Tanmay Garg : Hello aawaz aa rahi hain ?? Helllloooo??? LOL. I have no clue when was the first time we met or when our friendship grew into such an inseparable bond. You have always been the academic inspiration in my life no matter how dumb you might sound most of the times lol. Also, please work on improving your "capacity". :p ICC would not have been passable without you. It was indeed true what people said that debate and lit secy always bajao others together :p I know we would stay connected forever as our friendship goes far beyond insti :) meowwww

Gali Meghana : I've always found you as this sweet bubbly girl and I'm glad we finally started talking :P Thanks for helping this clueless person in the weirdest and toughest times (the 'oh god' xD). You'll do great things life and that is one thing i'm sure of. Lots of love.

Saloni Deodhar : Ishitaaa, man I wish we could have hung out more :(covid really fucked things up. We've known each other for years now and I'm so glad ♥ rooming with you was so rad, especially that last day, for future reference : one khamba is not enough 😂 also that random security check, what WAS that? 🤖 You've been there for me on so many occasions and I am forever indebted 🙏😭 we have to stay in touch okay 😭 you're awesome and ily

Tanya Mamgain : Ishitaaa Shah ! We have sooo many memories together,our many dates , watching friends , making you watch random trailer , tumhare sath Ahmedabad trip ! It's gonna be hard not seeing you around 🥺 . Love you ♥

Samruddhi Dodal : Never thought I'd find it so difficult to write this considering we've known each other for just 1 sem! Will never forget how you offered to study Khosla together or time spent in and outside classes and ofc Kalaghoda 🍷 And thanks for tolerating my jokes XD (Also secretly hoping this is just a formality and that we're going to stay in touch and won't need to go back to this when we remember each other :')) Wish you the best, machate raho aur aise hi haste reh bina jokes ke :p Thanks 🍷

Nutan Megu : parenting Sylvie with you was one of the best memories of my freshie year. singing videos, tht we made and ofcourse the crazy dances we all did . best of luck for your future Ishu.. you are super smart and have an amazingly strong personality

Sanket Agrawal : Hey! We met for the first time at the lit lukkha weekend and I really had a great time then! You really did spare me during the HS presentation (I had to beg you on the stage xD xD) by not asking any questions, that was a real funny moment. You always carry a great deal of confidence in you, wish I could learn that from you. Stay in touch! =D PS: Knowing that you are mookund's cousin was a real shocker xD

Pujan Biswas : Hi Ms. Post credits of this IIT movie. Used to watching Marvel movies, I know you should wait a little longer and see we are here now. Sharing kick-ass memes, it's mostly me guys. These few months have changed my perspective about you by 109.5 deg (cause ofcourse aap meta mai ho :P) I have rarely found people to whom I can relate to DAMN the next level, keep up the strengthening fire in you. I seriously wish now that we would have gotten to know each other more after that MD trip but I believe that hope never dies. Also, woh Cal nahi hai, Kolkata hai! Ahmedabad & Mumbai se hum zinda aa paaye toh chaat marathon karte hai. Har word ke aage LIT mat lagana please :P Your LIT dost, Bisso!

Pragun Badhan : Sakhi!! Our chats indeed are the best, from us practically being girl friends to the many many dogs shared. Goddamit that Sunny never happened :/ we tried our best though (we didn't did we ;-;) . Stay in touch girl, a gujju marwari will obviously be useful as heck xD. Thanks for giving headstrong and mature help when I did ask for it in the passing. Slay in life!

R Aditya Narayan : Heyy! You're a really chill person and have excellent taste in TV shows (I loved fleabag , it did " change my life " =P). Sunny scene was crazy fun (We tried explaining what frequency was to Avan. I don't think she got it). Wish we could've hung out more :(. Stay in touch!!

Soham De : The LIT Secy Madam <3 Enjoyed wonderfully the different quiz events that you held during your wonderful tenure and got to meet a lot of amazing people through the club. Our interactions lessened post your tenure last year though :(Best wishes for your future and keep smiling. Lit Convo Treat pe then milte <3 (no depressing conversation as requested by you in RT :p)

Anusha Dubey : "Hello, Can I please borrow your charger?" said a v cute girl, standing in front of my room's door, on my first day at college, bas uss pehli nazar me hi tujhse pyaar ho gaya tha ♥ Uske baad kab beet gaye ye 4 saal pata hi nahi chala...humare blah blah videos, meri exam ke pehle wali sari rants, wing me pagalpanti, sare dance performances, raat se subah hone tak baat karna, ek dusre ke room me pade rehna, sare khakhre ek baar me khatam kar dena, and ofcourse bohut sara jhagadna..har cheez ki itni sari memories hai, the list is never ending. Bas ab jaldi se acco sort karte hai and let's relive all those amazing memories again ♥ Aur haan, mere liye khakhre ke 2 packets leke aana yaad se 🥰

Anmol Gupta : Hello Kitty :P "Waise why did you add me on Snapchat" "Idk, was just adding people randomly" and look where we are now XD. From LPQ chats to having dinner there, and then so many Gullu brunches :) HS 409 was SO MUCH FUN XD. Yes, ma'am liked me far more than you :P Thank you for introducing me to BROADSHEET and a bigger thanks for not taking any of my suggestions ever :) It's a pity we never could have a Sunny night, would've been quite lit - making fun of you has to be one of the best pastimes hehe! Oh, and Spokenfest was lots of fun (thanks for staying for most of the time lol :P) That apart, you're very fun and sweet to talk with, let's keep in touch! ~ Your Ken 'partner' XD hugs

Aniket Ranade : Hello yaar. Thanks mujhe meri aukat ke bahar ki jagah par khana khilvane ke liye, sunny ke aage kabhi to jaata hi ni mai :P. Anda Pav vala lifestyle tum try ni kar paye lockdown ke chakkar mai. Lockdown mai hi jyada baat kari sayyad apan ne Insti mai ki usse toh. Khush raho bas yaar. Sunny jayenge ab toh Bombay mai hi hai aap Harvard jaane se pehle tak.

Sarthak Khandelwal : hello fren. You are nice. You have dragged me to a lot of classes and made them fun (except when you started writing notes). You have a weird issue of flipping on the randomest of things which I think I'll miss the most. You have been with me during probably the lowest and highest times in my life and I can't thank you enough for it. You and I have too many memories, be it random outings, shopping, studies, 8 hours long walks (xD), endless rants, hogging, gymming or giving me shelter when I feel too lazy to walk to H9. Thank you for being a part of my insti life. This is just formality, you ain't getting rid of me!

Aditya Nishith Shah : Whenever I tell somebody that I'm in the same college as my sister, they tend to express pity. Little do they know, that having a sibling who has been through exactly the same stuff as you, isn't all bad :P I'll miss cancelling Laxmi/dinner plans with you Di :(And embarrassing you in front of your friends lol P.S. You still owe me a Laxmi treat from like 2018 😊

Rohan Kaushik : It's been fun, it's been real. Despite everything, I can't deny that there'd be a big chunk missing from my insti life if not for you. Take care and don't let Sarthak rein in your trips 😊.

Abhishek Tandon : I am going to make sure you spoil me like your unborn kid or your unadopted dog.

Devyani Verma : Hey Ishita! It was great knowing a savage person like you and lol I love the way you always go "Kuch bhi ya, insert name" If I say you are my fav con from your batch, some people will be offended, so I am gonna refrain wink wink That houseparty was mehh if not for stories of Kumaresh's escapades and our conversation B) We still need to go on that ladies night! Lets catch up once all this is over :)

Hardik Murarka : I really can't remember ki apni itni strong bonding kab hui but really glad that it did happen. You are really amazing and lively person to be around. Tu best hai yaar♥. Tu kissi bhi baat ka bura nahi maanti hai chahe mein kitni hi bakwass kyu nah karu and take everything in a good way. Apne saath mein photos hi nahi hai except kurtaday wali (Thanks baar baar call karke bulane Kai liye wadna woh bhi nah hote 😊). We will meet soon and tab Sunny chalenga :P not theoritically 😊.

Avani Mangal : Last few months created a new bond altogether..Theo was definitely the best place for some great conversations we had XD Although all the prom night planning got failed :(but let's hope we all get back to insti atleast once..<3 You are really a sweet person dude...especially ur smile <3

Karan Trichal : My God, what will it take for you to stop using stuff I say to you as a joke against me? :3 We hit it off right away when we started working on that doomed-from-the-beginning article :P and a lot of it had to do with your open, bubbly nature. You really put me at ease since our first conversation, and we never looked back after :D You're a super fun person, and the 5 laps we did of the insti that one night was one of the best walks I've had with anyone! Your troubling me is one of the things I enjoy the most about our conversations, so please keep up :P Also, weight loss tips plis :3 All the best, and stay in touch! (And yes, I'll do my bit this time towards staying in touch, I promise xD)

Pushkar Saraf : Ishita... I met you because of rishith and rohan.. i always felt nice when i met you guys. Hasadete the yaar and made me feel better. I know i have said this kaafi baar but i regret that i lost so many friends branch change ke vajah se... Thanks for being nice! :)

Aniruddha Suhas Deshpande : Every single time we've gone out has been sooo fun! It's a shame Harry's stopped Karaoke night (probably because some girl kept hogging the mic 😊). Keep in touch so we can go drinking again sometime, and so you can give me good book suggestions. P.S You and Avan are damn cute <3

Nithin Kumar : Heya best fren!💙 You know we don't need this ya😊 Thanks likewise for always always being a constant. hugs<3 - Let's meet already ugh!

Varun Sule : Hey, it's always been fun interacting with you, be it the litcon tenure, intern, VVINK, or everything else after that. I'm so grateful to you for all the 'running' during placements, I don't know where I would be without your help. Always stay the happy person you are!

Kumaresh Ramesh : I didn't think an H6 guy would have to save the seat for a H10 girl insert your (TM) sticker But yeah, it has plainly been the most fun I have ever had in a minor course :P With third-year PoRs and semex, didn't really hang out enough :/ Thank god for foxes and priests though, you will be in Mumbai (when you aren't up in the air)! PS: TATBILB pt 3 watch party pakka!

Mukul Jangid : Hello meri first year ki dance partner. Tere aur Sahas ke arguments toh kabhi nahi bhulunga mein😂. Apne handing over ka dance bohot awesome tha yaar we need to do more clubbing or a performance maybe. Wish ke tumne AIDS kiya hota iss saal. Please Musketeers ko humesha active rakhna💕💕

Mookund Sureka : Covid khatam toh hone do :p fir chalte hai

Anuj Naik : The only interaction we had was during the elections, after the groundwork, you told me that I can ask you if I need any help with the points, or framing them, I don't remember the details, but you were very kind and I just want to thank you for all of that.

Raghav Goyal : Hey Ish! I legit still hate the fact that we didn't interact utna even though we were a part of the same council! really.. i guess it was just a shitty misunderstanding between us because of a shitty person you know! But theek hai, better late than never i guess! You are an important person really! whatever little memories we have! i love them and ill cherish them forever! Thank you for helping me with my manifesto till 3am even though you were super sick! it meant alot yr! really! From the GW to ICC photoshoot to interacting with the bhand you and hugging me and thanking me...could you have got any cuter?? Thanks for helping the drunk me as well. Stay the same and all the best for your future endeavors :) - Anugya

Ayushi Panghal : Hi ish, of all the things I have my semex to thank for, not doing core courses joins the list, because of you. Thanks to sahil for initiating the mandatory new friendship thing and making sure I have people like you in my dual year. I'm so glad I went to Sunny that night and a lot of smuggling, tumbling, drunk talking and pictures later, I found a super adorable ish. Thank you for being my runner in life, I promise I'll always be there for you too. Ah, wish we could've connected earlier in insti but I'm sure we'll have plenty of time in future to make up for it and all our plans. sunflower emoji Love always, ayu. <3

Patel Harsh : Ishitaaa! The best lab partner I could have asked.♥ Roll no. 1. Tu gujju kyu nhi h yaar😂. Btw kaafi maza aata h tere sath and kaafi help kari h tune lab me.. Arjav Shah : Hey Ishita! You're such a sweet & charming person! Met you first while we were conveners & from then on it has been a real pleasure to have known you! Had a very great time during the tenure in ICC. You were always there when I needed - A big thank you for all the help and support during the tenure! <3 I wish we'd interacted more often later. All the best with everything and hope to keep in touch. Cheers!

Rishabh . : The person with the most cheerful and the brightest smile! Always be the sweet charming person I loved hanging out with! All the best for future and stay in touch!

Richa Agrawal : Hey Ishita! It was so good to get to know you in 1st year. I have always looked up to your kindness and focus. I miss seeing your cheerful face in the mess and I wish we had hung out more. I wish you the best for the future! :)

Shubhankar Mihir Seth : From meeting you for the first time on your birthday, to drunken walks (and my first-ever lakeside visit at night), book recommendations that were welcomed (and movie choices that were not), fascination for Leh (and knitting), and the SGNP trip that never happened (and all the shit that did), final year wouldn't have been half as crazy without you. Am I stupid? Am I smart? Make up your mind XD. But thanks for talking me out of crappy plans (don't stop doing that). Though we won't have any more minors on Wednesday, can we keep up our Theobroma routine?

Ashutosh Kumar : Heyyy! It was really fun working in tenure together and the way we used to postpone every agenda to "group pe discuss karlenge" :P...meet khatam karne ki achi ninja technique thi ye😂 But yes you were very hardworking and finally Literati ka 1st Flagship bhi pull-off kara itne ache se. All the best! Keep smiling

Vishal Jain : You were right, as always! Ho gaya fomo. You've always known me so well, Sherlock :'). Just wanted to say thank you for being there and listening to me and tolerating my annoying questions (yeah i do see a trend now disapproving dog sticker). Itni baar bola teko saath me Crafters ya Laxmi chalne ko, and tu April ke chakkar me reh gayi 😊 (maybe Sunny ke liye puchna chahiye tha narrow-eyed smile). Just know that i legit meant it when i said I'll still be in touch 10 years later, hopefully enough time for you to "open up". PS - splainer free me karwa de please! 😊

Adwitiya Rao : Man we need more sunny nights together. Let's get drunk and bully Sarthak post lockdown?

Karunya Baskar : Hey you. This is from one crazy bh to another. Thank you for always being so supportive. No matter what we were talking about, we vibed B) Maybe our journeys weren't very different. Or maybe it was just easier to nod to each other than fit our arguments into a single elevator ride to the sixth floor... Just kidding. Actually, now that I think about it, the H10 elevator was painfully slow and I was always delighted to see you there :) lots of love yaaaar
