P T Cherishma : AIR-14 🙌🙌🙌 "A brainy person who is gifted to make anybody who talks to him laugh no matter what the person is going through!! 🤔😂😂 a.k.a 'The Stand up comedian of our PEPS group' 😊 I bet u will forget all your worries and keep laughing all the time if you have him in your friends' list 🤔😂😂.. I will miss all the "EE-Canteen Brkfsts.. Coffee at Shiru.. Chemical Canteen.. Walks around the campus.. Brews and Bytes.. lunch time at H-11 with apni lokhande.. all our PEPS group outings.. n most importantly witnessing the endless Tom and Jerry fights😂😂 with the one and only Kappamma😂😂".. the list is endless.. 😊 Apart from all these u are one of the most trustworthy friends that I made at IITB 😊

Smita Lokhande : Sunny.. our Kerala guy!! :P we became such good friends because of DPPS. You are the most humorous person I know... who knows how to roast someone and be funny at the same time.. you are someone who remembers tiny tiny details of every conversation.. and who blushes a lot :P:P:P...will miss our poha and chai ka breakfast, your imitations, h11 lunch with gang, and your and Kappa's fights.. I wish before all of us join our jobs, we could have atleast one outing. :D

Swati Meena : From meeting you first time and everything in between. It was definitely fun to know you in this short and limited time. You are one of the most talented and chill guys I have met on the campus. Though we did not spend much time together, the memories I have are worth cherishing. And I don't take stress at all, it's my face ;-). Be chill as you are. P.S Ellavida ashamsakalum and Idakoke vilikane.

Samiksha Kesharichand Baid : Mr. Kerela.... Stress reliever... Tom to our kappamma.... A very quick learner.... No one whosoever I know can beat his memory... Sense of humor ...100/10...no one can beat you in that too... A very helpful friend.... Multi linguistic... Ek din me hi do char Bhashaye Sikh jata hai ye.... Will miss you... All the best..

Deepthi Pratti : Though we started talking just an year ago, feels like we have known each other for years. How can a person ever be as annoying as u? The one who annoys, irritates, embarrasses me in public for no reason 🙄, eats all my food, take stupid photos of me and blames me for all these things. Yet one of the people who will be missed the most. Those late night walks, canteen sessions, BnB sessions after gym (stop trying to impress and stalk girls now 😊) will all be missed badly. Thank you for everything u have done ♥ Life at IITB would not have been the same without u, the wittiest, smartest (not to forget about AIR 14!!), truly caring person, my TA partner, hang out buddy. PS- I have all Ur secrets 🐱

Pushkar Chaudhari : Most humorous and straightforward person in the group. Frequent visitor in the window of power electronics lab-1 to have little chats. You crossed a 100 in the first bowling game. We should have played one last game before corona. And also your fav game - Mafia - if you smile you are the mafia :D. H9 canteen at 1am to eat dosa - best call. Shadi ke cards online bhejna - no contact invitations :D

Sancho Simmy Louis : Your ability to come with AIB quality roasts with zero processing time is amazing ! Always makes us laugh with witty comments (And the timings are always right )! Your legendary fights with kappa is like a live sitcom for us ! Someone I trust and will sorely miss at IITB. My first lab partner at IITB :)

Modani Abhishek Sureshchandra : The person who rejected two job offers to have the opportunity to work with me :p. You are the most straightforward and funny guy specially with kappa :P. Our friendship became stronger in the last year while preparing for the placements. Although you need no preparation at all. In the last sem we had a lot of fun in the Lab doing our MTP (LOL). Birthday parties, 4 baje ka coffee, SGNP trip all became more fun because of your sense of humor. Our journey of friendship will flourish more in Bangalore in Enphase. Hope to meet you soon. Cheers and stay happy.
