Twinkle Khadka : Hello Shubhangi(2nd most studious girl of our group after Deepika). Actually you all were studious except me! 😊 Remember those first year days when I and Nidhi were about to begin our preparation for exam and you were doing revision for the same??? That made me wonder KITNA PADHTI HAI YE 😊 But I am really thankful to you for clearing my kiddish doubts in thermo. I will miss our gossips in mess& that night walk. And yes I agree that your parties are always lavish. I swear that birthday party was one of the memorable party we had in two years. I never told you but when u heard about my placement & came & hugged me, I actually felt good. Wishing you a great future! Stay connected madam g.
