Athena Susan Sajan : I can swim, Ich kann Deutsch sprechen, I can make a clay pot, I enjoy eating vegetarian food, I have stargazed and have slept in a tent, I have felt death approaching at Raigad, and I have such good friends because of you. Hopefully, I'll be able to ride a horse on my own too. I have had such an incredible journey during my time at IITB. Thank you. I hope to stay in touch with you. Love, Appi

Krutika Talegaonkar : Pranam Jijaaji!! Most of the things I know about you is due to angrezan only but then eventually you became my friend too. You are one of those few guys I know who can be termed as a Perfect Gentleman. Angrezan would forever remain the connecting link between us but don't forget this idiot krutika also. Also waiting to eat your shaadi ka laddoo soon. Baki all the best for your life ahead and remember angrezan loves me more than you!!
