Shubham Jain : Hi ramavath, your dedication towards your work is just on a different level, whether be it research related or acads, assignments. It was really great to have a conversation on matters related to your research, projects. I was truly inspired by the fact that you were working on quantum dots, nano tech, etc. Apart from elec, core mein bhi machate ho. Just an advice, thodda chill marna seek, as you also pointed out, entertainment jaruri hain!! And haan treat pending hain teri, let us schedule it after this pandemic get over!! Be happy and keep working hard :)

Drish Mahnot : Sweetest person in Civil. Always ready to help. Extremely hardworking and reliable. Couldn't complete the treat, maybe someday :P Thanks for the insane amount of support, thanks for saving my final year :D

Alok Kumar : Raju chachaa!! Course projects and exam/interview preps ke naam pe kya mast dosti hui apni. Doing common projects provided us a common ground. We complemented and learnt from each other quite well. Your punctual progress with my last minute accelerated wrap-ups was certainly a nice combo. Our discussions were fun with cameos from baba, usama and sometimes naman. I still hope to live in Chacha Nagar one day amidst your tall erections ;P. Let's see when can we catch up on cricket...maybe next time with Putty Raju too. Stay calm, chill and enjoy the journey ahead. Wish you all the best.

Ayush Ankit Singh : Yo Raju! I can't believe someone was able to tolerate my laziness for 3 years. It feels so nostalgic, that long night talk on day 1, you learning hindi to fit in, vo chaata walli bandi, TF ka website, taking turns to cry, working on assignments, freelancing, weird out of context topic discussions and yes civilians coming over at mid night for quick doubt sessions. Aur Tune jo mujhe punching bag bana rakha hai abhi tak. Kafi jhela hai humne ek dusre ko. Kafi sambhala bhi hai. Sabko tere dedication aur hardwork k bare m pata hai. But the actual best part of you is that selfless, caring heart. Mene dekha hai kitna care karta hai tu logo k liye, kitna improve karna chata khud ko taki dusro ki he Khidir Usama Abdul Karim : Raju chacha, putti raju wali kahaani yaad rahegi hamesha. Itna hardworking aur helpful bande bohot kum hote hai, saala kabhi bhi help maang lu mana nahi karta chahe exam ke 5 min pehle ho toh bhi. Mere saare sports ka companion tu hi hai, har game jaha mai tujhe zabardasti le gaya. Padhai me minor teri aur Alok ki helpse hua hai. Kaash tu yahi Chem me ruk jaata, woh bhi aasaan bana deta hamaare liye. Lekin jo tere sentences ko complete karke gaali banane me bohot maja aata hai - jald hi hindi seekh ja. Teri woh Europe me bandiyo se baat karne pe toh abhi bhi doubt hai mujhe. Hitlist wale bande-bandiyo pe revenge lena hai tujhe . Kahi bhi ho bc hamesha call/ping karte rahenge apan.

Yeduru Satya Sai Prasanth : Yo RAMBO! You worked hard for everything you achieved and deserve all and more of it. Our debates on "you know what" would never end 😂. You should thank me for making you a better bowler. I'll beat you on track someday 😊, until then take care and keep thriving.

Rohit Banavath : i admire your hardworking nature. but you have to improve on your shitty humour :D XD
