Sreyashi Mandal : I used to worry that I talk too much till I met you. :P The first time I met you at IISC, I was really scared of you! I kind of fear people who just randomly talks to strangers. But, then I met you in campus as a fellow mentee. The more I interacted and the more I got to know you, I realised how transparent and honest you are. You are so full of life, so bright and so cheerful! You are the kind of person who can make tons of friends by simply being their awesome self. You radiate positivity and I have always admired that. The world needs more people like you who can demonstrate what it's like to live life to the fullest. Please don't change, ever. Wish you all the best for your future. <3

Ashish Kumar Choudhary : You are different..totally different..the bonding we share😄.starting from sem 1..when we first met in a mentor-mentee meeting and I came to know ye ladki kitna bolti hai..we 3 me rahul and you..we did a lots of late night gossips aise chalte chalte IITB ke sadko pe...i love the way u are free bold chill classic bandi .and the samir hill trip that was not my fault.. I had tried my best but at last, we fell down..haha...inviting you mili neeraja on gala dinner...and you brought silk chocolate for me 🍫...you and pradip doing back biting in the department 😂😂..but still I decoded the msg..i wish we will be the same funny buddy and we will meet soon.🥺🥺🥺..and lab se chia jaana..

Sagar Baulia : Memories bring back memories , Bhawna is the most talkative person I have met in my masters .. but she genuine and true . And if I don't mention kishore bhaiya and Bhawna then it will be incomplete .Bhawna is always a great friend , a her selfies ,particularly one with phale sir was surreal.U 2 guys (kishore and u) are the 2 sides of the coin , u r chirpiness and kishore bhaiyas calmness make u guyzz complete .. # stay blessed , and do what u love most ..

Neeraja .P.S : Bhaaaawna!!!People have complained that I call others also 'Bhawna' :-D. I am thankful to each second you gave to me.I love you so much.

U r so free as a friend and very helpful for which u ll always b thr in my list of constant frnds. I cn nvr forget d way u treated my mother & helped me in my problems. Those incredible memories of CDRI days starting from the day 1 with juice at night to all those including visits to places & restaurants will always be spl to me. U r so daring at taking selfies in lab & cls. U hv enough courage to face d challenges n xpress urself in front of any1.all d best fr ur career

Abhishek Datta : Pagal Aurat!! Maine itna extrovert kisiko nai dekha bhai. Enjoyed teasing you and your "maar dungi, dutto" You are one and only. Really enjoyed your talks and jokes. Your jovial attitude can light up the dark. Still remember the first day when you came to hostel 8 on the way to Dmart. Kishore bhaiya ka khayal rakhna, zyada gussa maat hona.

Neharika Sharma : Hi bhawna bhawna😄. Nobody can understand my desi Pun like you do. You are full of life. Our days as neighbours were awesome. I will miss you and your green tea. Ok bye. 🍵

Titash Baidya : I think you are the person who pulled my leg most. And the pulling was so hard that sometimes I thought my brain and heart will also come out. Tune mujhe bahut chiraaya yaar!!! But your energy... oooooooooohhhhhhhh...like the simultaneous explosion of 200 hand grenades. You are so pure inside that you cannot hide your emotions. Really...from the first day you helped me a lot; not only me but people around you. And took my care like my mother during my injury...I can never forget that. During group study, hangouts and even in ug lab your spirit was overwhelming. Very lucky to have a friend like you.

You talk a lot but you are surprisingly smart and dedicated in your work ♥ Best wishes to you and Kishore, I love u too 😊 tune ek baar apni pant di thi borrow karne ke liye - uske liye thanks yaar 🌸

Jeyapriya T J : My favourite girl in IITb who has given me one friend cum brother. Being with whom, everyone will forget their stress. Helpful girl who doesn't hold any grudge against anyone. A responsible pipette incharge who cares about pipettes more than herself 😊 I loved the way you make fun of me. The way you make fun of everyone around you without negativity or hurtful things is enjoyable. I really enjoyed talking to you which was inducing serotonin secretion. I've never seen anyone turning blue whenever you're with them. Such a lovely girl 😊 You don't care about what other people think of you, you put a smile in each and everyone's face which are attractive attributes in you. Thank you for the oxytocin

Ritu Hembrom : you are awesome and so down to earth and cheerful . you always light up the mood. thanks for your encouragement and support . i am so grateful to have you as my senior. jb v kuch problem hota tha you are like " ho jayega " agli baar dhyaan se . wish you all the luck. ♥♥♥

Ritika Aggarwal : I thought I will write a lot, but now I m speechless. you are beyond awesome. Well, you are not just my mentor since the first day 🙏, I always see myself in you and beleive me, everyone who knows both of us, say that I m junior bhawna and I love when they say this because I admire you. I cannot forget how you use to help me even before one day of my exam because I felt that I will not do good, and you are always like "chill Kar!!!!". There are so so many things I love about you. The way you pursue what you want to do (well, I also do the same 😊). I remember our late night conversations and the talent hunt we did, that was the last time we spend a day together. I will always love you. Thankyo

Sumedha Ghosh : Hey lovely girl. You were somewhat permanent in our room. Like our next roommate. Adhe se zyada time chair par kapre rakhe hote the and mai aur neeraja ek dusre se puchte the ye kiska kapda hai and we used to know it's yours. You are such an adorable person. I am lucky i have crossed paths with people like you- so down to earth and so honest amongst all complicacies. We could have spent more time together and photo bhi rah gaya ek sath wala. Sab itna jaldi khatam ho gaya ki bye bolne ka mauka hi nahi mila. Sab busy ho jayenge and baat karne ka zyada mauka bhi nahi milega. But iit yaad ane pe tera yaad zarur ayega. I miss our gossips. Loads of love. ♥
