Edwin Saji Uthuppan : You know what, you have two states: one where you are all serious and don't smile and basically are an uptight bitch. And then two: you smile, and you are goofiest, fun loving, daring son of a bitch. And of course there are superpositions in between.

Drish Mahnot : Adane, you surely have the record for the most nicknames ever. Daddydane, Banditdane, Adidane, we have shared some truly retarded moments. 153 me first time Old Monk pila kar I asked you to move around, not a very ideal thing to do it turns out 😂 Pace me I came to give you ED stuff okay? And Borivali friends the, didn't even remember this until now. Convo me text kiya tha tune. MI, ITSP, EP Junta, Football, Mumbai Junta, Bonfire Tent, Kygod...we have too many memories dude. You have changed so much though, aur zyaada mat change ho, teri uniqueness chali jaayegi. Milenge dude sometime for sure, take care until then <3

Saipriya Satyajit : Dane boi!, go ahead call me saiborg, I will wait 😂. I think we met properly first during ITSP only, that one month was really something. It was so great to hangout with you guys and well we had jalpari and Soumil with his laptop too 😂. I still remember the discussion we had about how I might be a robot, because you have to give me very specific instructions to complete a task 😂, probably that inspires saiborg too right? 😊. So shoutout to Gyros and to our leader 😎. I can go on but, let's save it for when we meet.. Man, it was really great knowing you and having you as one of my friends, I hope you achieve great things in life and looking forward to meeting you soon ♥.

Mrigank Ashesh : Bhai I am trusting you ki tu touch main rahega isliye jyada senti nahi. But then I think it as a platform to acknowledge your presence in my life. I have shared plenty of happy hours and intense study sessions with you. I am thankful for free food and trips sponsored by your parents and looking forward for more of these trips😂. You are one of those whom I can always approach for honest opinions and advices. I have learned a lot of things from you and probably still learning. But there is one thing that still annoys me and would ask you to upgrade is your RAM. Some times full hojati hai toh baaki saare process dump ho jate hain😂😂. Baki stay in touch. Milte rehna. And Haan woh laddu aunty n

Ananay Garg : Dane boi! You have a lot of respect from my side just by the way that you control your life. And i know that i am not alone in this. Haan, i wouldn't deny ki thoda intimidating ho jata hai kabhi kabhi to approach you, but that barrier ensures that whatever discussion we have is impactful. i remember when we watched under the red hood. I knew shit nothing about it but you made me excited about it. Phir: goa, dharmshala, postmodernism, apna chalta rahega.. Bro, tu toh touch mein rahega hi. Milte rahenge. i dont want this to sound like a goodbye, cause it is not :)

Shanya Anand : Being a roommate of yours was one of my favorites parts of my life. I've really admire your personality, choice and decision making skills. The reason I talked to you less was that I have had continuously observing you and your decisions making skills A.K.A stalking, and yeah, jab-jab tu bahar ni jata tha tab-tab mujhe lagta tha ki yarr Sahil ney decision liya tha toh sahi hi hoga XD, childish and fun. Words kamm hai tujhe describe karne ke lia :P. Man yearbook feels like last day of hanging out with the gang and making promises of close contact and then not, But I promise you we will remain in touch, Nirbhay wala touch ni :P

Ibrahim S : I hope you wont play dominatrix with me like you did to shanya for three years. Looking forward to see some actual smiles from your face that you are not capable to produce in coming days in pune..

Abhisek Sahu : Yo Dane boi! Walking aimlessly on a lazy afternoon and dropping by your room to strike up any random conversation, is indeed a memorable part of my final year. I appreciate how you would always listen to me and answer my random questions. Your deep interest in so many things, be it music, coffee, football or just philosophy in general was always refreshing. Even before that I enjoyed working with you as a part of MnP. Your birthday celebrations have always been legendary 😊. I wish you all the best for all your endeavours and hope that we will meet again 😊

Kenrick Pinto : I cannot believe that I really got to know you only in the fourth year. How we never had a proper conversation before that is still a mystery to me. You're a really smart dude but equally sassy! You know I meg better. Don't worry you'll get there. Your pranks were really creative especially the one where you emptied my room. I never got an opportunity to properly prank back though. I will miss all the football nights and the random discussions we used to have. I remember you burning me for no reason when I got up to pee in the middle of the night. It has been really fun knowing you and hope we stay in touch.

Kartik Patekar : Hey Dane-boi! I first 'properly' came to know you during first summer vacations, where you let 4-5 people sleep in your room, even sharing beds at time. Dude, that made a lasting impression. Last few years have been fun with you as a neighbor. I took a lot of chocolates and nuts from your room, and miserably failed many times at kicking you out my room at 3am :P. You are a very logical person, and have pointed out fallacies in my arguments countless times. Thanks for that! The football training sessions were quite fun, but you seriously need more room freshner. You are gonna get a fat paycheck now, ab to treat dena shuru kar! Keep in touch, aur haan, agli baar Farmhouse zarror invite karna!

Keshav Janyani : You have been a wonderful partner from the first year.. I still remember the first time I met you in computer lab and guessing you are from state board because how your name in official records is.. We have had good times during MnP, Summer Project, DAMP and then as wingies in the last year.. I hope you take us to your uncle's bungalow for a graduation party soon.. All the best for your future

Namya Bagree : Adaneeee, first year was literally the best due to Anshul Chhabra Gang! Who would've thought in Vagad all of us would spend so much time at IITB. Being scared of Papa Adane, stealing things from your H8 room, random af EP discussions and football at H6 - they are all the best memories ♥

Nirbhay Wadiwala : While I can forever rant about how asocial you are or how i made friends with the wrong adane (I mean look at lights while you sleep ...what a loser) it doesnt matter anymore .. We've been a colossal misfit and I'm proud to have made it work .. From the annoying intervention to all the evenings shared making cold brew ... It's been wonderful to know you.. To all the future goa trips

Chaubal Soumil Kishor : When I met you in 8th standard I thought you were the coolest person in the world. I have come to know you well and now I know that was just a phase.You are the most organised, smart and determined guy I know and I truly admire that about you. We probably did everything wrong in our ITSP but I still enjoyed it. Movie nights, football, Psych and our debate on the useless nature of your department will always put a smile on my face.I wish you all the best for your future and hope that we would stay in touch.

Sagar Kumar Seth : Yo Dane ! Yeah I never knew you had a nickname. Guess we only became friends over our internship. It was true we often had arguments about most things. Guess our points of view are often way too different. But nonetheless the whole intern trip was super fun with you. I will defeat you in an eating competition someday :P. You are a person very much grounded in reality and smart in your own way. By the end our trip I did start appreciating your unique ways of thinking. Hope you find the things that truly interest you. Wish you loads of luck for future endeavors bro !

R Sucheta : Hellooo, Remember the time you called me down saying my roomie is drunk? XD MnP was complete with you. We've all had some great times back then, with all the tamasha caused by Thariq. XD Anyway, stay the hardworking, smart and the awesome person you are. All the best! ^_^

Pratik Prabhakar Wasate : I think I'm only person in our wing who don't call you Dane. I wish we would have interacted more in first half. I really used like the random discussions we used to do in Nikhil's room. It was really great knowing you. All the best bro! I'm pretty sure that you will do great thing in life. Convo nantr mast party karu. Me banvel jevan ;)

Sowmya Ravichandran : Hey bro!! One of my few regrets in college life is not getting to know you guys earlier. I've always felt you were cool, and we've had some nice conversations over the past year. I am glad that we have started now at least, and quarantine is so much better because of you guys :) All the best for your future! I hope we stay in touch and here's to many more sessions of roasting Nirbhay together :P
