. Thanks BFBC2 step up karne ke liye and aa jane ke liye even though we were just a bunch of random guys in the start. It was really good to know you, kaafi sorted ho dono bhai and also have good strategy (Ek german seekhega ek french, end me decide karlo konsi better hai :P)

Ishan Tarunesh : You are skilled in so many things but you remain down to earth and explain things with the utmost calm to those who are interested. I'm impressed by the number of books you have read and I strive to reach that in some years. Tumhe aur Saurav ko opposite khelte nahi dekh paaye match mein due to some btp work which I regret. I don't know why but it's easier to talk to you (sorry Saurav). I wish H2 mein hote tum aur jyada interact kar paate. Job start hone se pehle patna mein hi milte hain. PS - Self doubt thoda kam karo pls.

Aruja Khanna : Hey Saunack! Honestly, you've been such an inspiration, apart from excelling at everything you were an amazing captain! You always kept everyone together and motivated me alot! All the very best for the future!
