Mohd Raza : Hey man i am going to visit you both in Mumbai and Kerala. The man with the perfect smile, amazing singer though i never saw you performing at the yearly malyalam association event (was not invited lol). The punctual guy who is always on time. Man All the best for all future endeavours.

Debiprasad Bhakta : I was sitting behind you and saw giving instruction to a small kid 😊. Your appearance and attitude were showing your confidence, which is literally true. We used sit together from the first day and calculate how much time is left in numericals class 😊. You are very much steady in thinking and about your decisions. We have spent a lot of time together and miss watching those cricket matches. You are a great singer, keep nurturing that. Wish all the best to to be dr. 😊😎

Jasmine Lokesh K G : Ajju da! My idea of Bangalore Days Nivin Pauly :P I have envisioned u singing with me playing guitar (but I'm not good enough -_-) From making plans together about pursuing PhD to u actually acting upon it - shows that u are as focused as laser! I'm glad u will be in Mumbai! I really have no idea how we became so close to the extent of talking our hearts out to each other (even though people thought u were rigid initially :P). U really showed me the right attitude towards dealing with pain. That being said, I'll never forget how u didn't bring milkshake for me when u came to the H10 mess!! (imagine angry emoji) Hate you for this! P.S. Hope ur accent won't become like YouKnowWho :P

Neeraj Kumar Burugupelly : Hey Mann! Quite professional and straight forward person 😊. You are the first person whom I have talked to in Geotech. You are more disciplined, focused to an extent that you dedicate yourself to you work. Other things come next. Man with least crap. Thanks for all the memories! All the best f or your PhD. Keep singing! Keep Going.!

Ankur Tiwari : What thing comes to ur mind when u think abt Arjun? A gentleman, well groomed and punctual man in this crooked world. Bhai, I have srsly become a fan of ur routine and dedication lately... You super talented with an impressive personality. The amount of care u have for others and the advise quotient u provide whether we should write this in mail or not... to communicating with Profs. as friends... You have a cheerful soul buddy... Lots of wishes for your future life... With PhD. I wish this doctor becomes world famous so that we can boast of how proud we are. 😊 Take care I know u will miss us in IITB.

Anjusha K : Da... Ninne paty entha paraya 😊 we became good friends on the day of interview itself. U helped me a lot in the initial days to settle in a complete different environment.. I should say u r one of the lifelines for me in the insti.. Even ur "magical touch" could repair my laptop 🤖 A straight forward person with pure♥. Do u remember once u called me in the late night, u were so upset and we had looong walk N u made some decisions of ur life.. Hope all dreams come true soon. U will have a bright future, no doubt. I will see u as a good professor in the near future. All the best da! Ente lapto pl illa file team viewer vach kand pidcha pole inim koe help nink cheyyandi varum mone 🤖

Ramakanta Behera : Will write combinely for (Ashith, you, and Manu) The name kantha by u people makes me feel good yar. You people are so innocent, have lots of patience, i tried to learn this song but couldn't "Kantha njanum varam...thrisur pooram kanan" and the word "Adipoli" yes, I pronounced it well. Although I had given some pain to Ashith sorry for that bro, he had to leave 333 as we were 3 sharing at that time. The best part is to climp 3 floor to reach ur and manu's room, to get the food which Manu did bought from his home 🤖 post festivals. home made items 😊. Usually ashith brings nice stuffs. It was great mingling with you guys. I wish to attnd a south indian functn, call me at ur marriage. All d b
