Harsimran Kaur : Initially I thought you were a snob but after one semester I realized you were not. You are just as awkward as me which made me correct my own flaw of judging people too quick. We had an amazing time together and you were a really great friend that I adored, appreciated and needed at a time. I tend to get aloof but Thank you for staying right there for me whenever I needed you. I will miss your corny insights and great observation skills. I hope you succeed and get married soon xD. Don't forget to invite me. Lol.

Shalini Tyagi : Tere 5 minute ka entertainment used to be my only source of happiness in some of the most terrible days of second year. Tere baat krte krte, suddenly awaaz raise krna, I don't know kaise maine bhi embibe kr liya. Teri harkatein aur serious situation mai straight face jokes have made me laugh out loud. I have learnt a lot from you. And I love tere sharp observation skills :D And, you inspire me to stay strong and self- dependant. Thanks for being there. Lots of love ♥

Aparna Singhal : PTA nhi tu kese meri lab partner bn gyi..I still wonder😂😂😂...But jo bhi ho mje pure kiye h..teri smart skills ar mera fast forward mode mei kaam krne se hamare experiment sbse pehle khtm hojate the..😂😂..although koi ter ni maar liye bt khush toh ho hi skte h😂😂..Tera observation ki toh mei fan hu ar PTA h kese..jbse tune meri eyebrows mei kami btayi h😂..Tera hasna ar mere room mei aake choti choti baatein btana mei miss kr rhi hu 😂...U r hardworking girl..u nailed it, being from botany background how well you cope up with biotech was just amzing😂..Will miss those back bitings😂😂

Rumjhum Mukherjee : Sharma Jiki beti got too real in IIT. She has Oscar too, butt kitne bhi baar ye example de do parents ko, woh toh manne se rahe! One of the very supportive and helpful friends I had in IIT who helped me with the entire arrangement of seniors' farewell and talked on behalf of me with you-know-who, I'm never going to forget our Popeye in class! Stay in touch, and keep me updated about Oscar. Ek din toh main usse zaroor milungi. Tab tak uska khayal rakhna! <3

Lisha Awasthi : Start khn se karun... You know how much i love you... Tere saath memories ek post mae nhi aaskti♥ chahe pareshaani ho ya khushi tere pass jana ..tera opinion lena kyunki mujhe pta hota ki tu best advise degi.. aise bahut bahut km log hote hai jo dusro ki khushi mae khush hote hai... Hamesha sabko motivate krna.... You are the most strong 🦵 personality i know in my life. Ek dusre ka dukh hum bina express hi samaz jaate♥...teri observation skills and humor level are incredible and makes you unique. Stay same don't change you are perfect 😊

Maayla Siddiqi : Bhaisab we had shared infinite gossips :p jiski koi limit hi na ho. I hope you will keep all that a secret i trust you LOL😂. How can i forget tera tough times me optimistic hoke mujhe dilasa dena chaahe khud ki bhi lagi padi ho. You were the reason for my uncontrollable laugh while having food in mess. Bhai tu alag hai.🙏

Priya Kumar : Aur, kaisi hai? Pata tha profile pic nahi lagayegi :-P I am glad for the great time we had together - night walks, studying in the hostel library and cursing ak, subway, busago and many others... A hardworking person, sometimes judgy, but kind. Best wishes for your future :-)

Jeyapriya T J : At last I found your profile😄 A funny girl whose mindset intrigued me. You have amazing views. During 1st sem, I spent the next most of time in your room. From that moment I enjoyed your presence of mind. You don't take too much time for your reply if someone asks or says something. Still, those replies are neither hurtful nor negative. It was fun to explore places with you♥ i.e., New year Hiranandani, Mumbra, Marine drive. I liked being with you in room no. C-232. Hope we go for another trip after the end of corona 😊
