Mudita Rana : Hello bucket 1 😂😂 so glad I asked you to be a part of the group (wait.... Am I really?). You always saved our asses on the podium 🤗 and worked, sometimes 😂 I think we've all taunted you enough for that. Complaining about comp bio together was fun, even though it ended in me helping you most of the times, if not always :p You still have to tell me your Wednesday secret 😊 and you're unofficially our wingie :) so stay in touch!! 🤗

Vaishnavi Gupta : Bhadriiii... Almost like my third roomie during third year :p Thanks to sowmya we became friends... A huge part of chemical was bearable coz of you xD Like our machau heat transfer group and brainstorming over tutorials.. I don't think you're a fan of senti :p bas keep in touch <3

Aayushi Baheti : Hey pseudo wingie! In the cookie of design lab, you were our chocolate chip 😂😂 From always coming late to the meets, eating Mudita's share of food, responding late on whatsapp to being sir's favorite, you were just the ideal lab mate ❤️🍰. Design lab was so much fun with you'll. Will miss those lab sessions 😞 Thanks for saving us dude. Looking forward to work with you! Just so you know, since we are friends now, we are supposed to be in the same team, iykwim! 😊

Yash Pundlik : Hey! Aap aise graduate honge, itne jaldi aisa kabhi socha nahi tha. Fate, huh? From the first time you met us in March 2019, pata chal gaya tha ki aap machax ho, kuch alag ho baaki seniors se. Later interactions revealed that we had sooo much to learn from you. Over the past year, I've looked to your for advice and inspiration, be it a acads, PoRs or absolutely anything. Aise hi chill rehna jivan mein aur humare group pe respond karte rehna. Good luck (you'll need it 😊)! PS : Bahut badi vali treat baaki hai abhi, agar nahi di toh BCG mein aake dande marunga aapko 😊

Raghav Goyal : Lets do a case tomorrow? haha! Man! Those were some fun case prep sessions! Stay in touch bro! :) you are one of the nicest and the smartest people I've met!

Sourabh Surage : Bro, I loved it when you say.. "I think surage it right" and then reiterate the whole thing in the meets for me.. It was always great talking to you about "How to increase productivity" stuff.. Also, thanks for cracking that one marki deal as well (haha), keep in touch bro and keep smiling as you always do..

Shubham Anand : Hey Bhadri! You have been a constant source of inspiration for me. When I first met you, I honestly had no idea ki yeh insaan itna great hai. This was because you are such a down to earth guy despite having achieved so much in life already. Whenever I had any issues regarding my acads, PoRs or even my personal life, you were like "Bro, room 269, H-2 aaja" xD. Thank you for everything and all the best for your future!

Kirtesh Ajay Gadiya : Bhadri how can one get AA from DX grade should be learned from you. That prof isn't bitch btw. The most interesting thing that happened to you is becoming Prod OC last year. Well you did that job very well so we got too many prize last year. All the best! Be wild always!

Sarvind Rankawat : Hey Bhadri, most of our conversations were only in H2 mess, and after reading posts on your wall I think you didn't spend much time in H2 any ways. Mein socha thha poor English mein likhunga par fir tere level kee English merese nah ho paayegi, and FYI "Kechi" means a pair of scissors. You were with me during the best part of my insti life, we all were unstoppable. Thinking of what we achieved during our tenure together still gives me chills. Wishing you a good luck ahead, Mujhey pata hai tu machayega and teri hindi gaali ka accent miss karunga Yaar.

Yash Samriya : Bhadri! You are one hell of a smart and very helpful person! It was really fun working with you in Process Control and elec course projects! Damn, you had that elec project report made by some friend of yours and it still had my Elec minor project title! Your organized chaos wall thing is amazing like your lecture notes are arranged in such a complicated way yet it's somehow organized! Kaise machate ho itna? Thank for keeping me calm and helping me out big time during placements! Stay in touch bro! :)

Jovina Vaswani : Bhadri, you are an adorable person. It was fun working with you in the design project. Thanks for answering during presentations, and saving all of us. Wishing you all the best for your future. You are smart, talented and hardworking, and I would love to see you do extraordinary things in life 🥰

Utkarsh Chandra : Yo BHANDRIIII! My most vivid memory of you is you yelling at me on Day 1 for being so clueless about what's going on 😂. (Thanks for helping me get through it though). Also thanks for helping me pass quizzes in the first year. I wish our wings hadn't changed after the first year 😂. I never understood your crazy obsession with friends then (but I do now). All the best and stay in touch!! PS- I didn't know you were using my room 🤔🤔

Aniket Ranade : Are mere harami dost, sayyad apni love-hate relationship ki wajah se hi saath mai kaam karna padega jab tak dono ko nikal nahi dete company vale :P. tune intern ke time itni help kari hai na ki kya hi bolun mai. bhai voh Dosa yaar intern vala, aur weekend vale parties. tune kuch miss kar diye Bangalore ke chakkar mai par thik hai ab tu Job vale bhi kaafi cheeje miss hi karega. Tu mere se itna frustrate ho jayega ki banglore chala jayega socha nahi tha yaar mai :(par phir bhi accha toh ye hai ki Udan ek country ni hai XD. nahi toh vaha chala jaata tu. galti se competent mat ban jaa yaar, mere saath vala koi bachega hi ni phir

Pururaj Singh Solanki : Of all the seniors in 'our souls', you were (and are) the coolest 'god in human form'. I mean it's not an exaggeration to say perfection is possible, you just nailed and excelled in everything, and with a calm and composed mind as yours, we couldn't have a better senior to guide us. Thanks Bhadri for everything we asked for... P.S Techfest was lit af.

Romanch Bygari : Vanakkam Bhadri! All those days working under you in Techfest has only amplified my respect and admiration towards you 🥰. You're honestly one of the chilliest yet the most productive person I've met. I better not get started with the long list of qualities I've learnt from you 😊. I will always remember that ticket less train journey and those 2 fun-filled days during TechnoRion Bangalore 🥰. I genuinely wish you go all those heights and places you want to go in the future 🥰❤

Kunal Dhruv : Hey Man! I have always admired you and the way you handle everything that comes to you inspires me the most. On our way to Bangalore for TechnoRion, I will always remember how we catch a fully loaded local train in a rush hour and ticketless train journey until we reached Bangalore. Nonetheless, Bangalore was lit AF just because of you and Atharv. I wish you may achieve whatever you want in you life and I know you will because you are Bhadri. All the very best Annan.

Pavani Jeet Jignesh : Bhadri bro, truly XLR8 was fun and completing AUV task in final attempt was unexpected. But you and Srihari persisted. You were my first friend from chemical and I hope that we'll stay in touch.

Karan Kothadiya : Our case group was so fun man. I remember at least 4-5 times we met all seriously, didn't do any cases but just laughed our asses off over all the "hypothetical scenarios". I also remember you being the most irregular attendee at my basketball SSoS :P Let's keep in touch man, our case group party is pending too. See you around. Love, K

Arnav Dewan : Yo! Me super innocent hai! Always! Also are you sure that you used to piss me off or I used to let you do that so that the kid doesn't feel bad..... Our evolution to wings has been amazing and I learnt a lot from you whether it be about academic or about South culture..... You are the ultimate playboy with I don't even know how many current girlfriends and in how many cities, sweet lord it is super hard to keep track!!!😂😂 I know tu machayega hi, so just take care and rock!

Ashi Gupta : Hey Bhadri, though our interaction was only for acads and labs😂... you are always so chill at the same time infi machana..... Stay as you are😁... All the best😁

Shreshth Geevith Thindiyath : Bhadriiii! You went from being someone I was thoroughly and completely intimidated by to becoming the person I could pose the silliest of questions on my mind to. Thank you so so much for all the help throughout last year! I could not have had a better Baap who was more approachable, generous with his doses of common sense, and quite frankly awesome! Keep in touch!!

Adarsh Rathi : Bhadri my bitch, you are a very great friend and an awesome teammate, case group and TF both. I have always liked how you gave me valuable suggestions and the way we laughed at shitty things, or after judging people. You are a very witty, hardworking and smart ass. Our anchoring together was awesome <3. Also, your behaviour while you are drunk is damn funny and hides your inherent flirty nature as well :p. I have always had fun saying you "gulti" and you get weird, playing the publi incompetent card, respect for you for not taking it on your heart. You will do great in life man, i know. Keep in touch, All the best!

Anumay Ashish : Bhai main innocent hun... well bhadri personally I believe u had that skill of being straight forward and unbiased every time. I know kaafi pareshaan kiya hai humne teko, and sorry for that... BUT... 😂 (itna kaafi hoga shayad likhna). Thanks for pushing me to speak in those meets and sorry for failing each one of ur efforts 😂. I will surely remember all those fb caption writing and haphazard discussions over them.... and haan keep in touch so that we can have those small and exciting discussions about everything we could think of 😊

Shubham Goyal : Hi Bhadri , see last day par likh rha hu :p anyway I know you from TF , from achyut saying mera coordie bhaut machau he to you becoming his bacha, i know it's pretty hard to have a father like him xD , i know publicity ko bhaut gaali padti he but i know utna hi woh dept hard hota he, tera accent kaafi funny lagta tha hume, and I also knew that you stood up for things, after your tenure tere room par kaafi infi fun sessions bhi huye , baddy bhi khele, placement rant bhi ki , and ek compi bhi kia xD , may your relationship with ranade stays the same haha, i wonder how you both end up at same place everytime, mumbai raha to we have our party gang ready i guess and patle hone ke plans bnate rehn

Karthik Vignesh : Yo Bhadri! I remember you chilling during the day during exams to give hope to kids like me only to pull off an all-nighter and kill the exams XD I still don't know how you are so chill yet meticulous at the same time. Thanks to your Techfest biscuits, I was able to stay alive during the last sem. I know you would rock the consulting world. PS : Consider setting an alarm in the morning :P

Unmesh Raskar : Yo wassssap Bhadri mah boy! You were one of the first friends I made in the campus and totally worked out awesome. I loved to make you laugh during NSO and try to +1 when coach asked us to make 4 laps to the ground :D you were our 911 when a short stupid person couldn't handle their alcohol XD only you could tame that person in your alien language LOL you have definitely proved yourself time and again, placement machaya bro! Always helped me and always too sweet! Kuch placement fundae do in case I decide to change my job and stay in touch smart dawg! You da best! Party is on you when we meet next!! _"/

Himanshu Sharma : No no, I never said you're fat , you just have that thing concentrated in a particular area (and you know it very well😂) "bro, tere birthdays, techfest, intern, placement saare treats pending hai, ab toh treat Dede yaar😁" and I was always ignored, freshizza group dance was really fun. Hey, how come you didn't get DX in that probability wala course, Kabhi aata toh tha nhi Tu class. And remember, you were not coming to utkarsh's coz you thought you were not invited and how I forced you to come with us (that, you actually were not invited😂). Your "baad Mai ja" was really cute😁 and thanks for all the English you taught me, keep in touch (untill we are done with all your pending treats)

Anurag Bhaskar : Yo mofo! Unfortunately we didn't hang out much after 1st year because you were always busy XP. It was always fun messing with ya. So disappointed you did not give a single treat. Although you would banter with me, you never failed to help me. I definitely won't fail to get that treat so you better make it sure it would be a grand one

Aditya Venkatraman : Hi da :) I think my most cherished memory of you was dancing with you and hyping you up at that gyrations treat in second year xD Damn fun it was xD You're one of smartest and most dedicated people I know and I wish I could be half as level-headed as you. That EE project was one disaster but Samriya pulled through somehow with some help from us I guess :P I know I used to say the most absurd things at lunch in the mess sometimes but it's always been great having conversations with you man. Hope our paths cross again in the future. Touch la iru macha <3

Soham De : I am walking down the lab aisle, there are two weird guys glaring at me in a weird way. Fortunately I knew these were TF guys and I was wearing a TF Manager t-shirt :p I still find it amusing thinking about the utter confusion that you had. Then we met in that boring bad Wangikar Sir course and final year mein Advanced Thermo where we used to sit together always and do random chitchat to pass time lol And you getting full marks and still crying after exam that kuch nehi kar paya. xD Khaane ka plan toh ek hi baar hua that too randomly outside department post our classes, chaloge kya? xD That was a cheap but good place and that Caramel Custard at 30 rs! GG Consult Gawd as well!!

Saman Siddiqui : I'm not kidding, I literally wrote this before, can I blame the computer for this miss!? I'm so glad you texted cause I had written a lot of good stuff ;) Bhadri you are one of the smartest people I know. You're sweet and I'll never forget how last midsem you called me to the LCH so I could teach you and you ended up teaching me upto a minute before the exam XD If only I had known that you offered that service, I would have availed of it far more often. That is definitely one of my regrets along with the fact that I didn't get to annoy you more :(People only need to spend a min with you to see the potential that you have not only to make everyone smile but to also be the nicest person!

Atharv Nandapurkar : Yo gulti. Woh Thane wala experience lit tha, worth a life-long memory. Yes, Bangalore Zonals changed a lot of things for us. Uske pahle itne anti the n then mast bond bana. Itne ajeeb n chutiyap sawalon se pareshan kia hai tujhe, lol. I just think ki tu mujhe judge krta hoga. U have a good debating skill :p but sahi se nhi use krta tu humesha, lol. Good luck bro, kaafi machaega tu age, bass bhool mat jana mujhe

Abhishek Singhal : Hey Gulti!, I always love teasing you and publi xD. I remember, we first met on dept trip in 1st year and I thought you are very shy and polite guy but you proved me wrong :p. I always appreciate how smartly you manage all the things be it acads or intern or placements. Thanks for helping in acads(kaafi ache se padhata hai tu). Keep going high in life and stay in touch!!

Well I should thank u enough to bear with my bhand hoke dance in treats..<3 and yess I will never forget the brainstorming we did together for day-3 iykwim just because of Goyal's nightmares XD Stay the same sweet, caring and loving person you are..and one more thing, I'm proud of the patience level you have XD Salute!! XD keep in touch dude..

Bidish Ghosh : Bhadri dude I still remember that day we met at the Rang orientation like yesterday xD Maybe more so because of my embarrassing antics that day :P Kudos on dealing with ChemE so seamlessly, still can't figure out how you do it. Last I remember bugging you and Sowmya while you guys were studying at the LHC. Stay cool my friend, and I hope you do well ahead :D

Arjav Shah : Hey Bhadri! I have always enjoyed your company in the lectures and will miss your meticulous tally of notes for a missed lecture ;-) I always thought you were a core/research guy given the vigour and involvement with which you did stuff! Remember that conversation we had about choosing a 'career'? :P I am so happy for everything you have achieved and am sure that your dedication & sincerity will take you a long way! :) Hope to stay connected and take care! ChEers, Arjav

Ayush Ankit Singh : I always had the impression you are a very studious and serious person. Got to know you a bit during the "department trip". But then came the design project and everything was thrown out of the window. Always late to meets, at times not coming at all and always putting pressure on your team mates to work harder😓. Although at times you saved us during presentations. But still thoda toh kaam kar leta 🙏. I hope in future you will work better with your team. All the best for that. Cheers!

Mahajan Devavrat Shailesh : Man, arguments with you are unending. But I must give it to you they are fun. As fun as you are in your life. You have made me change my opinion on "gultis". I thought of them to be immiscible in the normal society at IIT, but you really did mix with all of us and were a fun guy to hang out with. From being a sports secy to a TF manager kafi memories bani, sports cup jeet liya <3. Apart from that, You and mote made my Hyderabad stay bearable, thank you for that. Stay in touch man!

Subha Govindaraj : Mongeyyy! Yes, I'll try to listen to you hereafter. One of the people who has my respect and love, even though you can be a drama queen sometimes. I don't even know how I met you, LOL. A random "Hi" in the H-15 mess or meeting each other outside basketball court and here we are, almost 4 years later. Doesn't matter if we fight each other with our strong opinions, or you judging me for being, well, me, I know we won't give up on each other, because nambaluku Soru thaam elaam. Though I hate to say it, TF and H2 was really lucky to have you. And I always take pride in telling everyone that Bhadri is my mongey, the guy started a tug of war between two companies during Day 1 of placements

Abhijith Krishna : Bhadri daii... You're one of the most random fun people a person can have around. The vibe you bring to a place is unbeatable. All the memories I have with you is crazy.. Pitying those 'stupid drunk people', 'cricket is shit' debates, jumping out at you from the dark.. Love all these memories.. Have fun man, and I know you're gonna kill it in the real world, cause never have I heard companies fighting over someone like they did for you

Ritik Madan : Hey man, we should really plan our placement (success) treat as soon as this shit get over with. It was really fun prepping with you especially with your banters with Rathie XD. It's amazing how you keep your cool even when things become overwhelming. I hope we keep meeting in Mumbai or maybe flights perhaps (in case these consluts do keep their promises) :P

Sowmya Ravichandran : Dude 700 words is not enough to write all the shit about you. From being civil to each other in the first sem to fighting like crazy by the second sem, from listening to each other's drama to having our own drama, and to having everyone think we're a couple, we've seen it all 😂 college life wouldn't have been the same without you- yes, it would have been so much better. Anyway I guess all good things come with pain, and though you're the most annoying person on planet earth, you're still my bitch♥ oh and don't you ever think of getting a new best friend, I'll personally come and make sure I ruin it xD I don't have to ask you to stay in touch, cuz if you don't, I'll kill you :)

Karunya Baskar : You are the nicest, warmest person ever. I've honestly never met a Tamil person as cool as you (don't tell Poobesh and Subha I said that). I'm going to miss some Bhadri humour in my life. As long as I'm in insti, I'm gonna hear your voice echoing through the empty info corridor going "stupid drunk people"
