You are the most creative person of our batch. tune mere jitne ups and down dekhe hai sayd kisi aur ne dekha hoga. bro tera discipline aur practicality ka koi match hii nhi hai. Sbse phle clg me mai tujhse hi mila tha aur luck dekh ki hm log roommate bhi bne. tere healthy habbits ko follow krne ke liye koshish ki, unme se kuchh hui aur kuchh rh gayi. Late night discussion to hmare kafi acche hote the. Start up khula agr to aa jana mil kar kam karenge(Future me). Love you bro. All the best. hope to meet you soon. Baki kerala to chalna hi hai tere ghar par.

Ankit Raj : Saandy !! enre saheadran !! Badminton partner for 2 years, normal season ho ya rainy. Apni bhi kaam nhi hai yaadien ! Starting from Kozhikode home to munnar to kochi. That was memorable trip Sandy, jab bhi pic dekho to dubara jane ka man krta hai. You were always nice to each one and specially me, jisne hmesa "deadline yaad karaya, class k liye uthaya, biryani k liye bulaya or most important exam k liye". Memrable to apni IEOR day ki bhi thi, design team me tune kabhi bhi naa nhi bola, Always ready. Or last but not least humari secret baaton ko decode karke puri gossip bahar nikalna. Tughe wo sab baate pata hai. Be the same Sandy, and campus k bagal me hi rehna fir milte rahenge.

Padigapati Mallikarjuna Reddy : Hey Sandeep, sometimes I remember myself when I see you (not physique wise though :P). You are very cool living the moment with happiness and watching movies (all languages). This character is very similar between you and me. I enjoyed spending time in your room, playing badminton, watching movies and our system dynamics assignments. You are a go-to guy for any movies :P. Thanks for the memories during our 1st year. I missed spending time with you guys in 2nd year..

Suyog Kapsikar : Sandy. We were not that close friends, still I liked whatever time we spent. That CS725 project, even after that guy ditched us, we still went to do some good work. Lets try to meet every-time I come to Mumbai

Ratnesh Srivastav : Hey bro! Bhai tmne Kerala ke banana chips aur halwa laa kr bahut khilaya hai...😊😊 Tmhare saath badminton khelna ka alag hi maza tha...😊 Aage BLR me mulakat hogi.. phir maze krenge.. keep smiling!

Mufassir Khan : Hi Sandy, I have always seen u as a real engineer who applies things to his real life as well. Time management is something that can be learnt from you. Yeah, I was confused guy because I was distracted from my priorities. Thanks for giving me free loads in some projects.. :P, now I'm a better person. Hope to stay in contact.
