Shashank Sarvan : Fourth year was a wild ride. For you. And as your roomie, for me as well. I remember the nights you came back sloshed and I was giving you toothpaste while filling that infamous vodka bottle with water. I also remember the two-man jam sessions on those lazy afternoons (bunking classes in which we almost flunked). Walks to maingate when the weather was pleasant to drink juice and breathe some "fresh air". The long summers days when the only respite was coming back and "chilling" on the corridor with you. 276 could barely fit you but had even less room for your personality. Proudest moment would of course be when you made it to Surbahaar. Thanks for the laughs, the bakchodi and the scarring:)

Radhika Tibrewala : Hello! Prom night didn't happen(veeryyyy sadlyyy), but you still owe me a fancy dinner to apologise for all the times you've made me go mad (lost count obviously)! But i don't owe you anything okay, specially keep your eyes off my bank account. It was always your duty to keep me sane, keep me together, stick by me, and blah blah blah. List isn't ending of how insti life wouldn't be possible without you. 2/7 karenges xD Lotss of love. see you soon

Aditya Chalishazar : It's funny how we met coz of Paradigm in IIT Bombay. It's been interesting, whatever few interactions we have had. All the best! :)

Aditi Mahajan : Hello Nihar. Thanks for being in Energy? 🤔🤔🤔 You were so helpful at so many times(especially the last semester). All your fundae were so useful :) Kripya humesha hume gyaan dete rahe and apni Rads ke sath ek common outing toh banti hai(which obviously Rads will sponsor😂). I hope we stay in touch :)
