Utkarsh Kulshrestha : Ms. Ritu Phogat, ek baat toh directly bol dete hain ki apse bahut darr lagta tha first semester mein. Ki aap maar na dein meri ulti phulti vartalap pe. But with time, we changed you :D. Esp after the goa trip, we got to see the other Ritu. Lab start hote hi, exercise ke end pe pahunch jane wali larki...yeh kaun si rail express thee aap. I'm glad that you joined us for every plan we made. Bina complain kiye hue. Bas kuch raaz ki baatein aaj bhi nikal kar ani baaki hain :p Nikal hi lete, saare raaz. Girl sports ki iklauti diggaj representative hamari. Hard working, no doubt in that. And consistently activities mein part lena. Sports, anchoring, fashion show and all. Kaafi machaya hai :D

Agar future me jab bhi mile tab tu nhi bachegi😄 keep the same temprament and will be in touch... pending White T-shirt paint :

Sandeepan Dhoundiyal : Ritu, you are the coolest, kindest, and strongest girl in the college. Your sewing, and unseeing skills make me jealous. I really enjoyed talking to you, and being scolded by you. I will fondly remember going to Prof. Rao's office with you, and walking around the campus at night. You are the goalkeeper, of our CSRE team. Silent, quiet, but absolutely essential. Goa wouldn't have been as fun without you. In fact, most things wouldn't have been. Stay awesome!

Swapna Sarit Ojha : Thanks for a lot of things (advices as a Student Companion, suggestions regarding courses, placements etc.) but most importantly, thanks a lot for convincing us to participate in the Diwali celebrations last year. We, idiots, were busy in working on our assignment (guess the subject XD), and it was because of you, we got to participate in the dance and the kaju katlis :) It was my best Diwali ever. All the very best wishes for the future. Keep collecting sea-shells on the sea-shores. (P.S : Alex shot this amazing macro-video of a hermit crab coming out of its shell,near the sunset point in Palolem) (P.P.S : We didn't get the placement-treats yet. We accept Amazon Gift Cards)

Chetan Mahajan : Civil girl...one of the reason whose email response gave me clarification to choose GNR, and thanks for it.. Happy semiconducting aage k lie... wish you a great future ahead..
