Richa Agrawal : Yes! It's been over a year since we've met, but the memories we have is something I will always cherish. Thanks for being a great guy to work with and a greater friend. I miss the fun and meaningful conversations we've had in sophomore year. You are a kind, smart and amazing person and I know you'll do so well in life!

Harsh Vazirani : Second year was hard for me too, academically and personally. And organising those competitions with you and Chanchal gave me something to look forward to and something I really enjoyed doing. It would not be an exaggeration to say that that was the most fun I had doing something in insti. Ideating, managing organizers, calling for judges, and especially on ground stuff during the fest, all of it was so much fun. You were also the first person I believe I came out to personally and not in text, because you made it feel safe to do so. And your response encouraged me to do so with other people. Thank you for making me a roof person 😊. Thank you for being the binding force in our little group. Thanks for being you.

Saipriya Satyajit : Hey cool guy, I wonder how many cookies you ate today 🤪. Is that the secret of your knowledge too? Good lord, whenever there is a discussion/conversation about anything, it is rare to find a person who can match you. I mean name almost anything you would know tons about it already 🤪. I learned a lot of things from you that way 😊, and it is a bit sad though, that I got to know you in the fifth semester properly, I wish we had met sooner. I know there are great things ahead for you, and I hope you achieve all you want in life ♥. Looking forward to meeting you again, anyway, we still have kill bill 2 due. Oh and not to mention, I am definitely coming over for comic con in SD bdw 🤪.

Kartik Patekar : Hey Aman! You are the man who knows-it-all and who has done-it-all. I am sure you have a mind palace in your head, containing data on history, politics, music, books, TV series and whatnot. You are a fun person to be around (can never forget the mood! dance dare xD), radiate positivity and almost always keep your cool (let's not talk about Peb fort or the times when I seriously overdid things :P). Thanks man, for teaching me squash, all those enriching discussions, giving those biology explanations (which I never understood), showing me rooftops of Insti, and that Milkshake! I am glad that we were friends, and look forward to seeing you again! Don't forget about our planned boat-house trip!

Mrigank Ashesh : Yo! Bhai I am not sure what was our first interaction but I am happy to have met you. Although a bit late but it has been so nice spending time with you. We didn't go on trips together but I am definitely looking forward to 🤪 Thanks for helping me organise those lukkha night for department and stay in touch. All the best for your grad school. Phod dena 🌟

Karan Trichal : Hey Aman! Can't believe it's been 4 years of knowing each other already!! (a little bit more than that, even before coming to IIT, if you remember :P) We've interacted and worked together at so many points in our lives, the freshie newsletter (I still maintain that's the best team I've ever led :P), MI, Insight again.. your creativity, sense of responsibility, openness and honesty are just a few of the things I've always admired for the last 4 years. All the best for all your future endeavours, and stay in touch!!!

Abhisek Sahu : Annu! You always surprise me with the amount of stuff you know. Be it movies, songs, comedy specials or historical things. I have always enjoyed any conversation that I have had with you and I felt I connect with you so much! I will always remember that night when we had 'fruit juice' and shared a session of infinite puns 🤪. You have a great sense of humour really. It was a pleasure knowing you! I am surely gonna come down to SD to see you! (Read-comic con 🤪), but keep in touch otherwise too. I would love to see you grow fat 😊 Cheers to the mellow Bois of Bosonic! ☺

Shubham Gunawat : No man with a punch perm can be a bad guy, and so i was optimistic about you, but we had quite the time together, didn't we? We first met at the start of our second year on the stairs of somwell, but i guess it was around mid third year we actually clicked. It was actually quite weird that just how many similar interests we had. You were always there for me, and I can't thank you enough for that. You listened to all my whining, all that bitching, all of my out of nowhere lectures about whatever bs I was interested on that particular day. I can't even pick my favorite moments with you because all are equally beloved to me. In the end, thanks for being Randy Rhodes to my Ozzy Osborne. Will mi

Apurv Tiwari : Manuuuuuu! It was fun to sneak up from behind in the mess and headshot dena :P Kafi acha lukkha kata hai tumhare sath, randomly milke infi baat karna, Varun Saman ke vision ke time SAC mein random ghoomna Shreyas ke sath, and mere bday par infi barish mein bhi BnB wala brownie leke aana <3 Poster banana H10 mein, and itne sare EP wale bachon se jaan pehchan karvayi tumne. Best to gunnu ke bday wala night out tha. <3 Stay happy hamesha.

Tanmay Garg : Hey brother, you have always been such an amazing friend man. I still remember that one time when I fled alongwith you to Pune just so I could get away from IITB haha. Bro, i too feel sad that we haven't been in touch as much but I know this that we would continue to remain friends forever and be there for each other whenever need be :p looking forward to meeting you soon man, bhoolna mat I'll always be there for you :) stay in touch...

Chanchal Godara : You are such an amazing friend to have. Working with you and Harsh discussing those competitions, night-outs, random dinner plans are some of the memories I am always gonna cherish. Thanks for introducing me to half the roofs in insti. Thanks for helping me quite a few times when I asked questions and tolerating me as well(that's definitely not easy :P). Keep in touch dude and US jaake bhul mat jaana:)

Sagar Kumar Seth : Yo Aman ! The silent boy. You get the work done without much talk. But you also know when to have fun and chill out. You are one of the coolest person with a special taste in music and food. You also a very understanding person. It's always fun to have a late night conversation with you ! H18 ke chat par baithke shochu peene ka mazza hi kuch aur tha ! Will miss those times ! Hope we meet again someday. All the best for future bro ! Wish you great success and a fun life ahead !

Yashaswini Chauhan : Hey Aman! From being an orgie in MI to being a panelist in FN, having you as a senior has meant that all will go well. I remember MI mein how you made sure that we orgies had food despite that you hadn't. Wish you all the very best and stay the compassionate person you are! :D

Saman Siddiqui : I remember Freshie year, our first walk back to the hostels - I think I may have jumped around too much! XP and I'm going to use that to attribute how we lost touch after that 💔 I'm so glad Insight happened and that 5 hour long groundwork did too and we were able to bond over the things that matter to us!! 💖 I hope we never lose touch now. You're one of the nicest people I know! Stay the same 😊

Kshitij Sovanee : How is it possible that you get attached to someone without even meeting them once? That's exactly what you've done! You've been the coolest SoS mentor among all of my other friends and you've constantly helped me and solved my doubts! Thank you so much and very sad that we couldn't meet actually- I'm sure I would've loved it! Here's to a great life and all the very best for the future!:)

Keshav Janyani : Yo Aman, you are one of the coolest person I know and you just happen to be great at everything you choose. It was fun knowing you in the gang and trips.. All the best for your future man..

Shubham Punjabi : Aman man! You were the glue of our small little journo group! The commitment you had in you always kept all of us going. Second year MI was lit af, even more so cause I got a team like you guys, remember how we jumped on the stage at the end 🤪. Keep smiling always dude, best of luck for the future!
