Neeraj Kumar : The one and only! You, weirdo... Leaving college is easy but leaving a person who lives in my heart, a difficult task to do. You taught me how to smile and be joyful even in the midst of trouble. I will forever cherish each and every moment spent with you. Blessed to have you in my life.

Harishankkar GK : Here is to the most affable and joyous person I have ever met..I should say u r very bad in one thing, in fact the worst..u know in what?...in making people feel bored :P u know, u and happiness have the same natural frequency..u know that's the reason u brim with energy when u r happy (yeah resonance effect :D) but wait.. all these can only make u a good friend rt ?! then what makes u a bestie? yes u have the patience (yes u really have it, trust me :D)and understanding of a true friend..thanks for all those conversations that we had..hope it continues..and for all the jitters that u r going to have, I only have one thing to say..as always..keep the smile :)

Himanshu Bishwash : You need to learn fluent Hindi and in return, I will learn fluent Bengali :P I best thing I can recall is the day we found that crab and I picked it up. Learnt that crabs bite hard the tough way xD. I am hoping that we get one more chance to meet when all this over and explore Mumbai for a day. Also, bring more than one Rasgulla for me this time :P

Avari Roy : Mouli Mouli Mouli😂😂😂 My God. My God!! I exactly remember the day me stocking your fb profile and saying 'My heaven!, she is beautiful!'. Later on that girl, becoming my hostel mate, lab partner, and gossip mate too!. Oh I remember so much things😊. From the day that you told me 'I can't bounce back' to the day saying 'It's Okay'!.. to bulshit situations. The most vulnerable girl becoming strong like a storm!. Yeah that is life..😊. I will miss your punchlines soo much bro!.. I wish you get things you deserve. And do not ever have to fake that gorgeous smile of yours 😊. Keep smiling and have a good, very good life.

Ritesh Bachhar : Oh Mouli! You look like some unknown cartoon character. Your unique hairstyle, uncontrolled smile and confused face make you exclusive. Numerous fights over small things will always be missed. You are the happiest of my Fantastic 4 squad. Don't you dare forget about our trip to Rajasthan.

Rohit Kumar : Mouli Chai, a beautiful smile. I don't take tea but always wished to have some tea on Mouli Chai stall. ☺..... You are a pure hearted dear, everyone likes your smile and I still remember and will always miss your that song "akla chlo". That night on marine drive with your beautiful song and with all our friends was worth to enjoy. Keep smiling always and one more thing I would say in the last semester you were kinda too much worried for your study, please don't take that much stress and always be happy, things will automatically fall in line. Thanks for being part of my life. Keep smiling, keep rocking ❤️❤️😊
