Irina Merin Baby : Cheri... A multi-talented person with all talents... you r good at dancing, singing, studies, drawing and what not... omg... you have a hand in everything!!! I wish we #IITBGirls will be bonded like this forever... I'll miss our H11 days very badly... b'day parties and its planning , treats and getting ready for that, MCA dance and its practice, all hostel and mallu celebrations and of course our tik-tok video making... Wish you all the best for all your future endeavors dear... #MyRoomie #ChoreographerOfOurTeam

Sandeep Narayanan : Bulbul of walk group, dancer, singer and what not, u are an awesome talent! Our friendship started with hectic HPC assignmnt days which mas made better by Charcoal eats biriyani we shared. ChinaWall trip, Walk group, Shiru, ChemCanteen, placement days, h11 free lunches (:p), all made our bond stronger that u became my dearest buddy (though kappa think it is her :D). U are the most hardworking person I have ever met. Promising a "Dil Chahtha He" type friendship is more of a cliché and little Patti show, but I am sure I will cherish the memories made here for long and u will remain the best part of it. Stay the same with one ounce less of ur mood swings! Hoping for more fun in B'lore.

Swati Meena : It's true we didn't spend that much time together but I think we both are way too friendly that whenever we had the chance we made it memorable, and most of the credit goes to the mess food and hostel DJ nights. You are such a beautiful dancer and an amazing person. P.S Please invite me to your wedding, I really want to attend one South Indian Kalyanam.

Smita Lokhande : For my first sem, I just knew you as our senior.. but eventually we became such good friends because of those endless nights of assignments in second sem.😁. you are the quirkiest person I have met who I still don't understand why but hates watermelons.. We had such great times together.. you were my 'go to' person for coffee. Will miss morning EE canteen wala breakfast, h11 lunch, shiru ki coffee, ' are yaar guide se milna hai' wala msg, our dance/cure fit talks and so much more.. We will definitely get "ready" and go for a proper dinner before we join say goodbye to our student lives..🥳

Swetha Jose : Hey Cherry..you are one talent-overloaded person who loves to perform and entertain people :-D When I first met you, I got the impression of a person who is very stylish, cos of your straight hair :-P then I get to know you sing, dance and draw equally well..first time im meeting someone like you.. :-D We shared interests in singing and I cannot forget how you would teach me some songs word by word and beat by beat for mca performances..:-D Thanks a lot for your patience :-) :-) All the best in everything :-D #IITBsingingpartner #girlgang

Samiksha Kesharichand Baid : First person I had talked to before coming to IIT... A mentor.. Anyone will ask for.... All rounder buddy... Always there for you.... A bit like chilly.... But this chilly is not spicy... A very sweet and cheerful person... A senior That Won't make you feel as if she is a senior..... Will miss you and our gang... Best luck for future...

Deepthi Pratti : From a mentor, to a senior and to a friend for a lifetime, you were always there for me even before coming to the insti♥. The multi-talented girl of our batch,my Telugu partner🥰,the one with a good foresight,the most caring person,my contact lens guide 🙏🙏🙏 and a lot more.I miss all the night walks, those endless nights of games and those trips with you. U are one of those friends that I'll always look up to.Thank you for everything and for always having my back♥.Looking forward to making many more memorable moments with u in the future. PS I miss u and Pushkar's fights😁

Sancho Simmy Louis : You insisted on me calling you "Chechi" even though we are of the same age (Senior :p) .Then you went ahead and earned that title by being one of the most helpful seniors that I have ever had.I will never forget our HVDC assignment sessions when we would start singing all those hindi songs while we struggled with matlab simulations ! Btw , you have no idea how easy it is to irritate you #Easy_preay . Best of luck to one of the most talented people I have ever met !

Pushkar Chaudhari : One of my bestest friends at IITB. In a group of friends, there is always that one person who knows most of your secrets. You are that friend for me. Whenever you and me have fought, it was always a huge fight. But it never lasted for more than 2-3 days. If I have to single out one memory, it'd probably be the walk near B&B, after we had fought a day earlier, and sort of signed a peace treaty :p. Our group walk after dinner is the one thing i'll miss the most. (PS: Teri shadi video conferencing pe attend karni padegi shayad :D)

Sona Jose : Cherishma, I still remember the first time that I met you. It was during the "The first Lecture" by Zele sir. Since then you have amuzed me with your bunch of talents. Singing, dancing, drawing there is nothing this multi linguist is not good at!!! I will definitely miss our mess chit chats. We had almost the same timing for breakfast!! Will see you in Bangalore. Wish you all the very best for all your future endeavours. Stay blessed :D

Modani Abhishek Sureshchandra : You are one of the most hardworking and systematic person I have met in IITB. Your brilliance in Dance and singing are commendable. We have a lot of good memories of our Igatpuri trip (like Ghost stories, rash driving) and since then we became good friends. I still remember your punch on my nose. I always enjoyed your company (little annoying sometimes but still ;)). Our 4 baje ka shiru coffee, placement preparation, Mukul sir ke sath meeting all was so much fun. This corona ruined our North ka trip that we were planning. But we will all go once this is all over. And haa bangalore bhul matt jana..Ghar ka khana khane tere paas hi aaenge mai and sandeep. All the best for future. Cheers :)
