Bohra Ankit Narendra : 'Did you study?' , 'so jaa' amazing nicknames 😂..I'm so happy that my psycho partner dropped the course and so did yours😂. Else I probably could've never had the chance to interact with such a machau person, who is so sweet, caring and down to earth. I've literally discussed & bugged you soo much with 'that' topic but you've always listened to me patiently and guided me. Psycho ke lec ke beech mein text krke burai karna😂..exam ke pehle ke discussion, Good RG gang ofcourse are few memorable insti moments. Lockdown mein toh I've seen a new side of you from campus. You are a crazy Naruto fan😂, a fab artist and a machau person who keeps underestimating herself. Stay the same always!

Sanket Agrawal : Hello R suchuuuuu. The always smiling giggly girl + the always acads k baare main rokar machane wali bhi. I feel really good when I look at our interactions, they have been of all kind from serious to most funny to most random (like our dreams xD). From whatever interaction we have had I can tell you are a very sweet natured person who will never give up on her friends and help them and will be with them forever. Thanks for enduring and participating in each and every small Naruto discussion I start ( however insignificant the topic of discussion be) with infinite energy. I really love all of them with you. Stop cheating in ludo so that we start playing it again xD I will make sure that you

Kavya Bhandari : We were fated to be roommates, and we were as good as they come. 1.5yrs and no roommate complaints - wow that must be a H10 record. Do you remember the nights the lights would be off, but we wouldn't sleep and we'd randomly start talking to each other about Life, career, friends, gossip, etc.? Such comforting times... I admire the ease with which you're friends with almost everyone. Sabse amiro vala room tha na apna? 3 MacBooks, a Kindle, a spare laptop, etc. Going to miss you a lot dear roomie... <3

Yash T Rajan : Tenure ke baad dekhte :P

Mayanka Medhe : Suchu! I don't know how my last year would have turned out if I hadn't accepted your sleepover invitation. My chole bhature partner <3. Thanks for always motivating me to study by setting snack goals XD ("Bas ye lecture khatam karne ke baad khana order karte"). I will miss our gossip sessions, you and Divya giving me tutorials on how to play that weird snake game using RL logic. Sorry for saying I'll drop my stuff off in my room and come back and never actually coming XD. Please stay as annoying, happy, short and hardworking as you are (maybe thoda bhaav khana kam karde bas :p). Come to Japan so we can be roommates again <3. PS- NEVER, I repeat never, lock your door when you are drunk :p.

Abhisek Sahu : Suchu Bberroo! You were the most amazing co-convenor honestly. During our tenure and even after that, we have had so many awesome times, I am not gonna write em all here..but just know that I am gonna recall them and smile. You are so fun, yet idk how you manage to do so much rona😭. (Care reaccs only) Anyway, just keep being the jolly person you are, and keep seeking attention 😊. All the best to you! And I hope our paths cross again somewhere.😊

Jovina Vaswani : Suchu♥️😭. Remember our first year walks, second year sessions at the terrace, and bnb dates. The time we spent was less and scattered, it was perfect nevertheless. I hope we retain our bond irrespective of the circumstances. I love you♥️

Karan Trichal : Hello R Sucheta :) (at least naam change kar leti :/) I think you're the one person that I met and got talking to the in the most random way ever. Now that I think about it, it actually seems really apt for what followed in our friendship - random discussions, outings and dramas 😂😂 You've been a huge pillar of support through one of the most dramatic times of my insti life, and for that alone, you'll always be special to me! You're a super sweet person with a temperament to match, and talking to you always makes me laugh, be it your kiddiness or your drama or your random obsessions 😂😂 More Goraspak whenever you return from Hyderabad please - I'll get you anything you want in return 😊 Al

Bhuyashi Deka : Sorry to have failed you every night suchhuuuuu..... Baaki senti next year :)

Kartik Patekar : Hi Sucheta! MnP was a lot of fun because of you! It was always fun to see Thariq vs You happening during the treats! (You should take him seriously about not using Phone xD). I have seen you juggling with many different things, and yet do well in each of them. You are a very friendly person, and thanks a lot for helping me out during intial stage of my tenure. All the best for all of your future, and I look forward to meeting you in another MnP treat several years down the line. :)

Pradnesh Patil : Hey Sucheta, you were one of the first friends I had in Elec and I am so glad I found an amazing friend like you. I am more thankful that you took me in your Micro Team even after having previous amazing experiences in 112 and the other labs ;p. I'll miss all the late night sessions in the labs (where you got me hooked to box8) and the chaos of completion. I am sorry for not working in most of the projects but you have taught me how to be disciplined and how to get work done one day before ;p. Thanks for always having the dosa vale ka number and I am sure I wouldn't have passed Elec without you. All the best and stay in touch, coolest BC.

Rishika Gupta : Hellooooo Suchhu! It has been my pleasure to know you. From accompanying each other to WNCC meetings to DAMP meetings so much has changed from freshie year! Everything I'd heard about you was so true, insane work ethic and dedication. Ranting in the mess on random topics was fun 😂 I have to come to your house and meet aunty once and you have to show me around Hyderabad too 🙏

Namya Bagree : "Bleh"

Kireeti Akkunuri : Just writing here to express my gratitude for being friends with you. After first year I thought we would be friends no more but I am super happy we became even closer. And going together into Insight certainly helped. You're probably one of the biggest transformations I've seen in a person in Insti. But pray still retain atleast a teeny bit of that candid innocence, I know you will. Looking forward to staying in touch more and perhaps meeting up again, and I hope you have a great final   of a year more in Insti. Ciao, Kireeti

Mrunmayi Mungekar : Suchuuu! The machau D4 girl who branch-changed to elec, that's how I knew you! Until the day we started the trend of girl members of the insti coding club :P And then we became buds from judging people together to judging the "dead children" of OS...best buds to partners in crime! Like eating breakfast at 9.45 'before" a 9.30 class, teasing Arunabh all the time, and eating Cheese Magggi late night <3 I promise to try hard not to strangle you for all your hoodie antiques :P And Ms. Farah Fowler, dare you miss me! Coz I am never gonna lose touch with my helluva-elec-complaining-but-still-machauing buddy!

Kushagra Kacholia : To be honest, parts of our conversation is the only thing I remember from that DAMP training      I think tabse leke abhi tak we've maintained our tradition of keeping our conversation going after every few days :P I'd have said you're a wise person, but you watch too much cartoons. I'll bother you with insti gossips for the next year as well, so make sure to be updated all the time. But seriously, you're a smart, short (kaafi) and hard working person jo core se non core shift ho gyi hai yaayyy. All the best for the future!!

Sigireddi Yamuna Devi : Suchhuuu! You know what I thought at first of you? It was some quiz in the first sem , I was overjoyed to 10 or 11 out of 15 but then you unhappily came into our wing and said "I got only 14 :( ". I thought to myself, she is so studious and we could never be friends :P. But see how the tables have turned. You're one of the sweetest, crazy and stupid friend at insti. Thanks for all the khakras and dresses but I probably can count it as room rent tho :P . The late night with you were <3. I don't know if you know or not, but our friendship means so much to me. Though it seems we grew farther, I sincerely hope we can get to be the crazy besties we were. Love youu <3 :-)*

Adane Sahil Ravindra : Hey, it was a wonderful time with you as part of MnP. I remember seeing you in Mood Indigo during our tenure and having that brief but warm conversation with a familiar face. You were a very important part of the team and you managed all that whilst complaining about Elec coursework (will definitely miss this xD). All the best ahead! I am sure you will accomplish great things ;)

Desai Darshil : Thinking about how we got acquainted via Aditya's account makes me laugh every time. It was fun studying with you for Sarva's course and the voting project, even more so. Tbh you always seemed like you were perpetually having a panic attack throughout the phase of the project but this only added to my fun! Thanks a ton for helping me with my sops and rest assured that if the lock down lifts, you may get a treat. You are such a sweet person Sucheta, always stay the same! I will forever cherish hanging out with you and Akash and the conversations we had. Looking forward to many more such outings, until next time :)

Keshav Janyani : Yo Sucheta, I was always in awe of how you have managed to do so many things in a wonderful manner throughout. It was fun to be your co convener. All the best for your future :)
