Akash Sharma : Once upon a time vaala sentence yahi applicable ho sakta hai....we are having back of each other since ages ...foreign jaake bhul naa jaane mujhe tu (oops me bhulne vaale cheez hi kaha hoon)....late-night walks ..mere freshie year me chote bhai ki tarah update lete rehna meredost ho toh shashank jesa vrna naa ho 😊😊😊

Abhinav Jain : "Shashank, aap treat kab de rahe?", yeh bolte bolte graduation tak aa gaya xD but aapki treat nhi aayi. Baaki toh shi ho aap, hamesha helpful, caring for your mentees (mai toh mentee bhi nhi tha) and always smiling. Aise hi smile karte rehna, and please ek treat hai, hum baccho ko dedena. Haan abhi meko bhulna mat, mai ek saal aur pareshaan karega atleast ;p

Apurv Tiwari : Chhotu bhaiya, chhotu, shasan verma, and also apshabd, freshie year mein tumhein jharne wale gaane dikhane ab to pata nahi kya kya dikhane tak (talking about memes gandhi soch waalon), we have come so far! Lockdown mein to main pagla jata tum nahi hote to i guess 🤪 adha ghanta exercise karne ke baad post full dinner bhi 6 slice medium sized dominos pizza ke khaane wala insaan, kya faayda us exercise ka 😊 Vihar Lake chalo. Michigan jake bhul na jana.

Aniruddha Ravindra Ranade : Broooo! You have been an amazing friend all along. Bahut rota hein but struggle bhi karta hein aur fir machata hein. From that exciting but equally weird trip to Selu, to sending that email from GS desktop and the recent trek - the journey was amazing! You are a very kind and sweet person - aise he rehna! All the best and stay in touch :D

Krishna Wadhwani : Hi Shashank!! Thank you for all the help as a mentor!! You might not remember but, thank you for being the only supporter of Team HaKA (comprising Hari, me and Abhinav in our 3rd semester) even when we ourselves gave up on that project 😊. And jaisa Abhinav ne kaha aapki treat due hai 😊.

Bhatt Maulik Chunilal : Yo Shashank, you have been an extremely good senior. Haan humara bonding mount Abu trip mai hi hua aur fir toh pata nahin kitni mastiyan karne lage. Itna machate ho fir bhi itne humble kaise ban lete ho yaar. 214 lab ki mastiyan toh kabhi bhuli nahin jayegi. You are the only senior jinke laptop se maine fb post daala hua hain! 😊 Prank karne mai alag ho maza aata hain aapke ke saath. Also, dept trip mai jo bakchodiya ki vo kabhi nahin bhul paayenge. Aur haan Michigan jake hum bachcho ko bhul mat jana. Keep giving us funde. Ab aapke bina 214 mai kaam karne mai bhi maza nahin aega. Jane se pehle ek baar milke jana aur Mumbai aao tab insti aate rehna. Will miss you 💖

Sukanya Kudva : Hi Shashank, though we never really worked together in Satlab, I'll always remember you from the Gandhinagar trip. It was something. We had gone around cycling and I ended up with a phone runover by a roadroller. 😊 It has always been nice talking to you. You are very open and humble. Wish you good luck in life!! 😊

Athul Arun Nambolan : Yo Chotu ! First year wingie, second year roomie and again we get back to proximity in fifth year. Will always remember your friends episodes quizzes .Even when my side of wall were empty your posters made life a little better in during the really bad second year. Really value your friendship and PhD ke baad bhul mat jana. Stay in touch !

Pragya Valay : Yoooo Shashank! First time we met in Bangalore bahut apni wali feeling aayi, and yes the museum day was niceeee ♥ . I remember telling Tondup baad me ki bhai itna kitna bhola aadmi hai ye. Jyada movies nahi dekh paaye hum, par I hope you do great in your PhD and we catch up after that, warna beech beech me Netflix Party par movies dekhenge. I loved Jojo Rabbit, I am soo glad we went. I have messaged you many times this sem, ki I am bored , chalo kuch karte hai, and you never said no. You are a great guy, be the same :')

Pranav Thakkar : Yo chotu! Tu mast banda hai yaar, pehle pehle mujhe bohot shaant lagta tha but DD year me I started seeing glimpses of the real you hahaha. EE ke estimation course me hum dono saath me doob gaye, but I will never forget that midsem you missed because of your "illness" XD. Congratulations for your PhD programme, and all the best for what comes ahead!
