Sahil Shah : We first met due to WnCC and then went to ICPC together - all the way to Amritapuri (remember the Chennai dosa and the crazy driver?). We've worked on several projects together and played a lot of tennis (until you decided you were too good for us in the 4th year), but what I will remember most fondly are the long conversations we've all had in the wing about all sorts of topics. Thanks for teaching me a lot about Indian politics and that it is somehow okay to use "hum" to refer to yourself. Singularly! I'm sure you'll achieve immense success in life (bus UPSC mat kar lena)!

Mayanka Medhe : Hey Lord Varys, I can't believe how smart yet humble you are. Talking to you has always been entertaining. I just feel bad that I got to know you so late even though we were in the same class since the beginning :/. I'll miss our gossip sessions over ice cream. Thanks for suggesting all the good books (even Murakami XD), kpop and anime. Please always be my Sakhi and don't lose touch.

Kumar Saurav : One of the most clear-headed guys I have ever met. Any discussion that I participated in, I could see that yours was among the most practical and logical statements to be uttered. And no games were spared in that ruthlessness - it looked like all the loopholes, all the corner cases were hiding before you found and exploited them. But thankfully, one of those few people who were against living and breathing CSGO - those fanatics would have turned it into a cult if it was up to them. Your unexpected streak of sentimentality was the ultimate surprise 🥹🥹:

Sarvind Rankawat : Your audacity to do RG with us innocent souls a night before the exam just shows the amount of risk you will take to enjoy the life. Kisi random night mein Ishan raat ko wing mein aata hai and next 2-3 ghanthey toh aisey hi nikal jaatey hein. I don't know what are you looking for in life, but you are always searching. Aapki pickup lines ke collection ka use hoga, bas Korean sikh lena. You taught me a lots of things, you were my go to person whenever i wanted to code (debug 🐞) . 2nd year MI ke waqt kaafee bakchodi kee thhee saathh Mein, talking to you was always a joy. Never knew kee Yeh sab itna abruptly end ho jaayega toh, hopefully we will meet soon. Meri treat pending hai, and good luck!

Maitrey Gramopadhye : Yo Ishan!! We first met for playing mafia on 3rd floor, where you fought with everyone in the game. You have come a long way from there, mostly size wise. Its always fun to be around you and have discussions with you. I really enjoyed the random ice cream trips and last sem ka sakhiyan. Thanks for the book recommendations and life tips, but most of all, I can never thank you enough for introducing me to Twice! Keep in touch, and cheese cake khane chalte hai XD

Kumar Saunack : Sorry for the long Bhopal detour that one time. We learnt our lesson then. Oh, and that other time too, when all our money went down the drain. From now, no more mistakes when we're travelling with you, definitely :p Btw, I fear that we have already lost you to Korea with K-Pop and Korean soaps. Your calmness will be sorely missed.

Amey Patil : Ishan sir! I always get a mental picture of a complex black-box machine always working on something for you. Idk the reason behind that secrecy, but afaik you have the most beautiful believes and dreams(maybe slightly 1st world) for every little thing in life, especially social life. You are the most considerate, empathetic, helpful, kind, funny, self-aware person I know on campus. I believe that College life is not only about academics, accomplishments and good or bad memories, it's about how we get our personality and ideologies from those experiences which we are going to nurture for the rest of our lives! And I'll always be glad that our paths crossed in the most amazing time of my life

Syamantak Kumar : Arey Ishan sir _/_ I guess we talked more in the last semester than we did in the last 3 years 😊. But you are the most calm, level-headed and smart people I know. I don't know kaise kar lete ho tum, par kabhi stress mein nhi aate. I really admire your work ethic. It would have been great agar thoda pehle milte to. Thanks for the K-pop and K-Drama recommendations 😊. All the best bhai! I'm sure you'll do great whichever direction you go in life.

Ritik Roongta : Yo Ishan! Coolest DAMP I could have (although I had just one xD). U were always very supporting and readily available for us from the start. Be it resume verification or interview preps, I would always text u up and keep tormenting you. I wanted we all could go on a damp treat and know each other a bit better, but we couldn't. Next time you come to India, I hope we will do this as well. 3 cheers to the best mentor and stay connected always!!!

Yash Shah : Seg-LM resubmit karte karte deadlines ka darr hi khatm ho gaya; isliye shayad ye post bhi late daala. Dumb models aside, it was fun working with you on this project. Technical discussions did become boring after a while (all thanks to aforementioned dumb models), but I really enjoyed the witty banter we had in between - especially with popular quotes you modified to describe our project's gloomy state. I always admired your smartness and hardworking nature, and the way in which you compiled and managed all results of the experiments will forever have my respect. I hope we stay in touch, and enjoy in South Korea!

Sahil Saiyad : You seem like a character from Muarakami's universe.

Praveen Saran : Are aap yearbook pe kya k rhe ho. You should be in someone's DM :)). Life mai itna jyada machake bhi itne lukkhe ki roj nyi nyi shayari and pickup lines likhni pdti hai. Itne jyada machau and yet ekdum down to earth. Kisi particular insan ke bare mai updated rahna hai to touch mai rahna pdega xD.

Ashutosh Kumar : IIT Bombay ki CS aur phir 1 Cr. ki job_/__. Perfect IITian package :P . I still remember PH 108 ke 1 baje ke midsem ke liye you started studying that morning _/__. Nevermind CS ke smart minds🙏. The coolest & smartest guy with the best comebacks one could ever expect. Thanks for being our pseudo-wingie, plus my partner for SMP meets😂. Sorry for being out for almost the entire 3rd year, but thik hai I guess last sem mein infi outings & treats se compensate ho gayi woh. And how could making memes & stickers on Aayush be ever complete without you, plus tolerating Aayush & Nishit ke never ending arguments. I hope all those shayaris & pick-up lines will reach their destination soon😊

Sanchit Jain : A simple person with a positively peculiar form of sense of humour. Our evening walk where you treating me with the ice cream and apologised for things which I had long forgotten, is something I will remember. The small chats in your room in 4th year is to cherish. You get pissed when I say something related to "Samsung Korea". You have depth in many field may it be philosophy or CSE. First time saw you as GOD for all FIITJEE students in Patna after JEE. I respect you for your creative approach towards life be it through drawing or writing. I know you won't admit that tum acads machate ho as always. A humble, intellectual and jolly individual. I look upto you as do many others. All the best!

Mahajan Devavrat Shailesh : Never be the smartest guy in the room. Thanks for forgetting this advice and remaining a part of our humble group of people from the most backward departments at IIT :P With you, the topics of discussion were always huge and you always seemed to carry the discussion to a level that eventually became incomprehensible for us mortals. Notwithstanding the intellectual difference, I turned to kicking your ass in Mini Militia instead. Of course you are gonna go ahead and become one of the greatest alums of IIT so try to maintain contact. It would be a good exercise for me once in a while to count the digits in your salary :P

Himanshu Bohra : 54 bhai bhai, tum hamesa hi ussi samay entry marte the jab kitaab haath mai li hi hoti thi padhne ke liye. Apni 54-54 bonding alag hi level pe hai and wo random ladkiyon se phone calls pe maaza lena. I hope you get success in all your future endeavors. Touch mai rehna bhai <3

Nishit Nagar : Yo Ishan, hamare real se bhi zyada real pseudo-wingie. I feel so happy to know you in my insti life, tumhare bina philosophy padhne aur discuss karne mein itna maza kabhi nahi aata. You are one the most down to earth, calm, rational and soft spoken person I know. Your dedictaion towards your goal, whether it be reading books, exercising, your research projects or counting cards while playing hearts, is unreal. I will always remember your canteen enthu, freshie year exam time mein MM enthu and our random discussions whenever you came to my room.

Bidish Ghosh : Ishan bro kya mast transformation hua tumhara first year se xD Apan bas meeting schedule hi karte reh gaye, aur finally Corona ne plans ko indefinitely postpone kar diya :/ You're an amazing person, and I'm going to miss running into your randomly at H2. Stay in touch, and hopefully we'll catch up soon!

Aayush Anurag : Only guy I knew before insti. Mere jaise masoom ko kya pata tha jo savageness coaching mein teachers pe nikalta tha, woh IIT aake mere sar pe phootne wala tha. Agar tmhara aadha motapa pressure to perform & perfect execution in any task ke kaaran kam hua hai, toh aadha meri roasting karke hasne aur hasane se. Thanks for keeping me sane🙏, infi lukkha (MM, Board games, Patte) helping me for everything (coding se leke personal life), outings, music & books(tumse inspire hoke hi kuch padhe maine) & giving me a new perspective about life & things through those discussions constantly for 4 yrs. If my insti life was a burger, u were the ketchup. PS-humne kya hi ukhada, sarkari naukri toh nhi mili.

Sushil Khyalia : arey sir itna dedicated and focused kaise rehte aap _/__. rm rf to karna hi hai chahe kuch bhi ho jaaye. thanks for doing itna saara kaam and more importantly sharing screen meeting ke time. intern pe time nahi mila but job ke time milte rahenge. also Khan sahab ke kisso se updated rakhna wo page jo bana na hai. PS- kar diya chaalu CRAIG padhna. PPS- tzuyu best hai twice me but still nancy best

Kartik Khandelwal : Yo Ishan Sir ^/, you are one of the most smart, hardworking and humble guy i know. I even think you sometimes underestimate yourself a little bit. I got to know you during the 3rd year intern and since then you have become a very good and precious friend of mine. you were always such a patient listener to hear to ramble on and on (remember the late night TT games in Korea?) . Really missing the mitron meetups, tho no worries future to infi party karenge. Ap hi ke shabdo mein "we will make a lot more mistakes then we do now"

Abhro Bhuniya : Love it when I talk with you, cos I always learn something new from these. You have a super unique way of looking at things, leaves me at loss for words, and you know i love to talk. Tumhare baare me best ye lagta hai ki tum logo ko sahi time pe sahi cheez bolte ho, bohot mental support milta hai tumse, hum sabko :). Aur bohot khelna tha tumhare saath, you always had my back during football and elsewhere. Normal anime dekhta hu xd, bolta nhi unke baare me interest nhi aayga. I respect your decision to embrace the sadness, but imma just watch for now, and take the dive later on.

Rishabh Raj : Oh! That 1st year guy - healthy and characterised by a spherical face and now tall, slim, calm and mature. I know, our interactions have been less, rather more in groups when the wing met in Amey/Saurav/...'s room, but it was fun with you around. Even more so when you came to my room but in the end, I know, lene ke liye hi aate the! Didn't refrain from doing that in the mess too xD! Thank you that day for inviting me to play football (I remember you going, "nahi bulana chahiye tha :P") and for taking me to that temple that night. Made more memorable by the abrupt rains!! Coming back to you, a very kind and a helpful person. Enjoy! Best of luck for your future endeavours!

Chappidi Lakshmi Narayana : Ishan sir, I love how humble and down to earth you are(used two adjectives so samajh lena). Daaru peene k bad tho alag banda bahar aata h. Always the first person I looked for, when to team up for doing something fun or trying something new (Sorry khan sahab but you don't eat duck bbq). Always has a knack for witty replies and funny quotes. Unique thing about you is you divide work and fun equally. Korea jake firse orange soju peete h. And mina is good but no sana no life. K Bye.

Amarjeet Kumar : I have never seen anyone with such calmness in the institute. it was always fun having you around. Indeed we have same taste in Bollywood sad songs ♥ Milte rahenge bro and all the best..bade kam karo! 😊

Kaustubh Harit : Tumhaare jaisa dude aadmi nahi dekha main. Your focus and will power is on another level and I really admire that. I know that you are going to do something like changing the world with the skill sets you have and I loved playing the card games too. Keep up your witty side, its really cool and I hope you get everything you want!!!
