Chemical Engineering

Yearbook
2020

Bhadri Narayanan R : Hey! You were one person who was so chill with everything in insti, right from inquiring about the portions about 6 hrs before the exam. Being an introvert never meant any less fun for you. Seeing you so happy with your laptop indulged in TV series made me wonder what everyone around me is running for :p I still haven't made peace with the fact that the thief chose your lappy over mine :p We've been to the police station as well as dept trips together. Thanks for putting up with me as a room mate and also as a neighbor when you had all the rights to be angry. Oh and please eat more and stay happy :P

Anurag Bhaskar : Yooo! Somehow we didn't interacted much in first year or we could have watched so many movies and anime together. You literally didn't even tell me you were into Pokémon. Now I know you are not for engineering so go big in the film industry. Can't wait to go in theater be like "I was wingies with this guy!"
