Neeraj Kumar : "The lady in pink Hoodie," captured my attention, her personality captured my heart! Did you get it? Of course not, you dumb-ass. Call me whenever you read this, I'll explain. You are wonderfully-weird, self-centered person. Thanks for all the emotional support. Not everyone understands that I'm not "IRON MAN", but you do. I wish more people have understood, how dedicated, innocent, and beautiful you are. Remember that night we were sitting in amazon smile, or long walks during exam days, or... stupid to name all. We might not remember exactly all the details. But nothing can fade the way you made me feel. Thanks for being there for me. Stay in touch if you want to stay alive.

Mouli Hazra : Hey Peeps...U have a power to attract people by ur own way.. U are one of the smartest girl I have ever seen..Ur hard work, ur dedication is appreciable....Although u are good at showing ur Don't care attitude but I know...how much u care for those whom u love...Be like this always...Stay connected...

Sananda Ray : All that I to say is ..."Hi peeps" That explains a lot to me. I will miss our study room time...stay well. Achieve everything you want. I will miss your short temper. You " khisti"..

Anurag Dwivedi : Hey Avari.. I can still remember..you scolded me in the general physics lab when I was trying to have conversation with you. But after that we have become such good friends. Do you remember the umbrella flies away when you were sitting at the back of my bicycle.... and I was trying to handle my bicycle..., the semiconductor tutorial that we have solved in Prof. kabra's lab sitting on the ground.... and many more..Stay safe and stay blessed!!

Chainika Chauhan : Hey !! I dont know whether you remembered or not....but on very first day....in convo hall.....you came and sit alongside . You were doing something in your phone. When I saw you, I thought she would be very serious, mature, studious(no doubt you're a brilliant girl) and I was like how will I survive here in the campus if all students would be like her. But with the interactions though very rare, I learnt one thing never judge a book by its cover. You're too friendly, with a great sense of humour. You're hard-working and will surely achieve what you want. You look pretty when you wear long earrings ♥ Good luck!! Stay connected.

Harishankkar GK : ok let this be raw :P u give an impression of a bully(a slight exaggeration :D)..yet I enjoyed them..and u talk sense...I was taken by surprise by your opinion about astro..but now I see your point ;) ..I like the way you put logic first in your arguments..and I love ur ingenuity..never loose that..all the best for your future

Writasree Maitra : I had so many serious chats with you ; whether it be about life in iitb or life in general. I'll remember all those chats forever. Thank you for everything. You're a very thoughtful person; please don't leave that entity ever. You're full with contradictions. You change your mind continuously- it means you think continuously which is a great thing you know. Stay the same; do great research and accomplish every single desired goal in your life.

Pooja Choudhary : Hi Avari! 😊 ..I first noticed you on our orientation day nd you looked very serious. After that we use to meet in study room ..we used to have short conversations.....you are very hardworking nd helpful toohelped me in clearing my doubts many times 😊 This is how i met other side of yours. Stay happy and wish you gud luck for your future 🙏❤️ Stay connected 😊

Dibyanandan Bhowmick : They say, "Intelligence is exhibited in asking the right questions", and, you brilliantly exemplified that, be it in QM, CMP or in any other classes. With vivid visions of your life goals, your determination is something to be inspired, as well as aspired. Your fearless attitude lets you accomplish all the things that you want in your life. I initially was afraid of asking questions to you, but, you, turns out to be quite friendly, sometimes, a good guide. Keep your strong and charming persona, and, yeah, make materials, measure them. All The Best to you. (P.S. take care of yourself, especially, during cold 🤧)

Rohit Kumar : Hi 🙋🏻 bro 😊, Have u heard about a dialogue of chak de india movie "ak team me ak hi gunda ho skta h or es team ka gunda m hu". Do you know who is gunda of our team/class, look into the mirror u will get the answer 😊😊. I always in doubt that are you a girl? 🤔 Jokes apart, really yrr you are a great personality and can set an example for all girls, I like everything about u but as you know I'm very scared of u esiliye kabhi khne hi himmat hi nhi hoti 🤔. Now I know that u can't beat me that's why I can write here... 😊, I wish u all the best bro for your future endeavor. Keep smiling and rocking , keep in touch and blessings us with your kind heart..... "hm aapki dya ke patra h ".....

Saheli Dutta : Avari 😊. I like your personality most. You always do whatever you want don't think about people. You inspire me to whatever I like. You are so cool and I love you and your random slangs too. Keep in touch. Stay like this. Will miss you 😊
